TAFT RUSHES WARSHIPS TO AVENGE AMERICANS KILLED BY NICARAGUA

Execution of Grace and Cannon by Zelaya Has Thoroughly Aroused Government.

TAFT REFUSES TO MEET NICARAGUAN MINISTER

In Addition to Hurrying Warships to Demand Reparation of Zelaya, the United States Has Practically Recognized Belligerency of Nicaraguan Revolutionists---Killing of Americans Regarded as Indefensible.

ZELAYA'S AMERICANS WERE USING DYNAMITE

Managua, Nicaragua, November 18.—Messrs. Cannon and Grace, the Americans who were executed for complicity in the rebellion, were tried at a fair court-martial, held under the direction of the government. The men, it was charged, were responsible for placing dynamite mines which were intended to blow up government steamers laden with troops which entered the river at Greytown.

One of the mines planted by Cannon and Grace exploded fifteen yards from the steamer Diamente.

When Grace and Cannon were captured they had with them dynamite machines and other accessories for blowing up vessels. The men confessed their guilt to the authorities, and also in letters to their families.

Previously Cannon had taken part in a revolution against Nicaragua from Honduras, where he was imprisoned for several months.

Washington, November 18.—Announcement that this government is tired of the high-handed actions of the small Central American republics practically was contained in a dispatch sent late today to the Bluefields Steamship Company, which sought the protection of the state department from interference by the insurgents now operating against President Zelaya.

An hour later a peremptory note, couched in diplomatic language, but none the less direct, was delivered to Senor Felipe Rodriguez, charge d'affaires of the Nicaraguan legation, demanding a full and complete explanation of the execution of the two Americans, Leonard Grace and Leroy Cannon, who were executed by order of Zelaya when they were found in the insurgent army.

Taft Thoroughly Aroused.

Pending a satisfactory explanation of the occurrence, President Taft has refused to recognize Isidore Hazera, the new Nicaraguan minister. Mr. Taft is thoroughly aroused by the actions of the Zelayan government, and apparently is determined to make the lives of United States citizens much safer and considerably more respected in

$25,000 CHAIR TO HONOR SCOTT

Mass Meeting Held by Decatur Citizens.

Beautiful Tribute Paid to the Memory of the Founder of Agnes Scott Institute---Attorney Charles McKinney Chairman of Meeting.

Decatur citizens will give $25,000 with which to endow a memorial professorship at Agnes Scott college for the late Colonel George W. Scott. Of this sum $18,000 was raised last night, and the committee will complete the canvass there this morning, and report the grand total at the meeting of the central campaign committee today at noon.

The resolution to endow this professorship was unanimously adopted at a splendidly attended mass meeting of the citizens of Decatur, held in the lodge rooms of the Masons.

Attorney Charles D. McKinney presided as chairman and outlined the call for the meeting, following the invocation by Rev. Dr. Patton, of the Presbyterian church, of Decatur. Mr. McKinney stated that the meeting was for the purpose of hearing expressions in regard to the proposal to endow a memorial professorship, and that no collection would be taken.

After these remarks he introduced the speakers of the evening. Mayor John A. Montgomery was the first, and he paid a splendid tribute to the memory of the late Colonel Scott, whom he denominted as Decatur's first citizen. W. F. Pattillo, a lifelong friend of Colonel Scott, followed in an encomium which was beautiful. Major W. J. Houston, who knew of Colonel Scott's splendid work in an educational line probably better than anyone living, traced the development of Decatur as an educational center, laying special stress upon the schools which preceded Agnes Scott, and also the foundation of the Donald Fraser High school, with which Colonel Scott was so closely identified as the founder.

Judge John H. George, the ordinary of DeKalb county, paid a high tribute to the late Colonel Scott, and in turn was followed by President F. H. Gaines, of Agnes Scott, who spoke as a citizen of Decatur, and not as the head of this great educational institution.

Solicitor General William Schley Howard, though suffering acutely with facial neuralgia, came to the meeting to pay his tribute of love and reverence to the memory of Colonel Scott and to urge the endowment of the proposed professorship. He was followed by Hooper Alexander, and later by J. K. Orr, of Atlanta, and S. M. Inman, who made the concluding speech.

After Mr. Iuman's speech Mr. Alexander offered the resolution that it "is the sense of this meeting that the citizens of Decatur can and will raise $25,000 with which to endow a professorship in memory of the late Colonel George W. Scott, the founder of Agnes Scott college," which was unanimously adopted. Later he offered resolutions of thanks for the work of Mr. Inman, and for Messrs. Orr and W. Woods White. Mr. Orr made a happy second speech in which he bemoaned the fact that so large and prosperous a gathering was about to be dismissed without a chance being given to subscribe to this fund, and Chairman McKinney held that after the regular meeting adiourned all who wished to could remain and subscribe

It was after the meeting that it was announced by Chairman McKinney that $18,100 had been subscribed toward this fund and the entire amount would probably be reported at the noon meeting.

FIGHT FOR LIFE WON BY ELLIOTT; GOVERNOR ACTS

Commutation of Sentence to Life Imprisonment Announced Late at Night.

NOTED PRISONER RUSHED TO ATLANTA FOR SAFETY

As a Precautionary Measure Governor Sends Telegram to Sheriff Directing Him to Bring Convicted Man to Atlanta---Elliott, Overjoyed, Thanks Governor for Action.

Before the news of the action of Governor Joseph M. Brown last night in commuting the sentence of Dr. J. M. Elliott, convicted murderer of George L. Rivers, from death by hanging to imprisonment for life, had had time to spread at LaGrange, the fortunate prisoner was quietly taken fom the jail there and rushed to Atlanta and lodged in the Fulton county Tower as a precautionary measure against any possible outbreak of sentiment, which is said to be high against Elliott in LaGrange.

This action was taken on the advice of the governor, who shortly after 8:40 o'clock sent the following telegram to Sheriff O. H. Florence:

"I have commuted sentence of J. M. Elliott from death by hanging to imprisonment for life. Bring him by first train to Tower in Atlanta.

"JOSEPH M. BROWN,
"Governor."

Arrives in Atlanta.

At 9:12 o'clock, Dr. Elliott, in the custody of Sheriff Florence and Deputy Sheriff C. W. Emory, boarded the Atlanta and West Point train No. 36 for Atlanta, arriving here at 11:40 o'clock. They were accompanied to the depot at LaGrange by another deputy, O. H. Horn.

But little attention was attracted by the sight of the famous prisoner in company with the three officers, and when their train pulled from the depot at LaGrange hardly a single citizen was aware of the meaning of the departure.

He is now safe in the Tower, being in the same cage with George Burge, who is to hang for the murder of his wife.

Sheriff Florence was the first man to convey to Elliott the news of Governor Brown's action. He was thrown into the wildest ecstacies of delight, and could hardly control his emotions. The sheriff also notified Mrs. Elliott of her husband's good fortune.

Dr. Elliott Talks.

Ten minutes before Sheriff Florence broke the news to the prisoner, Elliott received the following telegram from his brother and sister-in-law of Chattanooga:

"Dr. J. M. Elliott, care jail, LaGrange, Ga.: Dear Brother—With a heart full of love and eyes full of tears, allow us to say goodby. Die game.

"FRED and BELL ELLIOTT."

When seen at the Tower, Dr. Elliott said:

"I am the happiest man in Georgia today. Words could not express the deep gratitude which I feel for Governor Brown. I knew he would do it, although I had about given up every hope. In this action he showed the real man, carrying out his convictions in the face of strong pressure. Dr. Elliott is a life convict, but he is going to live a gentleman."

Governor Brown Acts.

Governor Brown Thursday night commuted the death sentence of Dr. J. M. Elliott, of LaGrange, who was convicted of the murder of G. L. Rivers to imprisonment for life.

This decision on the part of the governor was made only after careful and thoughtful study, which occupied all of his time Thursday and late into the night.

Governor Brown had not made out his commutation papers when he announced his decision, but said he would do so later in the night.

Elliott killed Rivers while he and his family were guests at Rivers' hotel at LaGrange. Elliott shot the hotel man, it was said, in a jealous frenzy, charging him with improprieties toward Mrs. Elliott. At the trial and later there developed nothing to bear out Elliott's delusion.

For several years before moving to LaGrange he lived in Macon. Many of the best citizens, including physicians, of that place, and Chattanooga, his birthplace, made strong appeals to Governor Brown to commute the man's sentence, believing him mentally unbalanced.

It is declared by many that he was addicted to the use of two deadly drugs for many years, and while he was a resident of Macon he attempted to kill two men, one of whom was badly injured.

SCENES ATTENDING ILLINOIS MINE HORROR; STATE ATTORNEY AND A GALLANT RESCUER

Rigid investigations by state and federal officials as well as the county coroner were set afoot immediately following the horror in the St. Paul Coal Company's mine at Cherry, Ill. Leonard Eckert, state attorney, took charge of the local investigation, and with the sheriff, swore in a hundred deputies to keep order about the mine. The most pitiful scenes attending a mine disaster in the history of the country were witnessed about the mouth of the shaft during the long hours of waiting before any of the bodies of the entombed men were recovered. Hundreds of women and children, seized with almost maniacal distress over the fate of husbands and fathers, formed a shrieking multitude, their cries almost unnerving the men who worked frantically to check the flames in the burning mine. Several times the shafts had to be sealed in hope of smothering the flames, but each time when the shafts were reopened the fire broke out afresh. Dr. W. Howe, a local physician, did valiant work in the efforts at rescuing the entombed miners and would have lost his life with the rescuing party had not an official of the mine driven him back from the shaft when the cage with the would-be rescuers was lowered for the last time. These snapshots show the crowds about the mine and the temporary morgue, where the bodies of the thirteen gallant rescuers were taken after the last fateful trip into the mine.

BREAD BROKEN WITH ORPHANS BY MINISTERS

Large Attendance at Second Day of the North Georgia Conference.

ELOQUENT ADDRESSES HEARD BY THE PREACHERS

Fortieth Anniversary of the Founding of the Home for Orphans at Decatur Was Celebrated at the Evening Session of the Conference. Interesting Addresses Made.

The second day's session of the North Georgia Methodist conference attracted an even larger attendance than on the first day, and was marked by the same facility in the dispatch of business under the skillful direction of Bishop E. R. Hendrix.

At the close of the morning session the preachers and laymen making up the conference membership made a visit to the Orphans' home of the conference located at Decatur. The expedition was under the direction of Rev. Howard L. Crumley, agent of the home, and was a source of gratification to those who had been to the home before, and a revelation to those who saw it for the first time. A delightful dinner was served to the several hundred guests.

In the evening exercises commemorating the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the home were held at St. Paul's church, where the conference is in session. Interesting and inspiring addresses were made by Major R. J. Guinn, Colonel George M. Napier, Rev. J. A. Huckabee and General Clement A. Evans.

A feature of the morning session was the stirring address of Professor Nath Thompson, of the Waleska school, who made an eloquent and tearful appeal for aid for the mountain boys and girls among whom he was laboring.

John Wesley Gilbert, the negro president of Plains institute, Augusta, Ga., made an address which greatly pleased and impressed the congregation. At its conclusion a collection of $154 was taken up and presented to him as a donation to the school.

Four Carloads of Methodists.

It required four overloaded street cars to carry the members of the North Georgia Methodist conference to the Orphans' home of the conference at the close of the morning session.

Upon the arrival of the visitors, the little children were drawn up in front of the main building to salute them. The visitors were first ushered into the main dining room, where a delightful repast was served with the aid of a score of the leading women in the Methodist churches of the city who are particularly interested in the work of the home.

The luncheon over, visitors, preachers, laymen, officers of the home and the boys and girls who call it home, posed for a group photograph for The Constitution, after which a tour of the class rooms and dormitories was made.

The delegates returned to the city in time for the afternoon service at St. Paul's church, where the conference is in session.

The officers of the Orphans' home are R. A. Hemphill, president; Asa G. Candler, secretary; Rev. Howard L. Crumley, agent, and Rev. J. M. Hawkins, superintendent.

Recently the home received a gift of 190 acres of land in Monroe county, the same being conveyed by J. B. Maynard, of Dalton, Ga. This was in addition to a money gift of $1,000. The home now has 200 acres of fertile

EASY VICTORY FOR TOM WINN IN SIXTH WARD PRIMARY

RESULT OF PRIMARY IN THE SIXTH WARD

W. Thomas Winn	306
I. F. Styron	128
Walter E. Dean	66
Ballots not counting	4
Total vote cast	504

W. Thomas Winn won easily in the Sixth ward primary yesterday, receiving more votes than both of his competitors put together. The total was 504, four of which were thrown out. Mr. Winn received 306, Mr. Styron 128, and Mr. Dean 66. It will be seen that Mr. Winn received 112 votes over both opponents and his majority was nearly as much as the next highest candidate's vote.

The primary was one of the cleanest and most friendly that was ever run in the city. The total registration in the Sixth ward was 1,160.

There were no issues, each man running on his personal popularity.

Mr. Winn is now serving in the council from the Fifth ward. On the first of January he will begin serving a year to fill the unexpired term of Councilman Martin F. Amorous, who has resigned to take effect the first of the year.

Council Winn has made a fine record in council. He has a large number of friends and his record and his personal popularity caused him to win a victory over two opponents, both of whom are worthy citizens and very popular.

W. THOMAS WINN,
Who Won Easily for Council in Sixth Ward Primary.

After the result of the primary was announced, Mr. Winn asked The Constitution to thank his many friends who worked for him. He said he would endeavor to show his appreciation by continuing to serve the city to the very best of his ability.

The city executive committee has been called to met today at noon for the purpose of declaring the result of the primary.

NINETEENTH CHILD BORN TO MRS. MARIE RADLEIGH

New York, November 18.—Mrs. Marie Radleigh, 48 years old and married twenty years, has given birth to her nineteenth child. Only nine of the children are living, but one of them, a daughter of 19, is married and the mother of one child.

GILDER CALLED INTO UNKNOWN

Poet-Editor of Century Magazine Dies Suddenly.

Angina Pectoris Given as the Cause of Death---Began Literary Career at Age of 12. Editor-in-Chief of the Century Since 1881.

New York, November 18.—Richard Watson Gilder, editor-in-chief of the Century magazine since its foundation in 1881, and widely known as an author and lecturer, died unexpectedly of angina pectoris tonight at the house of his sister, Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer.

Mr. Gilder was taken ill while lecturing at Orange, N. J., November 3. The illness was first diagnosed as indigestion and nothing serious was expected to develop from it. His physicians, on the second diagnosis, realized that the nature of his malady was graver than indigestion, but they did not acquaint Mr. Gilder with the truth.

This morning Mr. Gilder had passed a comfortable night, and was resting easily in bed. About 1 o'clock Mr. Gilder suffered another attack, and died at 6 o'clock.

The funeral will be held from the Church of the Ascension, and the burial will be at Bordentown, N. J. The date has not yet been named.

Richard Watson Gilder was born at Bordentown, N. J., in 1844. He was writing, setting the type for, and publishing The St. Thomas Register, at Flushing, L. I., when he was 12 years old. Four years later he united with two young colleagues in the production of a campaign newspaper supporting Bell and Everett for presidential honors. While still in his 'teens he enlisted with Landis' Philadelphia battery and served during the campaign of '63.

The death of his father cut short a subsequent novitiate in the law, and, thrown upon his own resources, the young man became first a railway paymaster and later an editor, once more. When Scribner's Monthly was started, absorbing "Hours at Home," Mr. Gilder found himself, at the age of 26, in a position of honor and high literary influence. For eleven years he was managing editor of Scribner's.

In 1881 he became editor-in-chief of the Century Magazine, a position he held until his death. Mr. Gilder has published six books of verse.

CONGRESSMAN T. W. HARDWICK, DRESSED IN BABY CLOTHES, RIDES IN A BABY CARRIAGE

Augusta, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—Augusta's welcome to the pilgrimage from Allee Temple this morning was an imposing affair. Although the train bearing Illustrious Potentate E. A. Cutts and the other prominent members of Allee Temple did not arrive until 10:30 o'clock this morning, still the barbecue breakfast awaited them.

This afternoon the splendid parade was held. In it the nobles from Allee Temple had a most distinguished part. Messrs. E. A. Cutts, E. B. Simmons, S. Theus, Harry Durant, and T. H. McMillian had prominent parts.

The most distinguishing feature of the parade was Congressman T. W. Harwick, who is a candidate for re-election against several others, in a baby carriage. Mr. Hardwick is of small stature and was dressed in baby clothing with the additional equipment of a baby bonnet. Mr. Hardwick seemed to enjoy the situation thoroughly.

In view of the fact that there has been considerable opposition to Mr. Hardwick's candidacy for congress, and especially in the Tenth congressional district, in which Augusta is located, it was but natural to suppose that there would be much amusement from the announcement of himself for reelection to congress from a doll wagon.

The Shriners had lots of fun in Augusta. They were given the liberty of the town, and since the majority of the Shriners here were from Allee Temple, the Savannah nobles were therefore in predominance.

The "unregenerates" were put to the test tonight. Several hundred Shriners were in attendance. The festivities were concluded at a midnight banquet tonight at the Albion hotel.

BABIES AND DOMESTIC LIFE DROVE PROFESSOR TO SUICIDE

Champaign, Ill., November 18.—The body of Professor Wilfred C. Wheeler, of the University of Illinois chemistry department, was found today on the campus with a small bottle near by, said to have contained poison. No reason for suicide is known.

Aversion to babies and domestic life is ascribed as the cause for the suicide today of Professor Wilfred C. Wheeler, first assistant in chemistry in the engineering experiment station of the University of Illinois. The chemist's body was found on the university campus. He had taken a large quantity of cyanide of potassium.

It was said tonight that Professor Wheeler had taken his meals away from home since a baby came into the household. He could not endure the noise of the infant, he had said, and even expressed a general dislike for babies.

A note, left by the professor, was found tonight in his desk. It directed his wife how to collect his life insurance and referred to his premidated death as follows:

"I am tired of living, so goodby. There is no use trying to find out what happened to me, as 3½ G (grains) of ken (potassium cyanide) are responsible for my fate."

Professor Wheeler, who was 39 years old, stood well with his colleagues.

NEGRO WAS BURNED IN AMERICUS FIRE

Loss From Flames Amounts to $50,000---Insurance $5,000.

Americus, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—The charred remains of a negro, son of the night watchman employed by the Americus Construction Company, were found this morning in the ruins of the burnt plant. The negro evidently died in horrible agony, and only whitened bones told the story. Careful estimates of loss sustained by the conflagration place the figures at about $50,000, and insurance $5,000. The plant of the Americus Construction Company will be rebuilt.

HIS LIFE FORFEITED TO HIS PROFESSION

Well-Known Specialist Dies as Result of Charity Operation.

Providence, R. I., November 18.—Death due to devotion to his profession is the verdict of the friends of Dr. Francis B. Sprague, one of the foremost ear and throat specialists in the country, who died of blood poisoning, contracted while operating on a charity patient three weeks ago. Dr. Sprague in performing the operation bruised his right forefinger, which, it developed later, became infected. He was 44 years of age.

ELOQUENT PLEAS FOR THE ORPHAN

Founding of Orphans' Home Is Celebrated.

Splendid Addresses Are Made by General Clement Evans, R. J. Guinn, George M. Napier, Rev. Howard Crumley and Asa Candler.

"Fathers and mothers, devoted Christian men and women, are keenly alive to the need of home training for the child, but too often they overlook the training the child gets outside of the home," said General Clement A. Evans, in an admirable address delivered at St. Paul's church last night on the occasion of the fortieth anniversary exercises of the founding of the Orphans' Home of the North Georgia Conference.

The speaker was impressing the necessity of caring for the homeless and the fatherless. Every child who is allowed to grow up to sin and depravity, he declared, degrades the society into which your son and daughters and mine are thrust. In speaking of the meeting in behalf of the Orphans' Home, he said it was one of the most important missions ever undertaken by any assemblage.

The exercises at St. Paul's church attracted an audience that filled the spacious auditorium of the church to overflowing. R. A. Hemphill, president of the Orphans' Home for the past fifteen years, and an active worker for the home for thirty-five years, presided. The speakers were Asa G. Candler, R. J. Guinn, George M. Napier, General Clement A. Evans, and Rev. Howard L. Crumley.

Wonders Wrought by "Work Day."

Reference was made to the splendid results accomplished by setting aside one "work day" in each year when the friends of the home gave one day's earning or income. It was announced that the idea was first suggested to Reverend Howard L. Crumley, agent for the home, by W. F. Crusselle, of Atlanta, and immediately put into effect. The amount given by each person under this plan was nominal, but the total has been impressive.

Major R. J. Guinn treated the Orphans' Home as a blessing to Georgia. He showed that it was designed to make Christian men and women. The condition of every adult, he said, was more or less the result of his own volition, and caused by his own actions; but the state of helpless childhood makes a stronger appeal to human sympathy, because it is visited on the child through no fault of its own. He condemned the practice that would instill into childish minds the "holier than thou" principle, and declared "there is no inherent difference between those children out there at the Orphans' Home and your children or mine. They did not bring their condition upon themselves."

An earnest, practical and inspiring talk was made by Colonel George M. Napier in behalf of the school. He spoke of the beauty and service in the cause of afflicted humanity, and adverted to the monument in New Orleans erected to the memory of "Margaret," the heroine of a great public disaster. He said the Sunday school board stood behind the work of those in charge of the destinies of the Orphans' Home and would back them up.

The pathetic song rendered by John F. Hendrix, a blind singer, who gave a selection entitled "I Have No Mother Now," brought tears to the eyes of a congregation already worked up to an emotional pitch by the appealing speeches of the evening.

General Clement A. Evans held the closest and most absorbed attention of the entire audience during his splendid speech.

Asa G. Candler, secretary of the board of trustees of the home, gave an historical sketch of the home and of those who in the past forty years have carried on its great work. He spoke of the work of Dr. Jesse Boring, the founder; of W. A. Gregg, W. A. Hemphill, Judge John L. Hopkins, T. M. Meriwether, R. A. Hemphill, R. F. Sheddon, and others, who in later years have given their time and their money to the work.

Mr. Candler Speaks.

Asa G. Candler spoke as follows:

"Some forty years ago a venerable man whose head had grown white in the service of his Master, felt his soul stirred with divine pity and earnest desires to shelter and cherish the orphaned little ones of his native state. Presently the idea of an orphans home possesed him; of it he thought, spoke and wrote. Hearing of Dr. Boring through Captain J. C. Hendricks, Mr. W. W. McAfee and Mr. Mills, of Payne Chapel, brought him $100 each, and said: 'Dr. Boring, please start the movement for the orphans of the confederate dead, who are now neglected and suffering, and we will help care for our dead brother's children.' To his brethren at the Rome conference in December, 1869, he proposed the immediate establishment of an institution into which the houseless, friendless waifs might be gathered. The wise ones shook their heads, 'In the present impoverished condition of the country such an attempt was impracticable, enimerical,' said they. But Dr. Boring, strong in the might of a great purpose, by his earnest eloquence, silenced the wisdom of the wise.

"Fire driving the orphans out of their building at Norcross in 1873, the location of the home was changed to Decatur, where it stands today on a farm of 225 acres.

"In the early days there was a struggle for existence, and one of the early inmates wrote in after years, 'But whenever we have been about to be engulfed in a financial vortex there has come to our rescue some deliverer whose heart God had touched. How long with blunt kindliness did Mr. V. R. Tommey supply our necessities with little prospect of remuneration! How like a very Samson did 'Papa Lupo' rend the lion of want that assailed us and practically reproduced the old riddle, 'Out of the eater came forth meat!' teaching us the sweetness of bread earned by the sweat of the brow and the restfulness of the sleep which follows labor.'

Devotes Genius to Orphans.

"In December, 1880, Rev. Sam P. Jones devoted his genius to the orphans. Owing to the fact that the land had never been paid for and large interest had accumulated, Rev. Sam P. Jones found the home $9,645.01 in debt. This huge debt only inspired him, and in a short while it was all paid. He then built the handsome front part of our main building, had it nicely furnished and then built the neat chapel which we now use for the Annie Bass kindergarten. No call was made upon him in the thirteen years of his agency that he did not meet it promptly. Our main building now bears the name of our true friend, Sam P. Jones.

"During the agency of Rev. H. L. Crumley, of nineteen years, God has given us a little village. A gift of $1,000 from Mr. Dean, of Winterville, Ga., made possible the Fanny Dean hall, an addition to the Sam Jones building. Next followed the baby cottage, which was built by the ladies of First church. On our twenty-fifth anniversary the boys' cottage was built, with a capacity of forty boys.

"The Epworth League built our Epworth League cottage. Mr. R. F. Shedden and friends built for us our Home for Cripples, which is now known as the Shedden cottage. Rome came next to our aid by building the Rome cottage, and the superintendent's cottage was built by the aid of the legacy of W. A. Hemphill of $1,000.

"Seeing the special need for better accommodations for our large girls, Major R. J. Quinn and the presiding elder, Dr. J. H. Eakes, organized the Atlanta district for building the Atlanta cottage, and the fund of $7,500 was gladly raised on Work day, 1906. The Moore chapel is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, of Bolton, and other friends.

"Lastly, Mr. George W. Williams, of Charleston, S. C., is building us a pretty granite two-story cottage for thirty boys; this to bear the name of his noble Georgia mother, Martha Fort Williams.

"A number of gifts of various sizes, not mentioned above, have been made to us during these years. Mr. Maynard gave us $1,000, the interest of which is to care for an orphan. Mr. C. H. Ashford gave us $1,000 for manual education. One thousand dollars was received from the estate of G. T. Dadge, and several others.

Have Had Four Presidents.

"We have had four presidents of the board—Judges John L. Hopkins and T. H. Meriwether, W. A. Gregg and R. A. Hemphill.

"The board is now composed of R. A. Hemphill, president; Asa G. Candler, secretary, and George Muse, treasurer; Rev. H. L. Crumley, agent.

"The south is rapidly filling in with a heterogeneous population; orphanage caused by death, disease, disgrace, insanity, desertion, etc., will grow rapidly. We must be ready to stand and welcome every orphan, every absolutely destitute child in the name of Jesus.

"We must be ready to catch the eye of God when a little Lazarus is laid at our doors, and be ready to do for him whatever 'Our Father' would have us do. We have many things we want to do for Him this fortieth anniversary year, and will need $50,000 to carry out our plans for a larger work for more children, a larger, broader work in our care of them, and a larger work for fatherless children outside our home. There is much greater work yet to be done. We have but touched the hem of the garment. We want to do our part. We are ambitious to do the largest work for God. We want to honor Him by letting no little lamb be lost on the mountains cold and dark. We want to glorify 'Our Father' that all the world may know that Jesus' followers, like Him, will never cause the words to be said in protest of our indifference, 'Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not.'

X-SCIENCE BAN ON MRS. STETSON

New York Woman Dropped From Church Rolls.

Action Was Taken at the Instance of Mother Eddy---Action Most Drastic in the History of Christian Science. Statement by Mother Church

MRS. STETSON RESIGNED TO MOTHER EDDY'S BULL

New York, November 18.—Tonight Mrs. Stetson said she had not received any direct notice that she had been dropped from the rolls of the mother church.

"No student of mine, with my approval," she said, "will separate from the mother church or from Christian Science.

"As for myself, neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate me from the love of God which is in Christ our Lord and in Mary Baker G. Eddy, my beloved leader."

Boston, November 18.—The name of Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, formerly first reader of the Christian Science church, of New York, was today dropped from the rolls of the Christian Science church, by order of the board of directors. It was announced that the directors had found the charges that Mrs. Stetson was working against the interests of the church and contrary to the teachings and practice of Christian Science to be proved and true.

The action of the directors of the mother church is the most drastic in the history of Christian Science, besides being important by reason of the standing of Mrs. Stetson, who is pastor emeritus of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of New York city, where she has a large following.

Statement By Mother Church.

The board of directors of the mother church made known their ruling in the following statement:

"A complaint against Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, of New York city, was filed with the board of directors of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, on November 6, 1909. She was immediately furnished with a copy of the following orders:

"It was ordered by said board that the evidence in support or defense of the complaint should be presented in the form of affidavits, or documents, except that any evidence given or statement made by the complainant or the accused, should be given or made orally, in the presence of the directors; that the accused should have the right to the assistance of counsel and that the case should be heard commencing November 15.

"The hearing commenced at that time and was concluded on November 17, at 4 p. m. Mrs. Stetson was present during the trial with her counsel, Mr. Haynes Davis.

Evidence Against Mrs. Stetson.

"The evidence in support of the complaint consisted of the affidavits of twenty-seven persons, five letters written by Mrs. Stetson to her students and approved by her. The evidence in defense of the compaint consisted of one affidavit, two letters and Mrs. Stetson's personal testimony and statements.

"After considering the evidence and Mrs. Stetson's statements made to the directors, it was the unanimous conclusion that the charges against her had been proved and were true. Mrs. Stetson's name was then dropped from the roll of membership of said church.

"The offenses proved against Mrs. Stetson were of two kinds:

"First, working against the interests of the members of this church who are not her followers and against the teaching of this church.

"Second, persisting in teachings and practices which are contrary to Christian Science."

The case has been watched for some months by the directors in this city and two months ago Mrs. Stetson's card, as a healer, together with those of her students, who also are healers, was removed from one of the official journals of the denomination.

Mrs. Stetson's Followers Reply.

Within a week Mrs. Stetson's followers in New York had rallied to her support and an investigation was held by a special committee of the New York church. This resulted in her exoneration and was immediately followed by a meeting of the members of the church, a majority of whom upheld the decision, and a movement was begun to dismiss the present first reader, Virgil O. Strickler. A letter from Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the founder and head of the Christian Science faith, was read at another meeting in New York last Monday, at which action was expected against Mr. Strickler, but without a vote on the question the meeting adjourned.

Since then Mrs. Stetson has obeyed the summons of the board of directors of the mother church and appeared before them in this city. She returned to New York last night.

Swedish Minister Denies.

Copenhagen, November 18.—H. L. F. Lagercrantz, Swedish minister to the United States, who is here on his way to America, has issued a statement protesting against charges made by the Swedish papers that he had adversely criticised the provisions of the American tariff bill. He indignantly denies this, as well as the allegation that he used expressions reflecting on President Taft.

DIX DIAMONDS

May Be Returned for Cash

Diamond Possession Accumulated Wealth

Our plan of absolute value is based upon the soundest business principles and the fact that there is no such thing as a second-hand Diamond.

Solitaire Diamonds bought from us have a guaranteed cash return value of 90 per cent at any time within twelve months of purchase. In other words, if you buy a Diamond at $100, you can return it to us at any time within the year and receive $90 for it. The difference of 10 per cent represents our small margin of profit, and we have had the use of the money in the meantime.

Again, at any time that you might desire a larger Diamond, your Diamond is returnable to us in part pay at exactly what you paid for it, and our goods being marked in plain figures with grade, weight and price, enables you to make these exchanges as intelligently as we might make them for you and in the full knowledge that you are buying the second Diamond at the same price as if paying all cash.

Savings put into Diamonds are really saved, and as investments they are proven among the choicest, as shown by the average increase in value of over 10 per cent per annum for the last ten years.

The causes for the constant increase in the value of Diamonds are now intensified. The number of Diamonds found is very much diminished in quantity as the mines grow in depth, and fewer stones of fine quality are being found. The great depths, 1,500 to 2,200 feet, have made machinery of a few years ago obsolete, the natives have recognized their value as wage earners and are demanding more pay, and the demand for Diamonds is becoming exceedingly great as the people become better able to own them. Diamonds are an indisputable evidence of thrift.

Our Diamond rooms are arranged for the comfortable privacy of our customers in selection, and business awarded us is always accepted as an implicit confidence for obvious reasons.

Our Diamond Books, set No. 5, fully set forth our plan of guarantees and show some of the most beautiful illustrations ever made of Diamond and Precious Stone Jewelry.

CLUBMAN WILSON SOUGHT BY SPEER

New York Millionaire Angers the U. S. Judge.

Wilson Fails to Obey Summons to Speer's Court and the Judge Says He Won't Stand for It---Rumored Officer Has Gone to Seize Wilson.

Savannah, Ga., November 18.—The failure of R. T. Wilson, Jr., millionaire society and clubman, of New York, who has a retreat near Bluffton, S. C., to answer a subpoena to appear in a civil case before the federal court here presided over by Judge Emory Speer, called fort hthe statement from the judge from the bench that it would be "several centuries before such conduct is tolerated here."

Rumors to the effect that a federal officer on a tug would be sent to search for and get Mr. Wilson were heard here tonight. The federal court officials will not talk.

Mr. Wilson's failure to appear as a witness, despite the fact that he was served personally with a subpoena, was called to Judge Speer's attention.

"We don't know how long it would take to get Mr. Wilson here," said District Attorney Akerman. "By this time he may have boarded his yacht and put to sea."

"I think somebody will be derelict in their duty if they don't convince that gentleman that the courts of the United States are not to be trifled with his way," observed Judge Speer. "I understand that it is customary elsewhere for the summonses of the courts to be disregarded, but it will be several centuries before such conduct will be tolerated here."

BUTTS COUNTY GIRL DIES FROM PELLEGRA

Jackson, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Sams, who died here Tuesday, took place here yesterday at 10 o'clock from the Methodist church.

Attending physicians pronounced her death due to pellagra, this being the first case reported in Butts county.

Miss Sams was the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sams, of this city, a graduate of the Jackson public school in the class of 1909

J. V. FAIN WILL SERVE SENTENCE IN STOCKADE

After having his fine of $500 and stockade sentence of thirty days reduced by the superior court to an alternative sentence of a $150 fine or thirty days, J. V. Fain, of 328 Simpson street, has decided to undergo the alleged dread ordeal of the stockade rather than pay the reduced fine. Fain, who was given the heavy sentence several months ago by Recorder Broyles on a charge of having an alleged blind tiger at his place of business at 300 Marietta street, surrendered to the police last night, and will today begin his time at the stockade.

LYCEUM COURSE TO OPEN TONIGHT

Dr. Thomas E. Green Will Deliver the First Address.

The season ticket holders to the Auditorium Lyceum course are requested to note that the first number of the series of entertainments will be given this evening, November 19, at the Auditorium-Armory. The first attraction was originally booked for November 22 and this is the date printed on the season tickets, but it has been necessary to change this in order to secure the first attraction and the members are requested to note this change and be on hand tonight at the Auditorium at 8 o'cock.

Dr. Thomas E. Green, the famous author, traveler and lecturer, is the attraction for this evening and he will be introduced to the audience by Bishop C. K. Nelson, of the Episcopal church. Dr. Green was for 15 years pastor of one of the largest Episcopal churches in the United States but resigned his pastorate five or six years ago in favor of the wider ministry—the lyceum platform.

Dr. Green will arrive in Atlanta this morning from Macon, Ga., where he lectured at Wesleyan college, and will be at the Piedmont hotel. He has been on some of the big lyceum courses in the southern states under the direction of the Alkahest lyceum system of this city and reports from his lectures everywhere have been of the very highest nature and it is certain that the members here have in store a great treat in his lecture on "The Key to the Twentieth Century."

JOHN ALDRIDGE MADE PRESIDENT

The Transportation club, at its annual meeting, which was concluded yesterday, elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

John Aldridge, president; Captain R. F. Wright, vice president; J. E. Miller, secretary and treasurer; W. S. Elkin, Jr., M. O. Jackson, and Alex W. Stephens, governing board.

The first night was given over to a general celebration. The election of officers began at noon Thursday and the last ballot was cast at 11 o'clock at night.

MAN IS ROBBED IN GRAVEYARD

Augusta, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—H. J. Procter, giving Atlanta as his home, and R. Alevin, claiming to belong to Augusta, were arrested tonight on the charge of luring J. W. Cronager, a North Carolina mountaineer to the city, cemetery on the pretext that Proctor wished to visit the grave of his mother. While Proctor wept at a grave, Alexin, it is said, sandbagged Cronager. His wallet was secured, but police having appeared the money was dropped. Alexin was arrested as he scaled the cemetery wall. Procter was later taken into custody. Highway robbery will be charged.

WANT TO PUT A STOP TO WEARING OF BIG HATS.

Columbia, S. C., November 18.—Calling for cooperation on the part of the women of other churches, the South Carolina Baptist Woman's Missionary Union today launched a movement designed to put a stop to the wearing of big hats in church. The resolution denouncing the peach-basket and Merry Widow styles of headgear for Sunday wear was passed amid great enthusiasm.

Charcoal The Great Absorbent

Absorbs and Removes Stomach and Intestinal Cases and Makes the Breath Pure.

The able researches of Dr. Stenhouse, published about the middle of the last century, excited considerable interest in charcoal and its wonderful absorbing powers. His experiments were directed to the deodorizing, as well as the absorbing qualities of charcoal, and he succeeded in proving beyond all question or doubt, that its properties of destroying the offensive odors of putrid vegetable and animal matter, depended, not alone, upon its antiseptic power, as had been generally supposed theretofore, but also on its quality of absorbing and oxidizing effluvia or noxious exhalations from the putrefying matters.

Many other noted physicians have since that time investigated this absorbent and oxidizing action, and one of them, Dr. Hunter, has also published an account of his experiments, showing the relative amount of the various gases taken up by the different kinds of charcoal.

Both Stenhouse and Hunter exnerimented with charcoal made from pollar, boxwood, cocoanut shells, willow wood, and various other woods, and they found that charcoal made from willow wood possessed by far the most power of absorbing, deodorizing, oxidizing and destroying foul gases. It may be added here that animal charcoal, which is employed so extensively as a decoloring agent, is very inferior to wood charcoal as an absorbent and deodorant.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are composed of charcoal made from the finest willow wood, the very best of all woods that can be used for this purpose. The addition of pure honey to these lozenges renders them so palatable that no one can possibly object to their taste.

When they are taken into the stomach they do not lie inert and inactive, but get busy at once in the good work of absorbing and oxidizing all foul gases, destroying disease germs, preventing the further formation of gases, stopping fermentation, flatulence and decomposition of food, and cleaning the stomach walls of catarrhal mucus.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are introduced into the system by being allowed to dissolve slowly in the mouth, where their cleansing action begins, rendering the breath pure and sweet, destroying any germs existing in the mouth, and removing tartar from the teeth.

Call up your druggist over the 'phone, and ask him his opinion of the power of charcoal as a stomach cleanser, gas absorbent and breath purifier; then request him to send you a box of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges for 25 cents. Also send us your name and address, and we will send you a trial sample free of charge. Address F. A. Stuart Company, 200 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

UNIQUE MEETING HELD BY ASBURY BROTHERHOOD

One of the pleasantest features of Thursday's conference at St. Paul's church was the unique meeting of the Asbury Brotherhood—and sisterhood, as one facetious brother insisted on calling it—which followed the anniversary exercises of the orphans' home.

The Asbury Brotherhood is formed to furnish a bit of pleasant diversion from the arduous duties of the conference. But it has cut out for itself some serious work, which is to furnish ministers who need horses ne wmounts when their old ones die or wear out in the service. For this purpose each member o fthe brotherhood gives 50 cents annually.

The founder of the order was a famous circuit rider of the Methodist church, who complained that most of the preachers were giving too much time to the cities and not enough to the country, and he set forth on horseback to convert the country. He is taken as the model by the brotherhood.

The president of the society in the North Georgia Conference is Rev. A. D. Echols; Henry Beranham is restetary, and John D. Walker, of Sparta, is treasurer.

It was while Treasurer Walker was giving the stattus of the finances that Brother Nath Thompson insisted that the name of the society be changed so that it could embrace the women who were present. Treasurer Walker answered that the same result could be arrived at and that the would-be members of the sisterhood could just pay dues.

The society restricts each preacher to a $100 horse. If he buys an animal worth more than that, he must pay the difference himself.

J. B. Kellogg, the negro sentenced to hang for the murder of a Cherokee county citizen, will today pay the death penalty on the scaffold at Canton, Ga. The prisoner had been held in the Fulton county Tower and was yesterday taken in charge by Sheriff Willingham, of Cherokee.

MISS HANSON TO COME HERE WITH BELLEW IN SUTRO PLAY

Miss Gladys Snook, of Atlanta, known to the stage as Gladys Hanson, will appear at the Grand on the night of December 22, supporting Kyrle Bellew in Alfred Sutro's latest success, "The Builder of Bridges."

This play has just been presented in New York, where it made an instantaneous hit, and the critics were fulsome in their praise of Miss Hanson.

Henry DeGive, on yesterday, closed the booking, as stated. It was the desire of Mr. Bellew that two nights and a matinee be played in Atlanta, where both he and Miss Hanson are so popular, but previous bookings will probably prevent this.

Miss Hanson was seen here for the only time since she adopted the stage as a profession, with E. H. Sothern, when she received an ovation.

The fact that Atlanta is so soon to see the latest New York success with the original cast, including an Atlanta girl, will be hailed with delight by the Atlanta theatergoers.

GRANDSON OF DIAZ WORKS ON STREETS

Young Man Arrested in Oklahoma for Disorderly Conduct.

Enid, Okla., November 18.—Vincente Diaz, who declares he is the grandson of President Diaz of Mexico, was arrested here today on a charge of disorderly conduct. Failing to get bond, he was put to work in the streets. Later he telegraphed to Mexico City for financial aid, and produced letters and papers which satisfied the police of his identity. In the belief that the young man's story is true, the police announced that he would be released. Diaz said he was a victim of circumstances.

HARD JOLT IS GIVEN MUNICIPAL GRAFT

Cambridge, Mass., November 18.—Municipal graft received a jolt in the superior court here today, when George H. Warren, of Malden, was sentenced to serve three months in the house of correction, after pleading guilty to a charge of bribery involving only $5.

Warren admitted that he gave William E. Dunn, sealer of weights and measures of the city of Malden, $5 to refrain from prosecuting a coal company in which Warren was interested, and which was charged with giving short weight in its sales.

COMMISSIONERS NAME OFFICERS AND ADJOURN

R. E. Rose, of Florida, Made President State Agricultural Commissioners' Ass'n.

Jackson, Miss., November 18.—The question as to whether manufacturers should be required to show, on the sacks, the amount of carbo-hydrates contained in feedstuffs, proved a stumbling block which the agricultural commissioners of the south could not overcome at the concluding session of their annual convention here today in drafting a uniform law. As a result the legislation which the commissioners hope to have enacted in the different states is still in abeyance. Other features of the proposed law, requiring an announcement as to the amount of protein and fat-producing elements, were agreed to.

At the closing session, R. E. Rose, of Florida, wa selected president; John Thompson, of Tennessee, and J. W. Duggan, of Alabama, vice presidents, and B. W. Kilgore, of North Carolina, secretary and trsasurer. The association will meet in Atlanta in 1910.

Sue for Unpaid Tax.

Danville, Va., November 18.—The collection by the government of $81,000 assessments made by the commissioner of internal revenue against T. M. Angle, former president of the Dry Fork Distilling Company, for excess production of whisky on which it is alleged the tax had not been paid, and to recover bonds of $5,500 from the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, of Baltimore, is the object of a civil suit which was begun in the federal courts here today. The distillery, which was seized over two years ago for alleged irregularities, was bonded with the Baltimore company. Angle was convicted two years ago on a criminal prosecution, for violations of the revenue laws and sentenced to four years in prison and fined $15,000.

FEW PARDONED; MANY DECLINED

Work of Prison Commission at November Meeting

Numerous Declinations Will Probably All Be Permitted to Stand By Governor Brown. Those Few Who Were More Fortunate.

The prison commission has just passed upon about fifty cases in which executive clemency was sought by prisoners in various convict camps of the state. Most of them were declined, though several were granted. Those which were given favorable consideration and which have been approved by the governor are as follows:

Charles Swanson, voluntary manslaughter from Campbell county, the application being indorsed by the judge, solicitor general and prosecutor, and parole was granted.

Robert Sheppard, of Floyd, charged with murder, application for commutation to present service was approved by the judge, solicitor general and court officials.

Jesse Clark, paroled, application being made by judge, solicitor general, jury and others.

Philip Jemison, Muscogee, burglary, paroled.

Will Trumpler, Richmond county, misdemeanor, sentenced for escaping from gang, commuted.

Peter Williams, of Fulton, gaming, sentenced for twelve months, said to be in last stages of Bright's disease, commuted.

Clifford West, Muscogee, misdemeanor, sentenced for six months, in last stages of consumption, commuted to present service.

Charlie Hamilton, of Fulton, burglary, held under review by Governor Brown.

Applications Declined.

The cases which were passed up to the governor with a "decline to recommend" from the prison commission were as follows:

H. C. Shaefer, of Lowndes county, bigamy; James E. Hickey, of Lowndes, robbery; Henry Williams, Colquitt, selling liquor; Clarence Rucker, Pike, burglary; J. B. Dean, Fulton, burglary; Morris Burton, Fulton, misdemeanor; James Moseley, Montgomery, murder; Charles Hamilton, McDuffie, manslaughter; Dallis Hall, Jackson, burglary; Charlie Johnson, Gordon, bigamy; Joe Greer, Jasper, concealed weapons; W. D. Smith, Bibb, mayhem; Jim Brogden, Fulton, gaming; James Smith, Laurens, larceny; Ernest Casey, Fulton, burglary; E. W. Jordan, Clarke, forgery; E. G. Clifford, Chatham, burglary; Eliza Hill, Montgomery, manslaughter; Adam Holly, Quitman, burglary; Albert Strickland, Appling, misdemeanor; Dave Peters, murder; Freeman Harp, Bibb, misdemeanor; Walter Hickman, Bibb, cow stealing; John Smith, Hancock, selling liquor; I. W. Foraker, Clinch, attempt to murder; Athens Davis, Jenkins, selling liquor; Nancy Campbell, Berrien, murder; John A. Grimes, Milton, murder; Alfred Berry, Jasper, voluntary manslaughter; Charles Mitchell, Fulton, attempt to murder; Emma Johnson, Floyd, murder; R. S. Wright, DeKalb, bigamy; William S. Boone, Richmond, stabbing; Luther M. Hall, Coweta, murder; Isaac Harris, Monroe, burglary; Luke Scott, Chattooga, murder; Gilbert Pitts, Chatham, voluntary manslaughter; Clem Hutchins, Early, larceny; John Redding, Muscogee, burglary; J. M. Simmons, Monroe, murder; Anderson Young, Chatham, manslaughter; Willie Porter, Lee, murder; Bose Henderson, Meriwether, murder; D. R. Barnard, Tattnall, murder; John Ragland, Clayton, murder; Mitchell Catchings, Jasper, selling liquor; Willis Clayton, Washington, murder; Robert Mitchell, Thomas, selling liquor; Prather Dempsey, Newton, voluntary manslaughter; Charlie Thomas, Fulton, larceny; Eugene Hutchins, Hart, selling liquor; Gus Gibson, Clinch, manslaughter.

All of these cases are now before Governor Brown. It is safe to say that the governor will permit practically all of the declinations to stand.

TRAIN WRECKED; 2 KILLED, 3 HURT

Florida Fast Mail Thrown From Track.

Rail Was Removed by Alleged Wreckers---Negro Fireman and Tramp, Who Was Stealing a Ride, Were Killed. Passengers Hurt.

Savannah, Ga., November 22.—Two persons were killed and three others injured when the Florida fast mail train of the Seaboard Air Line was wrecked 2 miles south of Denmark, S. C., about 3 o'clock this morning. The train was thrown from the track by the removal of a rail, while running at the rate of 45 miles an hour.

The dead are a colored fireman, who was caught under the overturned engine, and a tramp who was stealing a ride. The engineer and two of the passengers were injured, but not seriously.

Every effort is being made to capture the alleged wreckers. Another train on the same road was derailed by wreckers at almost the same place several months ago.

WARSHIPS RUSH TO NICARAGUA

Central America than they have been hitherto.

The attitude of the government was clearly shown late today when the state department sent a dispatch to the Bluefields Steamship Company, the headquarters of which is in New Orleans. The company's regular steamer was about to set sail for Bluefields, Nicaragua, with a miscellaneous cargo, counted in which were a number of rifles and other munitions of war.

Rebel Forces Recognized.

The corporation was warned by agents of the Nicaraguan insurrectionary forces that the vessel would be liable to seizure, and the steamship people promptly called on the state department to declare the protection this government would give in such a case.

The state department promptly replied. The answer was the result of a conference between the president and the secretary of state, and carried full weight. It gave the steamship concern no encouragement and practically recognized the revolutionary forces operating against the Zelayan administration, a proceeding for which there probably is no parallel in the records of this government. The dispatch, directed to the steamship company at New Orleans, and signed "Knox, secretary of state," read:

"If the announced blockade or investment of the Nicaraguan port of San Juan del Norte (Greytown) is effectively maintained, and the requirements of international law, including warning to approaching vessels, are observed, this government would not be disposed to interfere to prevent its enforcement. A naval vessel will be ordered to Greytown to observe and report whether the blockade is effective."

Nicaragua Always Troublesome.

Nicaragua has been one of the Central American republics that has given this government more trouble in the last few years than any other, save perhaps Venezuela under the sway of President Castro. The state department today maintained a quiet and reserve that was described by one diplomat as "ominous."

It was learned, however, that both President Taft and Secretary Knox practically have determined on the exertion of some forceful moral suasion, if nothing more, with a view of bringing the Central American states to a realization of their responsibilities.

The execution of the Americans is held here to be indefensible.

It is evident that the temper of the administration has been thoroughly aroused, and, if occasion warrants, the state department may advise some drastic action.

Orders have been issued for the cruiser Vicksburg to proceed in all haste to Corinto, and the gunboat Des Moines will proceed at once to Port Limon to observe events there and report the situation at that point by wireless.

Capture and Quick Death.

The news as to the two Americans reached the state department last night from the American consul at Managua, who stated that their capture had been followed immediately by a death sentence.

The consul immediately appealed to President Zelaya to commute their sentence, and his answer was, "I will see." Later, on further appeal, Zelaya said that "the sentence was final."

A dispatch received today at the state department stated that the men had been executed. Upon this information the secretary of state asked the secretary of the navy to order the Vicksburg to proceed in all haste to Corinto for the purpose of protecting Americans and American interests. The Des Moines was also ordered to proceed to Port Limon at top speed for the same purpose. These vessels will be in constant communication by wireless with the state department.

The Des Moines, now at Colon, can reach Port Limon within ten hours, steaming under forced draught. The Vicksburg is on the Pacific coast at San Jose de Guatemala, nearly two hundred miles from the Nicaraguan coast, and will be able to reach Corinto at about the same time the Des Moines arrives at Port Limon.

Brutality of Zelaya.

The brutality of the Nicaraguan government in ordering the execution of the two Americans, who happened to be found in the revolutionist army, without trial of any sort, has aroused this government, and Zelaya will be held to a strict accountability for his action.

Nothing is known at the state department of the antecedents of Leonard Grace, who is reported to have been shot by order of President Zelaya, but the other American, Leroy Cannon, seems to have had an unusual career in Central America. Some years ago he went to Central America, and since [illegible] secured prominently in revolutions in those countries. During his career he has been arrested a number of times and tried for heading raids, and on several occasions has narrowly escaped a death sentence, it is alleged.

Cannon, Native of Harrisburg, Pa.

Harrisburg, Pa., November 18.—Leroy Cannon, reported shot in Nicaragua as a revolutionist, was a native of this city, and was 29 years of age. He had been living in Central America for eight years, and in that time had been heard of half a dozen times as figuring in hazardous enterprises. Within a year word was received that he had been condemned to die for participating in an uprising, but was saved by intervention of the United States.

Cannon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel K. Cannon, live in this city. Mrs. Cannon doubted the story of his execution, as she said she had received a letter on October 13 which stated that he was returning to his plantation to devote himself to business.

Cannon secured a position about ten years ago as a rodman on some railroad construction work in the United States of Colombia. A few years later he turned up in Nicaragua as an engineer's assistant on the canal survey.

He took a great interest in the frequent revolutions, and finally left the service of the canal commission and threw his lot with one of the leaders. Three years ago he was accused of siding with a revolutionary party, and had to leave the country. When his friends regained power he was with them, and he wrote to his father that he had property worth $30,000.

An effort will be made by the parents to have the body brought here for burial.

MORE MONEY PROPOSED FOR FEDERAL JUDGES

Bill Drawn by a Committee of New York Lawyers.

New York, November 18.—A bill providing for increases in the salaries of all federal judges ranging from $3,000 to $5,000 a year, will be introduced at the coming session of congress, with the indorsement of a committee of lawyers. The committee, headed by former Senator John C. Spooner, recommended the following increases:

Supreme court, from $12,500 to $17,500; United States circuit court, from $7,000 to $10,000; United States district court, from $6,000 to $9,000.

The committee, in its report, made public tonight, argues that federal judges are now paid less than congressmen, although they give approximately twice as much time to their duties.

She is survived by one son, two daughters, her brother, B. L. Bennet, Sr., of Atlanta, and several grandchildren. Mrs. Wester was one of the few remaining granddaughters of the revolution.

H. C. Pope, Columbus, Ga.

Columbus, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—The remains of Henry C. Pope, who died yesterday at Birmingham, Ala., were laid to rest today in Columbus, his old home. Most of the pallbearers were members of the Nelson Rangers, the famous confederate command of which Mr. Pope was a gallant member. He was formerly a druggist in Columbus.

Conference for Charities.

Columbia, S. C., November 18.—As a result of a meeting held here tonight, at the call of Rev. A. T. Jamison, the South Carolina Conference of Charities and Correction will be organized tomorrow. The 150 educational and charity workers attending the meeting were welcomed to the city by Governor M. F. Ansel, and after some discussion of the subject, an organization committee was appointed, with instructions to report tomorrow.

KEEP YOUR BOWELS REGULAR IN NATURE'S WAY.

If your bowels did not move for a week or ten days you would be down sick. It's the same result, differing only in degree, when your bowels do not move regularly at least once every day. You become constipated, your blood gets bad, and you feel sick all over. To avoid such serious conditions take Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills. They will drive bowel poison out of your system and establish regularity. These little pills are purely vegetable and work wonderful results in one night.

Remember that bowel poison is the direct cause of slow, wasting fevers, loss of memory, female weakness, nervous prostration and general debility. Bowel poison leads on to misery and death as surely as constipation or heart disease; the well-advised use of Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills will cure and establish bowel, stomach and liver health. Sick at night, well in the morning. Physicians use and recommend. They form no habit. You should always keep them on hand. These little Vegetable Pills will ward off many ills.

NEXT YEAR ANOTHER
ALL-GEORGIA GOOD ROADS CONTEST

RESPONDING to the inundation of congratulations from all over the state and an avalanche of inquiries as to forthcoming plans, The Constitution today announces more All-Georgia reliability Good Roads Contests next year to continue the splendid constructive work begun by those just brought to a spectacular conclusion.

The nature of these coming contests, the routes, the time, the prizes, the conditions, are yet to be developed.

The main thing is that the people of Georgia have found that the recent reliability contests under the supervision of the Georgia Automobile Good Roads Association gave a greater impetus to highway construction than any event in the state's history.

The farmer, the city man, every element of the state's population, demand another chapter, to judge from letters innumerable received in the last few days.

To answer these letters individually is a physical impossibility.

The Constitution, therefore, takes this means of announcing that the Georgia Automobile Good Roads Association, organized last Spring upon the initiative of this paper, will at the proper time next year project and supervise contests even more elaborate than those which comprised the greatest practical feature of Automobile Week.

There is ample time in which to elaborate details, profit by the lessons of the recent contests and arrange and perfect plans that will give every county in Georgia an opportunity to share in the benefit of this good roads competition.

In the meantime, The Constitution is open to suggestions from the various counties, whether or not they participated in the recent contests, and from all Georgians interested in the practical issue of the building of good roads.

That is the motive of these projected contests as it was the motive of the contests just gone into history—

The construction of a great railless system of transportation in Georgia, road interlocking with road, trunkline connected with trunkline and each trunk supporting offshooting branches, bisecting every nook and cranny of the commonwealth.

Reliability contests, such as that just concluded, are the proved best stimulators of active interest looking toward this end.

During the recent runs, it was the farming population, the people living in the country towns, who most vociferously welcomed the tourists as they strove for supremacy over roads revolutionized within a short six months.

And if, within half a year, constructive energy could be so concentrated in Georgia as to make good roads the paramount issue within the state, what may not be accomplished by the same means next year, with the incalculable advantage of a magnificent foundation already laid?

Good roads mean prosperity for the farmers of the state, added development to every industry, an increase of property values and every item of individual and community wealth.

Good roads are not built in a day or by one crusade, however spontaneously successful.

That is why The Constitution is announcing another state-wide campaign for road-building; and upon this line it will continue battling until the public highway transportation problem is no longer a problem in Georgia.

The Constitution invites the aid of the press and people of Georgia in cooperating for the common good! Here is a paramount issue devoid of partisanship, but rich in patriotism! All of us can aid in its realization. All of us will share its sure dividends!

Next year, another All-Georgia Good Roads Contest under the auspices of The Constitution.

THE FOREST OF SKYSCRAPERS IN NEW YORK

Many of the Newer Hotels on the List, Among Them the St. Regis.

A considerable part of New York's fame is due to its "skyscrapers." These towering structures are the constant wonder of all travelers arriving at New York, by sea or rail. Only a few years ago two hundred feet was considered a great height for one of New York's steel edifices, now six hundred feet has been passed by at least two of them and seven hundred feet is being approached. Recent statistics show that New York possesses some sixty skyscrapers of a height exceeding two hundred feet. These sixty buildings, if laid flat, end to end, would reach a distance of about 15,600 feet, nearly three miles. Among these lofty buildings are a number of New York's newest and most modern hotels, of which the Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth St., is one, though it must be admitted that the St. Regis cannot be reckoned among the tallest. The chief distinction of the St. Regis, however, is not in its height, but in its character as a hotel. Designed and built to be, and now recognized as "America's finest hotel," it bases its claims upon the patronage of the cultured and discriminating and on the exceptional quality of its equipment and service. Its cuisine is fully equal to the very best restaurants of London and Paris, while the charges are no higher than those of other first-class hotels. In respect to its room rates, rooms can be obtained there as low as $3 and $4 a day for a large, handsomely furnished single room; $5 a day for the same with private bath (or $6 for two people); and $12 a day and up for a splendid suite consisting of parlor, bedroom and private bath.

CLOSE THE DOOR ON SHIFTLESS NEGRO

Says Booker T. Washington in Speech.

Nine-Tenths of Race Friction in South Will Be Eliminated, Because That Class Will Have to Go to Work.

Bristol, Tenn., November 18.—"If the white people of the south will close their kitchen doors to the shiftless negroes, nine-tenths of the race friction that occurs will be eliminated, because these negroes will have to go to work," said Booker T. Washington, the Tuskegee president, who is making a tour of Tennessee, in closing his speech at Greeneville tonight.

He spoke today at Bristol, Johnson City and Greeneville, and goes to Knoxville Friday. Dr. Washington is making a trip through Tennessee, preaching the gospel of good will and amity between the races. While here he met the Rev. A. H. Burroughs, the matrimonial wizard, and found that Dr. Burroughs is a nephew of his former mistress in Bedford county, Virginia.

CARRYING OF MAILS ON YEARLY CONTRACTS

Will Be Asked of Congress by the Railroads.

Chicago, November 18.—The carrying of mails on yearly contracts will be asked for by the American Railway Association, according to a decision reached at a meeting held here today. The present law contracts for transportation of mails for four years at a time and the railroads maintain this is not in keeping with the enormous yearly increase in the amount of mail carried. A committee was appointed to frame a bill to be presented at the next session of congress.

CHARRED BODIES AT LAST FOUND

Experts Descend Into Illinois Charnel House.

Faces of the Experts Blanched by the Horrors They Saw. Only One Corpse Taken Out and It Was Kept Concealed. 300 Victims Located.

Cherry, Ill., November 18.—For the first time since the mine horror of Saturday bodies of some of the 300 victims were located today by daring explorers in the depths of the second gallery.

Twenty bodies were found within 70 feet of the ventilating shaft. One of them, unrecognizable, was brought to the surface, and after considerable delay was taken to the town hall to await identification. The temper of the people was feared, and an attempt to keep secret the finding of the bodies was made. Those in authority bound themselves to maintain silence. That more than one victim had been discovered was not generally known at nightfall, and a plan was afoot to attempt the removal of the other bodies late at night.

Corpse Was Concealed.

The one brought to the surface was concealed for an hour at the top of the pit before being turned over to the undertaker, and then only because the discovery had become known.

Of the horrors which they encountered in the mine gallery none of the explorers would speak, but their faces were pale and their hands trembled when they emerged. This much was learned—the bodies were scorched and swollen. Death might have been due either to gas or flame.

After the removal of the body the experts held a short conference, and upon the conditions reported it was determined to break the seal of the main shaft at once. A force of laborers was ordered to the work, and by 5 o'clock the unsealed shaft was belching out gases and smoke. Preparations were made at once to reduce the temperature in the shaft.

A substitute fan, placed at the mine beside the old one near the air shaft, was started, its direction being reversed so as to pull the smoke toward the ventilator.

Mine Experts Descend.

As soon as possible the helmet-armored mine experts descended in the shaft with leads of hose prepared to fight the burning coal in the second gallery. If the effort is successful, firemen without helmets will be sent down the shaft to put out the fire when they can do it with safety.

News of the recovery of the first body spread rapidly through the village, and as the ambulance, flanked by soldiers, passed through the streets, women rushed out of their homes, pushing frantically through the crowds in a vain attempt to look into the wagon. Rumor was that the body was that of a boy. Mothers who lost their sons in the mine pushed forward, and were told that the body was that of a man.

Immediately a score of women who had lost their husbands pressed toward the wagon. State's Attorney Eckhart gently told them that identification would require some time, and the crowd thinned away from the wagon, but until late at night the little brick morgue was surrounded by anxious inquirers.

The recovered body was identified tonight as that of Ols Friborg, unmarried. Seven volunteers carried hose into the cain shaft tonight and turned a stream of water on the burning second gallery.

Urge Pardon for Shipp.

Waco, Texas, November 18.—Telegrams were sent to President Taft today by a committee of the local Elks' lodge urging the pardon of Sheriff Joseph Shipp and four codefendants, sentenced to prison for contempt of the United States supreme court in connection with the lynching of a negro at Chattanooga, Tenn., in October, 1908.

TRYING TO "HOG" ALL THE POWER

Charge Against the Interstate Commission.

State Railroad Commissioners Allege That Federal Board Is Trying to Get All Power Over Railroads in Its Own Hands.

Washington, November 18.—The feeling of resentment on the part of some state railroad commissioners against what they term the wish of the interstate commerce commission to "hog" all the supervision over railroads, reached a climax at the convention of the National Association of Railway Commissioners today when the convention was asked to approve the Esch bill of the last congress, to empower the interstate commerce commission to investigate all accidents on railroads engaged in interstate commerce.

Commissioner Earle, of South Carolina, led in the denunciation of the bill.

The discussion finally resulted in Commissioner Clark, of the interstate commerce commission, and Commissioner Burr, of Florida, offering a suggestion that the bill be approved if amended so as to specify that it would in no way interfere with the rights of the states. This course was pursued.

Guarding Rights of States.

Scarcely had Secretary Moseley, of the interstate commerce commission, commenced the report of a special commission recommending the approval of the Esch bill before Commissioner Smith, of South Dakota, was objecting that it would interfere with the right of states to investigate. Mr. Moseley said he was amazed to hear such a statement. But it was not until Commissioner Earle obtained the floor that the situation became delicate.

"We have heard you ask for uniform classification, uniform demurrage, uniform 'this and uniform that,'" said Mr. Earle, shaking his finger at Mr. Moseley. "We are getting tired of it. Are you going to take everything? I'll tell you right now, I, as a railroad commissioner of South Carolina, am not going to accept your uniform demurrage code."

Trying to Run the Whole Thing.

"I don't care if you don't," retorted Mr. Moseley.

"We have authority," continued Mr. Earle. "You are trying to run the whole thing."

"No, we are not," again interrupted Mr. Moseley, with vigor.

Chairman Decker cautioned Mr. Moseley against interrupting.

"Well, he was pointing to me," retorted Mr. Moseley, "and I am going to answer when he addresses."

Mr. Earle continued that if the federal inspectors should come to some wreck in South Carolina, claiming precedence over his inspectors, there would be a fight.

"It would not be so bad," he added, "if you had competent men, but you send out inefficient, political appointees that try to lord it over us with the badge of federal inspector."

Mr. Moseley explained that at present railroads are required to report on wrecks, and it was desired to have these reports more accurate and more in detail, with a view of preventing the railroads from "lying" about them, as had been asserted they sometimes do.

LAWYER SHOT TO DEATH.

Madison, Fla., November 18.—C. B. Ashley, a prominent lawyer, was shot and killed in front of his office by J. A. Beaty, of Lee, Fla., at a late hour this afternoon. The shooting, it is said, was unprovoked. Beaty is in jail.

Young White Men Were Held.

Macon, Ga., November 18.—(Special.) Dan Richardson and Charles Herrington were committed to the state court this morning, each under bonds of $500 in two cases of alleged attempted burglary. They were taken by Call Officer Rogers last night from Powers' Curiosity Shop. They denied having made an attempt to enter the place.

$50,000,000 OUTPUT IN SIX YEARS

Mines Producing Wealth So Fabulous as to Amaze the World

Hampton's Magazine has an extended article on the cobalt mines, presenting facts and figures as to the wealth being annually produced which almost rivals the story of Aladdin's lamp.

A poor Canadian blacksmith, named La Rose, made the discovery of these mines while engaged in a hammer throwing contest in 1903. The next year their development was begun, the shipment of ore for 1904 yielding $130,217.

The following year it leaped to millions, and each successive year's output has nearly doubled that of the preceding, until this year it has reached $12,600,000, or over eighty times as much as that of 1904, making a total for six years of practically $50,000,000. Yet those familiar with the conditions declare that the ground has barely been scratched and the coming years will witness the production of many hundreds of millions of dollars.

The poor blacksmith, Fred La Rose, has become a multi-millionaire. Dozens of men living on modest salaries, by judicious purchases of stock, have become millionaires, and J. J. O'Brien, who drew some of the legal papers for the company, received for his services stock which recently yielded him $1,000,000.

Great bargains are being sold every day at Chas. M. May's auction sale, 9 Peachtree St.

Short Items of Interest

Charging negligence which caused the death of her husband, Mary E. Aughtman, widow of the late J. T. Aughtman, yesterday filed in the city court suit for $20,000 against the Atlanta Telephone and Telegraph Company. In her petition for damages, Mrs. Aughtman sets out that on August 15, 1909, her husband, an employee of the telephone and telegraph company, was sent to adjust a wire trouble in the Southern railway freight depot. The telephone wire which was causing the trouble, it is alleged, had sagged against a wire of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company, and as a result acurrent of more than 1,500 volts was sent through her husband's body, killing him. The crossing of the two wires was due to negligence of the telephone company, it is alleged. Attorney Reuben Arnold represents the plaintiff.

N. P. Moses, J. N. Russell, Fred L. Sawyer, Crawford Wheatley, Wm P. Mills, George P. Pelty, Arthur Bussey, Peter F. Clark, S. E. Smith, E. D. Crane and Alexander W. Smith yesterday filed in the superior court application for charter under the name Atlanta Motor Car Company. The company is capitalized at $50,000. It will have for its object the purchase, sale and otherwise handling of automobiles and accessories. The principal office will be located in Atlanta. Smith, Hammond & Smith are named as attorneys for the applicants.

After being bound over during the morning session of court on a charge of burglary, Arthur Ellis, an escaped negro convict, who was sentenced for five years at Griffin, Ga., was arraigned in police court again yesterday afternoon and bound over on a charge of larceny after trust. It was alleged that Ellis stole $15 and a bicycle while in the employ of the City Messenger Service, 68 Central avenue, several months ago. The money, it was alleged, was the property of a patron, and Ellis, after leaving the office, left for unknown parts. Ellis will be taken back to finish out his five years and will then be tried in Fulton county.

On the theory that the Coast Artillery corps should be able to shoot as accurately by night as by day, in view of the fact that an attack might be made after supper as well as after breakfast, there will be a night target practice next week at Fort Morgan, near Mobile, Ala. This information has been received at the department of the gulf and is the topic of general conversation among the officers there. It is understood that permission has been granted by the war department at Washington for a similar practice at Fort Screven, near Savannah, if, in the discretion of the district commander such practice is safe. The practice is to be on targets at a range of about 2,500 yards with 16-pound guns.

The pots have begun to boil. With Thanksgiving less than a week off the soldiers and soldieresses in the Salvation Army have gotten out their corner boiler pots and are to be seen and heard throughout the city. The Army is preparing to have a monster Thanksgiving dinner for the less fortunate members of society in Atlanta who would not be otherwise provided. The indications are that the fund will be a good round sum this time. The number to be fed will be determined by the fund raised and these interesting figures will be announced later.

To the young people of Atlanta Rev. Dunbar H. Ogden, D.D., will preach a special sermon at the Central Presbyterian church on Washington street next Sunday morning. His subject will be "The Duty of the Son and Daughter in the Making of the Home."

Robert Cunningham, for a long time connected with the Atlanta National Bank, has been detained at his home in Decatur for the past ten days under care of physicians. Mr. Cunningham has long been a sufferer from a throat trouble, which became acute within the past few days and which is now causing his detention at his home under the daily attendance of his physicians.

The United States court for the northwestern division of the northern district of Georgia, which opened Monday last at Rome, has adjourned and Judge Newman, District Attorney Carter Tate and other officials from Atlanta who have been in atttendance are home again. The docket was a large one, but none of the cases were of any importance, the great majority being for violations of internal revenue laws.

Private letters from Dr. George Brown, well-known tuberculosis specialist of Atlanta and a member of the Georgia house of representatives, reaching Atlanta yesterday inform the doctor's friends that he and Mrs. Brown are now in Paris, whence they will go to Berlin for a week or ten days, after which they will start home, taking in London, Birmingham and Liverpool before sailing for home. They expect to reach Atlanta about the middle of December.

Blood Drawn in French Duel.

Paris, November 18.—Gustave Tery, who stirred up the recent naval scandal by alleging corruption in the purchase of supplies, was wounded today in a duel with Laurent Tailhade, the poet. The latter escaped injury. Tery had taken offense at a newspaper article in which he was criticized by Tailhade.

CARNEGIE WON'T FLY UNTIL HE HAS WINGS

Multi-Millionaire Has No Desire to Try an Airship.

New York, November 18.—"No," said Andrew Carnegie today when asked for an opinion on the future of aviation. "I can't go up until I have wings. I have no ambition to try it in any other way."

Mr. Carnegie sailed today for Norfolk, Va., to join President Taft en route to Hampton, where both are to deliver addresses before the Normal and Agricultural institute on Saturday.

"As for business," he continued optimistically, "our troubles are over. Good times are here for a long stay."

Mr. Carnegie was pleased with the popular movement for deeper waterways, and thought the Ohio river merited special attention. The Panama canal, he said, "was a monument to American endeavor."

SENT TO ATLANTA PEN.

Postoffice Clerk Pleads Guilty to Embezzlement Charge.

Anniston, Ala., November 18.—Edward D. Smith, former stamp clerk at the local postoffice, pleaded guilty today to the charge of embezzlement, and was given two years in the Atlanta penitentiary. This is the third case of the same kind here in the last three years, former Postmaster J. M. Ragan now serving a sentence in Atlanta for the same offense.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Montgomery, Ala., November 18.—(Special.)—Good prices for crops, many evidences of returning prosperity, great demand for labor at increased wages, advancement in education and betterment in the cause of temperance, which will give a moral uplift to the people, are the dominating causes of the Thanksgiving proclamation issued by Governor B. B. Comer today. The people are urged to make of Thursday, november 25, a holiday, leaving off work and remembering the good gifts of the Giver of all good gifts.

HER BABY BOY A MASS OF ERUPTION

Pimply Rash Spread Until Head, Face and Body were Covered with Eczema — Hands Bandaged to Keep from Scratching — Was a Fearful Sight and Defied Cure.

CUTICURA MADE SKIN CLEAR AND HEALTHY

"My baby's eczema came on when he was three months old, like a rash on his face and then spread over his head. Then there began to form a lot of small pimples over his head from which a watery substance came out and formed a regular mass of crust all over his head, face and body. I had to tie woolen cloths on his hands to keep him from scratching himself. He was a fearful sight to look at. I went to a drug store and tried some of their remedies for eczema but they did not do him any good. I then called in one of our leading physicians and he tried several kinds of medicine and gave me prescriptions, but they only made him worse.

"At this stage a lady friend of mine came in and advised me to try the Cuticura Remedies. That afternoon I sent for a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and one vial of Cuticura Pills, and in less than a week I could see a vast improvement in him. I washed him all over every morning with the Cuticura Soap and gave him an application of the Cuticura Ointment after his bath. I kept on using the Cuticura Remedies until he was completely cured. They left his skin clear and healthy and I always have kept the Cuticura Remedies in the house ever since. I highly recommend Cuticura to all persons suffering from eczema. Mrs. Kate Brougham, 200 Dewey St., Bennington, Vt., Dec. 5, 1908 and Jan. 17, 1909."

PIMPLES CURED

"I congratulate Cuticura upon my speedy recovery from pimples which covered my face. I used Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent for ten days and my face cleared and I am perfectly well. Every Pair of Hands Employed in the Grocer's Store Go To the Butter Tub

Every grocer employs several men. He keeps them busy filling orders—grinding coffee, weighing tea and spices, drawing oil, putting up butter. Is it any wonder that ordinary tub butter tastes a little like everything in the store? Now see this difference.

Meadow-Gold Butter

is, first of all, the best butter that can possibly be made from the finest kind of thick, yellow cream, carefully pasteurized. Then it's packed in clever, odor-proof, germ-proof packages. Nothing can possibly come in contact with it or taint it the least bit, and it doesn't cost a penny more than common butter.

GIANT TARANTULA CAUSES PANIC IN THE DEAD LETTER OFFICE

Washington, November 18.—The dead letter office of the postoffice department today belied its name when a tarantula threw the clerks into a frenzy that for a moment threatened to become a stampede.

The trouble started when J. E. Davis, an experienced clerk in the opening of suspicious mail, tore the cover from a mysterious-looking package addressed to "Dott Huggaro Verity, via Leon V. Firenzo, Florence, Italy."

He found the box pierced with small holes. Placing it to his ear, he shook it in an effort to ascertain whether or not it contained an infernal machine. The lid came off.

"Jumping Jehosophat!" he exclaimed when he found a gigantic tarantula roosting on his shoulder. He knocked it to the floor where it promptly began a masterly retreat. Women clerks climbed on desks and fell over one another to escape the fuzzy peril.

After a brief but determined search the tarantula was discovered in a pile of mail sacks, where it was killed.

The box was mailed in New York, and because of its foreign destination and its suspicious appearance, was sent here for investigation.

KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTO.

Charles Baumgarter, of Macon, Has Leg Broken.

Macon, Ga., November 18.—(Special.) Charles Baumgarter was knocked from a motorcycle upon the pavement at the intersection of College street and Washington avenue at noon today and his left leg was broken between the knee and ankle when the automobile of W. E. McCaw struck him. Baumgarter and a friend were riding toward town when the car shot out of College street into the riders. The automobile skidded on a pavement that had been flooded with water from a sprinkling wagon and in the mud and water the driver was unable to stop before hitting the r der. The wounds were dressed at the Macon hospital and the patient is resting.

WISE NAMED MANAGER OF PAN-AMERICAN ROAD

First Meeting of New Board of Directors.

Mexico City, November 18.—The first meeting of the new board of directors of the Pan-American railroad, the line recently purchased by United States Ambassador David E. Thompson, and running to the Guatemalan frontier, was held here today. Mr. Thompson was elected president, and a new set of by-laws was adopted.

The president of the road was given the power to appoint officers, and after the meeting adjourned he issued his first circular letter, naming E. M. Wise, formerly of the Louisville and Nashville road, as vice president and general manager. Ira Broscoe, a banker of Mexico City, was chosen as treasurer, and Louis D'Antin, secretary to the board of directors and the president.

Edgar O. Silver Dead.

New York, November 18.—Edgar Oscar Silver, founder and president of the House of Silver, Burdett & Co., publishers of school and college textbooks, died in East Orange, N. J., today in his fiftieth year. He was a member of the executive board of the American Baptist Home Missionary Society and a trustee of Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C.

VESSEL GOES ASHORE NEAR WILMINGTON

Captain and Crew of Seven Men Left and Ship Went to Pieces.

Wilmington, N. C., November 18.—The unknown four-masted schooner previously reported ashore on Frying Pan shoals today proved to be the Eleazer W. Clark, 849 tons, Captain F. W. Wyman, bound from New York to Savannah, with asphalt paving blocks. Both vessel and cargo are a complete loss, the tugs Blanche and Sea King and the revenue cutter Seminole having been unable to render assistance last night on account of the southwest gale prevailing along the coast.

Captain Wyman and crew of seven men left the vessel at 8 o'clock last night in two yawl boats as she began to go to pieces, and after a terrible battle with wind and wave until daylight this morning they were thrown up on Bald Head Island beach, from whence they were taken over to Southport, N. C., and brought to Wilmington tonight.

They were without food or sleep for about sixty hours.

THREE ARE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Machine Plunged Over a Fifteen-Foot Embankment Near Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., November 18.—W. R. Fleming, a prominent business men, was probably fatally injured, and his companions, G. W. Barnette and A. Link, were seriously hurt when the automobile in which they were riding plunged over a 15-foot embankment near this city late today. The party were returning to Memphis after a hunting trip when the accident occurred.

Dublin Man Filed Petition.

Macon, Ga., November 18.—(Special.) J. T. White, formerly a merchant of Dublin, filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy today. There were no assets scheduled.

FROM NEW YORK TO MACON IN AUTO

Macon, Ga., November 18.—(Special.) D. F. Gorham, H. V. Fish with Mrs. Fish and Roland Fish reached Macon this afternoon in a Stoddard-Dayton automobile from their home in Mount Kisco, N. Y., in a drive of two weeks and one day through the country. So good were the roads there was not a mishap and the party reached here in fine spirits. They were on their way to Mount Dora, Fla., where they will spend the winter. They had taken in the points of interest on the way.

Every member of the party was especially struck with the amount of road building that is now under way in the south. They often passed groups of prisoners on the road and many times in Georgia they found a great deal of work going on.

DAVIS CASE AGAIN BEFORE JUDGE NEWMAN

The case of Charles E. Davis, of Rome, convicted in the United States court last fall for fraudulent use of the mails, is now again in the hands of Judge Newman, of the northern district of Georgia.

Davis' indictment and trial attracted general attention because of his financial and social standing. He has long been a resident of Rome, and had acquired a reputation as an attorney, a successful business man and was recognized as one of the well-known citizens of the Hill City.

When charges were preferred against Attorney Davis of having used the mails for fraudulent purposes, his friends were indignant, and it was without trouble that he made bond. Then after his conviction that bond was easily renewed, as his motion for a new trial was presented. During the session of the federal court in Rome this week a demurrer was submitted in addition to that motion, and the papers are now in the hands of the federal court here in Atlanta.

In the meantime Attorney Davis is at liberty on bond awaiting the final determination of his case.

Boy Bandits Raid Bank.

Chesterton, Ind., November 18.—Boy bandits, it is supposed, entered the Chesterton bank early today, wrecked the outer vault of the bank and escaped with $40 in pennies and a packet of canceled checks. Owing to the bungling work of the burglars, it is thought they were youthful amateurs.

Jersey Auto Law Upheld.

Trenton, N. J., November 18.—The supreme court today, in an opinion by Justice Reed, sustained the constitutionality of the Frelinghuysen automobiling law. This is a law which requires the taking out of a license by residents and nonresidents of the state who desire to operate an automobile in New Jersey.

HOUSE CLEANING BEGUN BY LOEB

Suspects in N. Y. Custom House Arrested.

Six Government Employees Dismissed Because of Sugar Frauds, and 50 Others Will Soon Go---All Bribe Takers Are to Be Gotten Rid Of.

New York, November 18.—The expected shake-up in the New York customs house, as a result of the sugar fraud exposures and agitation, began today with the abrupt dismissal of six suspected employees by Collector Loeb. At the same time came the announcement that a house cleaning commission of eight customs experts—whose integrity is unquestioned—has been appointed by Mr Loeb to take up at once the work of "making the New York customs house a model for the entire country."

Although the names of the six men dismissed today were not given out, Mr. Loeb said that all of them were customs inspectors. Four were formerly assistant weighers on the sugar docks, and are now under charges which are being investigated by Henry L. Stimson, special counsel for the government in the sugar investigations. The direct reasen for the dismissal of the other two inspectors was said by Collector Loeb to be their acceptance recently of tips from steamship passengers.

According to report, more than fifty other employees are also to be ousted by Collector Loeb within a few days.

Trust Stopped Investigation.

The collector was asked if the twenty-two weighers whose names he has submitted to the United States civil service commission as "undesirables," had been indicted by the federal grand jury for complicity in the sugar frauds, but he declined to either confirm or deny the report.

Mr. Loeb refused to discuss the charge of a former special deputy that the government had been defrauded of duties aggregating nearly $1,000,000 through the underweighing of lemons admitted at this port between 1898 and 1904.

That the first information of frauds against the government in connection with sugar importations was brought to the treasury department as far back as 1898 was declared today by William Theobald, a former confidential agent of the treasury department. Mr. Theobald said that he was assigned to make an investigation on the sugar refinery docks in Brooklyn at that time, but was "called off" after three days' work, and the investigation was not continued.

The former treasury agent said that the sugar frauds were a small item in the amount of money the government lost annually from undervaluations of merchandise, which would reach $20,000,000.

Government Has Plenty of Evidence.

Buffalo, N. Y., November 18.—George F. Cross, in charge of the New York district for the treasury department at the time the Williamsburg sugar cases were investigated, said today that the government has much evidence in the criminal cases now pending, of which the public knows nothing.

"The making of the photographs of the weighing machines with the spring attachments," said Mr. Cross, "was in line with our determination to conduct an investigation that would be productive of conclusive evidence. Richard Parr's work made it so. He is an efficient official and true to the government.

"Owing to the criminal cases now pending I cannot discuss all the evidence secured by Parr or by the government. The evidence, so far as it has been given to the public, is in the main correct."

Laborers for Sugar Samplers.

Washington, November 18.—Civil service commission files show that unclassified laborers in the New York customs house were put to work as sugar samplers between the years 1899 and 1902, in contravention of law, these positions being in the classified service.

To what extent this was done is not disclosed, but the fact is that such work was given for some time during his service to Henry C. Corsa, an unclassified laborer, whose recital of alleged bribery in sugar sampling was printed today. More than this, on August 28, 1902, the civil service commission called the matter to the attention of Leslie M. Shaw, then secretary of the treasury, and his attention was further directed to the fact that several investigations made by it since 1899 indicated practically the same state of affairs, and that each time the department had explicitly instructed the appraiser at New York to discontinue the practice.

JOHN J. NOONE DIES AFTER A LONG ILLNESS

Well-Known Macon Business Man---Funeral Will Be Held Today.

Macon, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—John J. Noone, for years a well-known business man in this community, died this afternoon at his home on Oak street. He had been ill a number of months and members of his family and friends had several days entertained little hope.

He is survived by a wife and several children. He was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and gave his time many a year to the preparation for the celebrations held. He was also a member of the Robert Emmett Club and was a prominent Catholic. The funeral will occur at St. Joseph's tomorrow afternoon.

TEXAS STOCKMEN PROTEST

Against Movement to Abolish Provisional Guarantee Area.

Fort Worth, Texas, November 18.—It was stated at a conference of stockmen of Texas held here today that live stock representatives of forty-one states held a secret meeting in Chicago October 10 and took action at that gathering to induce the federal government to abolish the provisional quarantine area.

If this is carried out, it was declared at today's meeting, it would throw Texas back into the infected area and entail immense losses and practical confiscation to Texas cattlemen. A committee was appointed today to draft a strong protest against this alleged action of the other states, which will be forwarded to Secretary of Agriculture Wilson.

TOBACCO SOCIETY HEAD IS PUT ON THE STAND

President Lebus Makes Statement Concerning the Burley Society Funds.

Winchester, Ky., November 18.—Clarence Lebus, president of the Burley Tobacco Society, and G. A. Brooks, secretary, whose absence from the hearing for a receivership for the society here yesterday caused a postponement, were served with subpoenas last night nd weare in court today when the hearing was resumed.

President Lebus was on the stand all morning and was still on the stand at the noon adjournment. On direct exam nation Lebus said the 1906 pooled crop amounted to 52,659 hogsheads and the 1907 crop 62,700 hogsheads. The total proceeds were $7,500,000. Added to this was $20,000 from the sale of samples and $345,000 as outage fee.

He claimed the money from these two items belongs to the society as a corporation and not to the growers. He admitted he engineered the pooling campaign and employed speakers and paid newspapers out of the general expense fund, but with the approval of the executive board. Lebus said the society now has $311,000 in bank.

If you want to save from 50 to 75 per cent on your purchases, it will pay you to attend the auction sale of Chas. M. May, 9 Peachtree St.

WOMAN FAINTS WHEN SHE IS DENIED CHILD

Dramatic Scene Takes Place in Columbus Court Room. Girl 10 Years Old.

Columbus, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—Mrs. D. N. Crutchfield fainted dead away in the court of ordinary when a decision was rendered by Judge Redd, of that court, denying her husband's application for possession of their child, Oma Lee Crutchfield, who is now living with Mrs. Maggie Thomas.

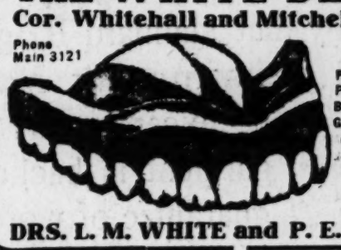

Mrs. Thomas claims that the little girl was given into her custody by the mother in 1905 and that a written agreement was entered into that she could have possession of the child until she became of age. The father was out of the city at the time, but upon his return sanctioned the agreement, says the defendant.

Mr. Crutchfield brought habeas corpus proceedings before the ordinary this week to recover possession of his little girl, who is now 10 years of age. Lawyers argued the case at length. The ordinary held that the agreement was valid and should hold and there was rather a pathetic scene in the courtroom when the mother heard the judge's decision.

Cottolene Is Not a Substitute for Anything

No animal product, such as hog lard, ever has afforded, or ever can afford a satisfaction to compare with Cottolene. It is far superior to lard because it contains no hog fat, and its purity is unquestioned. It is more economical than butter for shortening and frying because, being richer, one-third less is required.

Cottolene is made from cottonseed oil, a fluid extracted from the seed of purest cotton. From Cottonfield to Kitchen—human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made.

Pies, doughnuts and cakes cooked with Cottolene can be fearlessly enjoyed by the most determined dyspeptic, for Cottolene makes food digestible as well as palatable.

There is no substitute for Cottolene, because there is no shortening as good as Cottolene. It is pure, clean, neutral in taste and flavor, and absolutely the purest and most healthful frying and shortening medium.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

MANY INTERESTING FIGURES AT METHODIST CONFERENCE

REV. M. J. COFER.

REV. W. J. COTTER, OF NEWNAN.

Two Prominent Figures in the Methodist Conference Now in Session.

Rev. W. J. Cotter, of Newnan, Ga., is a central figure of the North Georgia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session at St. Paul's church, as he is at each conference annually. He is the oldest member of the conference, both in years and the number spent in the service of the Lord. He brought tears to more than one pair of eyes as he stood at the beginning of the session and made a brief talk. In this talk he stated that he celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday on Tuesday, November 16, and at the same time celebrated the sixty-fifth anniversary of his ordination as a minister in the Methodist church.

For sixty-five years he has been a servant in the army of the Lord, and the present is the sixty-fourth annual conference he has attended. Although he is fourscore and almost ten, nearly a score older than the allotment to man promised by the Book, he is able to get about nicely by the use of a heavy cane.

He stated at this conference that he had held fifty-three regular charges which meant more churches, for in some instances there were as many as twenty churches under him at one time. He declared that he had been under more presiding elders than any member of the conference. Mr. Cotter has been superannuated for six years now, but has never given up preaching, oftentimes filling a pulpit in Coweta and surrounding counties. He is seated well down in front and is treated with the utmost warmth and cordiality.

Oldest Active Member.

Rev. E. K. Akin, the present pastor of the Nellie Dodd Memorial church of Atlanta, is the oldest active minister in the conference and will probably be placed upon the superannuated roll at this session of the conference. Presiding Elder Joel T. Daves stated, when the name of Mr. Akin was called, that he had asked to be placed upon this list.

Mr. Akin has made a splendid record as a minister and his congregation will relinquish his services with sorrow.

Dr. Cofer Knows Them All.

Than Rev. Dr. M. J. Cofer, for seven years associate editor and business manager of the Wesleyan Christian Advocate, there are few men in the conference more popular or better known. He has been a member of the conference for thirty-four years, giving up the ministry where he preached to hundreds to take hold of the Advocate where, weekly, he preaches to an average congregation of 11,400 in Georgia and fourteen other states. Dr. Cofer has demonstrated that his paper is Methodist, through and through, and no matter what happens its editorial policy cannot be changed or its orthodoxy interfered with, though this paper is published weekly upon the same press which turns out the Christian Index, the organ of the Baptists in Georgia.

Dr. Cofer's progress up and down the aisles of the church is greatly retarded by the outstretched hands of gracious welcome extended to him on all sides. He is a walking directory for names, faces and pulpits, and can tell one, off-hand, the names of the members of this conference and their last charge. But as to their new assignment he can tell you nothing; at least, he will not.

General Evans on Hand.

General Clement A. Evans, commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans, a member of the prison commission, for twenty-seven years a member of the North Georgia Conference as an active minister, is a familiar figure at the sessions of the conference.

General Evans entered the ministry at the close of the war. Some one remarked at the opening session that when the general got through fighting the yankees he began fighting the devil. In 1892 the wounds which he received during the war became so painful that he was forced to retire from the active ministry and lead a more sedentary life. He is an active participant in the conference, though, and is receiving a most cordial welcome from his coworkers of old.

John N. Holder Lay Delegate.

John N. Holder, speaker of the house of representatives, was among the prominent lay delegates in attendance at this conference. Mr. Holder is from Jackson county. He is extremely popular throughout the state and was receiving a cordial welcome at the conference yesterday.

Founding of St. Paul's.

There is a peculiar history attached to the founding of St. Paul's church, going the rounds at the conference yesterday, being of especial interest to the confederates present. It seems that this church, which is now one of the largest in point of size and the congregation, was begun as a mission church from old Trinity, soon after the war, when the first meetings were held in the building which was formerly a confederate hospital in east Atlanta. It is a known fact that the trenches of battle lay not far distant from the site of this church. The mission church began to increase in attendance early, and soon the first church, from which this grew, was organized. The seating capacity of St. Paul's church is very large, and seems amply able to care for the conference and visitors.

Convention of Apostles.

It was while calling over the roll of churches at the morning session that Bishop Hendrix read out: "St. Mark's, St. John's, St. Paul's, St. Luke's etc., and commented: "Well, I don't know when I have seen so many of the apostles together before. Only St. Peter is missing from the list."

Interest in Sunday School.

Bishop Hendrix was very inquisitive in regard to the Sunday school census, stopping ministers in their report of the year's progress, quite frequently to ask: "How many have you in your Sunday school?" When the figures did not equal the number enrolled in the church he was quick to call attention to the fact there should be more in attendance upon Sunday school than church, adding that the majority of the church members should belong to the Sunday school, too.

"Poor and Humble."

They are telling this one, in Atlanta, as a result of the conference meeting here. Two preachers were discussing the condition of being both poor and humble in the sight of the Lord, when one said: I pray to the Lord to make me humble; my congregation keeps me poor."

Work of Two Brothers.

There are two brothers in Georgia—both spent last year in the same Georgia town. The one is a preacher and the other a physician. A boyhood friend who did not know what vocations they had taken up asked the minister what he and his brother were doing. "I," said the preacher, "am trying to get everyone to go to heaven; my brother is trying to keep them from it."

ground near Decatur, on which the various buildings are located.

Since the home was established forty years ago, 2,000 children have been admitted and given training to fit them for lives of usefulness and Christian endeavor.

The Morning Session.

When the conference opened at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, the congregation sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," after which Bishop Hendrix introduced Dr. C. E. Dowman, who led the assemblage in prayer.

After the reading of the 133d Psalm by Bishop Hendrix, the minutes of Wednesday's session were read by Assistant Secretary Yarbrough.

Rev. W. P. Lovejoy read a resolution proposed by the trustees of the Wesleyan Christian Advocate, authorizing the trustees to make and receive propositions and agree on terms to consolidate various conference organs.

It was announced that the terms of Trustees B. P. Allen and S. B. Ledbetter had expired. They were reelected by ballot.

A telegram was received from the Georgia Baptist convention extending cordial and fraternal greetings, and citing Numbers vi:25, the benediction of the Old Testament, "The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee peace."

In response to the first question, "Who are admitted on trial?" the following names were proposed:

Athens District—Marvin B. Whitaker, Ingomar Judson Lovering, William R. Woodruff, W. P. Carmichael, Paul Eugene Byers, Zebulon Vance Hawk, Owen M. Ponder and William McMullan.

Rome District—Marvin Williams.

Atlanta District—William Joseph DeBardeleben, J. S. Strickland.

The next question called was No. 12: "What traveling preachers are elected elder?" and the following names were called: Robert F. Hodnett, Miles B. Sams, Horace Stratton Smith, Thomas J. Branson and Alonzo M. Sprayberry.

A Message From China.

W. Hector Park, a medical missionary, who is in charge of the hospital at Soo Chow, China, was introduced by the bishop and made a statement of the work of the hospital. He told of a Chinaman whom he had instructed in medicine and his wife had instructed in English. After finishing the medical course this man was offered $500 a month to take charge of a hospital at Shanghai.

"He didn't consider it a moment," said Mr. Park. "He didn't even pray over it."

Continuing, he told how the medical department at Soo Chow University has been established through the generosity of a New Orleans woman who gave $5,000 for the purpose. He spoke of the need for $50,000 to enlarge the medical department. At the conclusion of this talk Rev. W. A. Parks told the congregation he had baptized Hector Park. Bishop Hendrix assured him he had done a good work and told the story of the conversion of Livingston, who, with Stanley, first explored the heart of the continent of Africa. He said there was no honor open to a foreigner which the Chinese government was not ready to bestow on Hector Park.

Dr. M. J. Cofer urged the passage of resolutions expressing sympathy and pledging enthusiastic cooperation in the work being done by Dr. Park at Soo Chow and his campaign to raise $50,000 to complete his work. The resolutions were presented by Dr. Joel T. Daves and passed by a rising vote.

Sunday School Work.

E. B. Chappell, of Nashville, Tenn., Sunday school editor, next addressed the conference and explained the course of study being followed and how the Sunday schools were being conducted. He told the conference it had been decided to issue a 64-page quarterly publication next year, and it was hoped to be able to issue a monthly at an early date. The present circulation of the paper issued for boys and girls numbers 40,000.

Dr. John D. Hammond, of Nashville, Tenn., secretary of the general board of education of the Southern Methodist church, spoke of the work of the board. He spoke of the extension of the church work in Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona and California. He outlined the plans of an educational board to consist of 100,000 members, who would set themselves the task of raising an endowment fund of $500,000 in five years, each member to pledge himself to give $1 a year for five years.

Dr. Cofer made an earnest appeal for cooperation in the work.

Dr. W. A. Parks spoke of the work of the Bible Society and urged the members to aid in placing the Bible in the hands of the people, and particularly in the mill districts.

Thompson Electrifies Conference.

The conference was shaken out of its normal attitude of activity when Nath Thompson, of Waleska, came to the stand and spoke of the work the Reinhardt Normal College is doing among the boys and girls of the north Georgia mountains.

In addressing the congregation he spoke to them as "neighbors, fellow Methodists and fellow Georgians" and urged upon them the importance of the great work of educating in the Christian faith and for useful work the boys and girls of the mountains. He spoke of their ambition to march through the doors of opportunity presented to them by the Reinhardt Normal College. He said these were Georgia boys and girls and their development should appeal to the heart of Georgians, and when one of them came to him and said, "Uncle Nath, is there anything you can do to help me stay in school and get an education?" it reached his heart. He spoke of the consecrated men who had broken down in the great work.

He was followed by J. A. Sharp, of Young Harris, who accused Mr. Thompson of having a beginner's zeal, saying he, too, had wept over the situation when it was new to him, but that he had buried those feelings and steeled his hands and his heart to carry on the work. "I have been in the work ten years," he continued, "and the longer Brother Thompson remains in it the deeper will his conviction grow that it is a great task and a great work."

Rev. W. J. Cotter, one of the superannuated ministers, now 85 years of age, said the work in north Georgia was one of the first things in the itinerant work he had undertaken.

The Georgia Booker Washington.

Bishop Hendrix introduced John Wesley Gilbert, of Plains Institute, Augusta, as the "Georgia Booker Washington." Professor Gilbert made a fine impression by his eloquent speech, in which he invoked the affection held by the old white master of the south for their slaves, the loyalty of the slave to his master's family during the war; the sympathy of the southern white man for a race that had been misled by crafty office-seekers during the days of "misconstruction;" for a race betrayed into politics and finding there nothing but disappointment and bitterness, and in conclusion pleaded that the children of his race might be given the advantages of a Christian as well as a practical education in the school over which he presided. A collection was taken up for the school and $154.05 realized.

At the conclusion of his speech Rev. L. G. Johnson, pastor of St. John's church, of Augusta, stated that it was a matter of record that no graduate of Plains Institute for negroes had ever been convicted in a court of justice of an offense against the laws.

Brief speeches were made by A. J. Lamar, of Nashville, Tenn., an associate agent of the publishing house, and by Rev. H. L. Gray, of the training school for Christian workers at Nashville, Tenn., who spoke interestingly of the work of the school and adverted to the fact that strong bonds of sympathy had been established with the Jews of the city, who showed much interest in the work. Dr. W. F. McMurray, secretary of the board of church extension reported gratifying success.

L. D. Coggin, who was retired from the active ministry at the conference held last year at Cartersville, made a statement in his own behalf, and urged that he be reinstated. No motion was made to that effect, and he remains outside of the conference. He has asked for a formal trial, which he has the right to do.

Young Preachers Advanced.

The following young preachers were found to have completed satisfactorily the first year's work, and were advanced to the second year's work:

Rev. William W. Benson, Rev. Irby Henderson, Rev. E. Z. Mackay Rev. T. H. Boxwell, Rev. A. W. Smith, Rev. Walter A. Wells, Rev. Richard F. Elrod, Rev. George W. Hamilton, Rev. Dedrick P. Johnson, Marvin Swillisz, R. Lindsey Whitehead.

Rev. C. C. Jarrell, chairman of the examining committee, stated that every member of the class stood a fine examination.

Dr. J. H. Mashburn, the retiring presiding elder of the Elberton district, was presented on behalf of the minis a handsome silver service as a testimonial of their esteem. The presentation was made by Rev. R. Frank Estes, pastor of the Elberton Methodist church.

When the question "Who are readmitted?" was reached the name of Rev. Roswell Price Jackson, formerly a Baptist minister, was read.

Dr. Joel T. Daves offered a resolution, which was ordered spread upon the minutes, setting forth that the reference in the minutes of the last conference to the retirement of Rev. J. S. Tilley should not be understood to mean that there was anything against the pastor's character, for he had retired of his own volition.

At the afternoon session Dr. Charles C. Jones, formerly pastor of St. Mark's, in Atlanta, and now pastor of the Methodist church in Griffin, delivered a scholarly and able sermon on Christ as an intercessor for man before the throne of God. He said the Christ had made the sublimest sacrifice in history as an expiation for man, and that His five wounds were continually pleading for man's redemption. He quoted from Hebrews that "Christ is our high priest according to the order of Melchisedech," and reminded his hearers that Christ had offered himself as a sacrifice for them.

HEADS OF BOYS' CLUB CALL JOINT MEETING

Mrs. Preston S. Arkwright, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, and E. Rivers, president of the Boys' Club, have called a joint meeting to be held this afternoon. Rev. James W. Lee and W. C. Mansfield are to address the meeting, besides reports of the building committees, which are said to be able to report some very fine subscriptions which will go toward the building fund.

The meeting will be held at 4 p. m. today in the parlors of the Aragon hotel, and the members of the ladies' auxiliary and the directors are expected to be there in large numbers.

NATIVES OF SYRIA ASK FOR CITIZENSHIP

On Ground That They Are Purest Branch of Caucasian Race.

Cleveland, Ohio, November 18.—On the ground that the natives of Syria are the purest existing branch of the Caucasian race, the wealthy Cleveland Syrian colony, the second largest in the country, has organized to fight against their exclusion of rights of citizenship under the so-called Chinese exclusion act. At a mass meeting to be held Tuesday the Syrians will invite the cooperation of their countrymen throughout the United States to aid in the work of protecting their rights as Caucasians. Amin Yusuf, leader of the colony, heads the movement here.

Intestinal Indigestion

A Form of Dyspepsia Usually Resulting From the Inability to Digest Starchy-Foods.

There are a great many persons who are victims of what is known as intestinal indigestion, a disease which is due to the fact that the starchy foods are either partially digested or not digested at all, and the result of this trouble may be either an obstinate constipation or a persistent diarrhoea.

This inability to digest starch is called "amylaceous dyspepsia," a disease which is much in evidence. Americans are notoriously poor digesters of starch, and as starchy foods, such as potatoes, rice, bread, etc., are digested entirely in the small intestine, and not in the stomach proper, as is generally supposed, it can be readily seen how intestinal indigestion will usually produce diarrhoea.

In the small intestine the pancreatic juice acts upon the starches and ordinarily, in a state of health, possesses the power of converting them into grape sugar and dextrine. Starch must be so transformed before it can be of use to the animal being. Remaining as unchanged starch, it either passes through the alimentary canal, and proves a useless burden to the system, because it resists absorption, or it causes intestinal indigestion, the food products becoming acrid through putrefaction, which often sets up a catarrhal inflammation of the intestine, resulting in diarrhoea.

In a complaint of this character many persons use paregoric, Squibb's, bismuth and tannin to relieve the diarrhoea, all of these remedies being powerfully astringent, and they stop the trouble suddenly, "locking up" the morbid secretions, throwing the toxic intestinal poison back on the system, and often causing death through autointoxication.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS contain among other powerful digestives, a substance called diastase, which thoroughly digests every particle of starchy foods in the small intestine, and prevents the possibility of intestinal indigestion, no matter how excessive may be the amount of food eaten.

These tablets also contain calcium carbonate, which is a mild though effective sub-astringent, and which relieves and cures the diarrhoea by easy stages. It does not act with such suddenness as would cause poisoning of the system, but on the contrary, by its antiseptic properties, all toxins, intestinal germs and poisons always present in intestinal indigestion and diarrhoea, are destroyed.

Not only are the starches digested by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, but through the action of other ingredients they contain albuminous foods, like meat and eggs are a so digested. Thus they cure indigestion of any kind. Buy a package from your druggist today for 50 cents and send us your name and address for free sample package. Address F. A. The initial displays of the Bazar have served to show Atlanta our idea of what a department store can do in the way of a China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac section.

Our basic notion in The Bazar is this: to have merchandise that is really worth while; that is artistically of merit; that is not trashy, cheap or commonplace; and yet is sold at a very reasonable price.

That we have achieved this is very evident to those who have already visited The Bazar and made selections from its various stocks.

You reach The Bazar either by elevator or by the broad staircase in center of the store--one short flight down.

You find, in the most tasteful array, tables showing, first, the China.

English and French dinner, tea and dessert ware in a number of open stock patterns. There are full service and small sets, such as Salad, Pudding and Cream Sets. There are sets of Plates, Tea and Coffee Sets.

In Oriental China we show the Royal Medallion Canton and the Old Blue Canton. Many quaint breakfast sets are seen. There is also an abundance of Dresden and Delft.

"Glassware!" The word gives no hint of the wonderful beauty it comprehends here in The Bazar. Our glassware has nothing in common with those meretricious and tawdry collections you've sometimes seen in shops.

Here's Bohemian Glass--itself a much abused phrase--of the utmost beauty in design and decoration. Where there is color, it is fine, delicately laid and soft. Where there's decoration, it is put on by real artists.

Cut Glass of the American make--than which there's no finer. We're showing many new cuttings.

There's a goodly lot of Colonial Glass in popular and new shapes.

Brasses in designs that are actually new and very different from the common run. The Oriental brasses are very attractive. Practical pieces, such as fern stands, jardinieres, umbrella stands, are much in evidence, as are the more essentially ornamental ones.

Choosing is particularly satisfactory just now, as there are many of these we shall not be able to duplicate.

Sheffield and Quadruple Plate form one of the handsomest displays of The Bazar.

The array of platters, dishes, tea services, serving trays, baking dishes, candlesticks and the like, is most brilliant.

In nickel and copper are chafing dishes, coffee machines, alcohol stoves, casseroles and kettles.

Statuary in marble and bronze is shown in some exquisitely wrought studies. Also we have some exceedingly good plaster reproductions of classic subjects--mythologic and historic.

The Bazar is rich in pottery. Vases, urns, jardinieres, and small ornamental pieces are very numerous. The Dutch and Japanese wares, most attractive in coloring and form, are particularly good.

Lamps of rare beauty are accorded prominence. Table, study, desk, den and hanging lamps are here in all the beauties of crystal, metal and pottery.

Candlesticks and candelabra are also seen in charming designs.

The Oriental Section is a dream. If you haven't seen it, there's a real treat before you.

It has treasures of pottery, quaint wares from here, there and everywhere, a superb array of those uncommon and much-sought little things that you've thought were not in your reach in Atlanta.

But here they are, and in easy reach, too. For their prices are exceedingly small.

Come see The Bazar--it's the prettiest spot in all Atlanta shopdom.

Of that we're very sure.

Matt Henson's lecture tour has a dark outlook.

Big crops, good roads, and Prosperity on every highway.

Let's see? Who was it that discovered the North Pole?

Christmas shopping time! But, of course, you're doing it.

Dig up your Christmas cash and then for the Great White Way!

Like Br'er Rabbit, the Tammany Tiger is "layin' low" these days.

Has "Mars'" Henry Watterson taken to looking at everything through amber glasses?

In spite of it all, the sugar trust will probably get its lemon in the shape of lemonade.

Rumored that President Taft will write a story of the circle swing and beat the $1-a-word man.

No wonder Kansas is raising "blazes," when the latest announcement is that she has corn to burn.

Finest weather in the world for Christmas shopping, and the sun like the silver dollars you see in your dreams.

Mr. Bryan has denied to Joe Bailey the fine privilege of running for president, but your Uncle Joe is doing it, just the same.

Every moment we fear to hear the announcement that Madame Steinheil is to invade the lecture platform in the United States.

The kind of "souvenir" of his late trip unappreciated by the president is doubtless the ten pounds of superfluous flesh he accumulated.

The ice man's voice is cracked and hoarse;
The coal man pipes a lay.
Between the two, whate'er the time,
There's always bills to pay.

Mr. Aldrich now aspires to save the country through reforming its currency laws. It is a great work for some big man to undertake in the interest of the whole people.

The menu of The Savannah banquet to President Taft has furnished a text for editorials in The New York Sun and The Charleston News and Courier, filling editorials.

They say the entire Taft presidential party, with the exception of Big Bill, were quarreling with each other before the jaunt came to an end. No wonder, if the no-mint-julep edict applied also to the rank and file.

General Superintendent of the Union Pacific Railway W. L. Park claims 80 per cent of all railway accidents are chargeable to the negligence of employees. Probably the other 20 per cent are due to the contributory negligence of the carriers.

A New York judge has decided that a 3-year-old girl baby needs three-fourths of an annual income of $20,000 a year to maintain herself in the style to which she has been accustomed. It is a safe bet the judge didn't have a family of grown daughters.

With the death of Charles N. Crittenton, America loses one of its most unique and effective humanists and philanthropists. It was his initiative that fathered the idea of the Florence Crittenton homes, of which there are seventy-two in America. Devoted to the reclamation of wayward women, there is no estimating the volume of good done in the aggregate by these institutions.

ANOTHER ALL-GEORGIA GOOD ROADS CONTEST.

Elsewhere The Constitution publishes a page announcement that challenges the interest of every Georgian, whatever his occupation, or his station.

It describes the projecting of another great all-Georgia good roads contest for next year, similar to the one so brilliantly consummated during Automobile Week.

Those intra-state contests, as admitted by the most prominent men in Georgia, gave the cause of goods roads a greater impetus than any other event in the state's history.

In six months, they roused highway-construction sentiment from lethargy to a concentrated energy that practically built six smooth trunk-lines in as many directions in Georgia, not to speak of innumerable branch roads filtering through the remotest parts of the state.

The Constitution now purposes imparting to the same cause another great impulse.

The war for good roads in Georgia has just opened. The opening campaign was a victory, but it was only the beginning.

The contests next year are to carry the contagion still further, to build yet more permanently and widely upon the splendid foundation already in place.

There is no alternative, faced as we are with a whirlwind of commendatory and inquiring letters from every county in Georgia.

The sentiment of the people for good roads is crystallized.

The Constitution appreciates that fact.

As an effectual means of aiding to realize the ambition of a state, this second great intra-state competition is projected, and the full details will appear later.

Read the announcement elsewhere!

A MILLION-DOLLAR COLLEGE FOR ATLANTA.

The sum of $110,000 contributed by Atlantans will insure for this locality a one-million-dollar college for the higher education of southern women.

That is the significance of the present whirlwind crusade for a fund of $350,000, to be divided between endowment and equipment and improvements for Agnes Scott College in Decatur.

Through its relatively few years of existence the buildings, grounds and equipment of this splendid institution have so grown in extent and usefulness that today their conservative worth may be estimated at $650,000.

But the demands of expansion are such that the present plant is inadequate. It is planned now to raise the sum of $350,000, to be applied to mingled endowment and extension purposes.

Of this amount, already $240,000 has been pledged. These subscriptions are contingent upon the completion of the entire sum of $350,000.

Agnes Scott begun with, has sustained and now advances one of the most sacred and important missions in the south's scheme of civilization.

It is dedicated to offering the young women of the south, under southern home influences and environment, the same educational opportunities, at a less cost, as are offered by the high-class and richly-endowed women's colleges of the east.

Each year it supplies to this section an army of trained teachers, at a time when the dearth of competent instructors is urgent and when the dominant keynote is for education.

It supplies also to southern young women that exquisite culture of mind and heart that go hand in hand with the south's traditions of its womanhood.

Transforming Agnes Scott into a million-dollar institution with a permanent endowment will constitute Atlanta, virtually, the southern center for classical education for women.

It will give the city an intellectual and moral prestige worthy of its material reputation, and possessed in like measure by no other southern community.

It will provide a permanent asset in a substantial sense, since the patronage of the school and its faculty and students will largely accrue to the merchants of Atlanta.

It is not alone the duty of Atlantans, but it is also to their material interest, to respond liberally to the appeal seeking to broaden the scope of this institution.

The sum asked—$110,000—is insignificant compared with Atlanta's prosperity, and the inestimable dividends sure to result from the investment.

GEORGIA'S METHODISTS AND BAPTISTS.

Atlanta and Dublin are this week hosts to two great religious denominations of the state—the North Georgia Methodist Conference in Atlanta and the eighty-eighth annual Baptist Convention in Dublin.

Both in Atlanta and at Dublin work of large importance and of great significance to the members of these wide-spreading denominations is up for debate, decision and execution.

Both Methodist and Baptist have in years past, as in the skeptical present, borne far and high the lamp of genuine, Calvary-crowned, "old-time religion."

Especially in Georgia have these denominations stood with serried front against the destructive aggressions of the mischievous "higher criticism," preserving the Ark of the Covenant with a jealous zeal which yet was tempered with a liberal tolerance.

Both, too, have gathered inspiration at the front of the modern conception of religion; that which clothes religion with a broader and a more practical meaning than may be read in the narrow confines of the denominational edifice, or the weekly round of devotions.

In education of men and women, in manifold works of inclusive philanthropy, as well as in those civic phases which everywhere touch the material welfare of the body-politic, they have shown a progressive, an intelligent and an effective interest.

It is a quick recognition of the changed status of religion that has enabled Methodist and Baptist each to twine themselves closer about the affections and the fidelity of the people of Georgia. The common bond of democracy distinguishes both their creed and their policy, and many of the most distinguished citizens of the state work in close communion for the furtherance of the work of the Master with the humbler brethren whose lot it is to fight in the ranks.

When the history of Georgia shall be written fifty years hence, it will be found that the careful shepherding of these two great denominations will have played an instrumental part in the intellectual, the spiritual and the substantial achievement and making of the state.

To the two gatherings, in Atlanta and Dublin, The Constitution extends its heartiest congratulations, and its hope of Divine Guidance in the tasks facing each.

WHEN CIVIC VIGILANCE BECOMES PERMANENT.

Despite the relapse in militant public sentiment in San Francisco, The Kansas City Star takes comfort in the progressive showing made in the recent municipal elections in Buffalo and Boston.

Declaring that all signs indicate that the voters in large cities the country over are more intelligently vigilant than in many years, it issues the following warning to the politicians of its own bailiwick:

> The politicians in Kansas City ought to take note of the fact that the people in other large cities are reading for themselves, thinking for themselves and voting for themselves. They should be able to read the storm signals in the Buffalo and Boston elections. There is no reason to believe that the people of Kansas City are less intelligent than the people of other cities. They will not stand for a political rule that does not stand for Kansas City.

The Star might have pointed also to New York city, where Tammany elected a mayor but lost a city's treasury, because of distrust of voters who are beginning to cultivate the valuable habit of thinking for themselves.

The exhibition of alertness and insight and independence in these and other recent instances is refreshing and encouraging. It is evidence of progress of the most desirable nature, lacking just one quality to make it unanimously acceptable.

And that exception is the probability, founded on innumerable experiences, that there will presently develop a relapse, in which old conditions will enjoy revival necessitating a second and a more vigorous housecleaning.

So far as irregularity in civic advancement is concerned, however, the present time and this country enjoy no monopoly of the community practice of alternate waking and sleeping in the matter of righteousness in government. The same thing has transpired, with modifications, in all civilized nations in all historic phases, and is merely a tribute to a common human frailty.

Forecasting the future, as keenly as is given to humanity, it seems that the political and moral regenerators of the next generation will pitch their war-cry, not so much to the tune of "Wake Up!" as to the continual and penetrating clarion, "Keep Awake!"

THE SINISTER FERMENT IN INDIA.

Are the stage settings gradually arranging themselves in mysterious India for another monster tragedy, like the Sepoy mutiny and rebellion?

Officials connected in high capacity with the Anglo-Indian government have been mulling over that disquieting question for the past year or two.

Saturday, Lord and Lady Minto, viceroy and vice-reine of India, narrowly escaped assassination at the hands of a bomb-thrower. Lord Kitchener, Sir Andrew Fraser, lieutenant governor of Bengal, and a half-score of other major and minor officials have been the objects of similar attempts, and the assassination of Curzon Wyly in London is still fresh in the public memory.

Ever since the crushing defeat of Russia by Japan, England has noticed an increased unrest in this great empire-dependency.

Up to that time, the innate and inevitable superiority of the white race was a formidable asset in keeping down disaffection and aweing the mutinous into subordination.

But with the overwhelming disaster to the Russian arms, went glimmering also many preconceived traditions in the Nearer East; and throughout the length and breadth of India, sullenly quiescent but never resigned, there begun a series of manifestations susceptible only to gloomy interpretations.

The young Parsee who assassinated Wyly in ondon, and who was subsequently hanged for his crime, queried very pertinently: "If it is patriotic for Englishmen to organize against and prepare for invaders of their native heath, why is it not equally pertinent for Indians to organize and prepare to repel alien intruders who have never grasped the spirit or the genius of our people?"

His somewhat disconcerting question may live to confront and discomfort England. So long as the differing and jealous castes and tribes of the great rich empire can be kept jarring and separated, all is fairly well. Should they become united, it is difficult to predict the end.

Even should Great Britain beat down the rebellion, it would be at the cost of monumental slaughter.

Meanwhile, there is Germany studiously multiplying Dreadnaughts and watching Britain's commercial domination with greedy eye.

Decidedly, the situation is dramatic, though it rather smells too much of blood to appeal to our peace-loving senses.

"JUST FROM GEORGIA"

The Clock.

Through the sad, lonesome night
It moves with slowest pace
Unto the sweet and wished-for light—
Unto the day of grace.
And I say: "If the clock would but be still,
I'd never remember good or ill,
But the clock has a tone that can crush and kill—
The clock that strikes in the night.

All through the sleepless hours
Time's sentinel imparts
A memory of withered flowers
That rest on ruined hearts.
And I say: "If the clock would but be still
I would bow in the dark to Destiny's will,
But the clock is a demon, to crush and kill—
The clock that strikes in the night.

It strikes, and my heart seems dumb,
Or thrills with the right and wrong,
And I moan and moan: "Will the morning come,
With its splendor of light and song?"
I moan: "If the clock would but be still
My tears would cease, . . . but it works its will,
For the clock is a demon to crush and kill—
The clock that strikes in the night.

Oh, the clock that strikes in the night!
Oh, the faces of vanished years!
Will souls that are darkened be white—be white
When bathed in a flood of tears?
But I moan: "If the clock would but be still,
I would cease to think of that unpaid bill,
But the clock's a collector, to crush and kill—
The clock that strikes in the night.

A Primer of Life.

No matter what's in store for you, you'll get to the end of the long road some day. And it may be that the rest will be all the sweeter because the road was long.

Time will not wait for any of us, and the finest thing in the world is to keep pace with Time—never to lag behind the procession.

When Mother's Leavin' Home.

Such a hum of voices; don't care where you roam,
You'll never hear such noises as when Mother's leavin' home.
Katie! Stop your screamin'! Rob, what's ailin' you?
Never bring you nothin' more, if that's the way you do!

"Mama, bring some candy,— Want a ball and bat;
Bring a lot of little bells to tie around the cat.
Bring a drum and jumpin'-jack,"— Don't care where you roam,
You'll never hear such noises as when mother's leavin' home.

Such a hum of voices. 'Nough to shake the dome!
Beats the Tower of Babel when mother's leavin' home.
Katie, do be quiet! There's Jerry cryin', too!
Never bring you nothin' more, if that's the way you do!

"Mama, bring a dolly;" "Want some picture books."
"Mama, bring a fishin'-pole an' lots o' fishin'-hooks.
Bring a little bicycle,"— Don't care where you roam,
You'll never hear such voices as when mother's leavin' home!

The Way He Explained It.

Senator Taylor, of Tennessee, is responsible for this story:

"There was an old negro whose worthless son was married secretly. The old man heard of it and asked the boy if he was married. 'I ain't sayin' I ain't,' the boy replied.

"'Now, you Rastus,' stormed the old man, 'I ain't askin' you is you ain't; I is askin' you ain't you is!'"

Contented.

Just let 'em take the offices an' keep 'em in a whirl!
I'd ruther have a violet from the sweet hand of a girl;
Than run the whole United States! So, let the country roll!
For a streak of Autumn sunshine is a-streamin' through my soul!

She Secretly Wedded a Count.

New York, November 18.—The secret marriage a year ago of Count Kalman Czaky, said to be a third cousin of Count Szaechenyi, who married Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and Mrs. Maude Howard Bryan, formerly of Portland, Ore., has just been announced in this city. Count Czaky is the former husband of the present wife of Jan Kubelik, the violinist.

Ultimatum to Chile.

Washington, November 18.—The American legation in Chile will be closed unless the Alsop claim of more than $1,000,000 which has been pending against Chile for more than 35 years is settled or referred to the Hague.

Postpone Murder Trial.

Danville, Ill., November 19.—The trial of Mrs. J. B. Saylor, Dr. W. E. Miller and John Grunden on the charge of having murdered Mrs. Sayler's husband, a banker of this city, has been postponed until next March. The court granted the postponement on the plea of the attorney for the defense that a fair trial in the matter could not be had at this time, because of prejudice against the defendants.

Finnish Diet Dissolved.

Helsingfors, Finland, November 18.—The Finnish diet was dissolved today because of its refusal to sanction the bill introduced by the government asking for an appropriation of $4,000,000 for the defense of the empire. An election will be held February 1 and the new diet will assemble March 1.

Patrick Still Fights.

New York, November 18.—In spite of the defeats he has met in the courts in efforts to regain his liberty, the persistency and legal acumen of Albert T. Patrick, who is serving a life sentence in Sing Sing for the murder of William Marsh Rice in 1900, succeeded in obtaining another writ of habeas corpus through his counsel, William L. McDonald, from presiding Judge Hirschberg of the appellate division of the supreme court in Brooklyn. The writ is returnable November 29.

Killed in Street Duel.

Hominy, Okla., November 18.—In a street encounter here today Wesley Fraley, a merchant, was shot and killed by W. C. Wood, his former partner. Wood was not hurt. There had been bitter feeling between the men for some time. Wood was arrested.

WHISKY RING SEEKS CONTROL

Of Next Legislature, Says Hillyer

When Temperance Committee Makes Report at Baptist Convention---Elberton Is Chosen for the Next Meeting---Increase Shown in Pupils.

Dublin, Ga., November 18.—(Special.) The next convention of Georgia Baptists will be held at Elberton, beginning Tuesday, November 15, 1910. Rev. L. R. Christie, of Valdosta, will preach the convention sermon.

At the session this afternoon reports of the committee on orphans' homes and young people's work were read and adopted; pledges were secured for the disposal of several thousand copies of The Christian Index, proceeds to be given to the orphans' home cause.

The report of the committee on temperance, which was read at the morning session, was taken up under a special order, discussed and adopted. Speeches were made by Messrs. Hillyer, of Rome, and Richards, of Atlanta, and the state prohibition law was reviewed.

A Lawless Subterfuge.

Mr. Hillyer said the fight had only begun. The near beer now being sold had complicated the situation, but the honest, God-fearing people of Georgia will not submit to this lawless subterfuge to defeat the will of the people. He predicted that unless the prohibitionists watch the enemy the law will be so modified that even present conditions will not remain, as the whisky element is preparing to control the next legislature.

Mr. Richards, on the other hand, was optimistic, and said if the Baptists, Methodists and other church people will stand by the Anti-Saloon League in its work, there need be no fear of a step backward, as the league is thoroughly organized for fight, and will wage relentless warfare upon all efforts to legalize the liquor traffic.

The convention decided to call upon congress, through its individual members, to pass a law prohibiting the granting of government licenses to sell liquor in "dry" states. The application is made especially pertinent to Georgia.

The convention also adopted a strong resolution memoralizing the Georgia legislature to pass a bill that shall end the sale of beer in the state, "near" or otherwise. Prominent churchmen and laymen of the convention made speeches in support of the resolutions.

The matter of Sunday schools came before the convention this morning. Vice President Burroughs presiding. The report was made by Rev. Alex Bealer. It showed an increase in membership in fourteen years of 55,868 and an increase in contributions over last year of $3,798.24. There are in the state 1,641 Baptist Sunday schools, 11,513 teachers and an enrollment of 134,000 pupils.

At the conclusion of the report a rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Bealer, as he is to leave the state soon and take up work in Tennessee.

Secretary VanNess Speaks.

Corresponding Secretary J. J. VanNess, of the Sunday school board of the Southern Baptist Convention, delivered a strong address, reviewing the different divisions of the work. The board is one of the few sustaining ones of the Southern Baptist Convention.

C. E. Crossland spoke on the training work of the Sunday school board and urged the importance of training the teachers so that they would do successful work. The report was then adopted by the convention. The report of the Laymen's Missionary Movement was presented by Clifford M. Walker, who is also grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias and an earnest layman. This movement is for the purpose of furthering missionary work, and much good is being done along that line.

MAN SWOONS ON TRAIN AND THEN PASSES AWAY

John B. Flaherty, of New Orleans, Expires on Georgia Railroad Train.

John B. Flaherty, aged 35, of New Orleans, La., died on the Georgia railroad train while coming to Atlanta from Augusta yesterday morning. The cause of his death seems to have been sheer mental exhaustion, brought on by lung trouble.

Flaherty was traveling for his health, as he feared that his ailment would develop into tuberculosis. He had lately been in Augusta, and was making his way to New Orleans at the time of his death.

As the train was nearing Atlanta some of the passengers noticed Flaherty, cough painfully, then gasp and fall back on his seat. Several ran to his aid, and attempted to revive him, but he died in about five minutes.

The body was taken to H. M. Patterson's undertaking parlors, and will be sent to New Orleans today, where the funeral and interment will take place.

DR. COFER GAVE DINNER TO THE FIVE SURVIVORS

A pleasant event at which Dr. M. J. Cofer entertained the five survivors of the group of nineteen ministers who joined the North Georgia Methodist conference in 1876, when the conference met at Sparta, was a dinner given by him at his home in West End on Wednesday evening.

Rev. Dr. M. J. Cofer, assistant editor of The Wesleyan Advocate, Atlanta, joined the conference at Sparta, Ga., in 1876, together with fifteen others. Of this number only five are remaining in the conference. Wednesday at 6 o'clock Dr. Cofer had his classmates to enjoy his hospitality in a dinner at his home in West End. The class of 1876 present at Dr. Cofer's home was Rev. A. W. Quillian, of Carrollton; Rev. W. O. Butler, of Newton county; Rev. R. L. Campbell, of Augusta. One of the class was not present, Rev. D. C. Simmons, of East Point, on account of press of business.

County Official Stole $25,000.

Muskogee, Okla., November 18.—Tony Matney, former district clerk of Muskogee county, was found guilty by a jury today of embazzling $25,000 of county funds, $7,000 of which was fees paid by litigants to the United States court before statehood. Matney was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and fined $1,000.

AGNES SCOTT FUND IS HALF RAISED

Total of $150,000 Raised by Atlantans.

Plan Is Evolved by Which Money Can Be Raised in Time Limit---Committees Report Excellent Progress Being Made.

Ten thousand dollars have been raised this week for the Agnes Scott College fund, of the $350,000, making the total subscribed by Atlantans $150,000, and leaving $100,000 yet to be secured.

The giant electrical clock on Anderson's corner was moved forward by this sum Thursday, the first time the hands have been moved since the movement was inaugurated for the whirlwind campaign.

It is recalled that the General Educational board promised this college $100,000 if the citizens of Atlanta would subscribe $250,000. This offer expires on the midnight of November 30.

Up to date over half of this sum desired has been raised, and the committee in charge of this work believes the other can be raised within the time limit.

Noonday Meeting.

The first big noonday meeting of the workers at the office of W. Woods White was held yesterday, when the chairmen made enthusiastic reports of their committees' work. The executive committee, S. M. Inman chairman, is in the lead for the day with $875. No. 4 follows with $625.

In addition to the subscriptions of over $5,000 reported in the afternoon papers, the committee is able to report $5,865 to date as follows, reported by the subcommittees:

No. 1, C. D. McKinney chairman, $575; No. 3, M. M. Jackson, $150; No. 4, W. W. Orr, $625; No. 5, T. B. Gray, $200; No. 6, Fred W. Cole, $600; No. 7, George W. Wilkins, $575; No. 9, D. I. McIntyre, $350; No. 10, Victor L. Smith, $530; No. 11, W. E. Newill, $500; No. 12, W. M. Everett, $200; No. 13, Judge E. C. Kontz, $100; No. 15, M. M. Davies, $585; executive committee, $875.

The men who are doing the work are pleased with the splendid reception given them by Atlanta. In spite of the half dozen or more big movements that are now on tap, the chairmen report very few turn-downs, and everyone seems to realize that it is now or never for a million-dollar woman's college for Atlanta.

The noonday meeting is proving to be quite the feature of the campaign, and it is possible that it will be necessary to secure larger quarters than Mr. White's spacious offices. Returns are put up on a big blackboard, and there is a keen rivalry in good works between the committees. Hereafter the hands of the big clock will be moved every twenty-four hours.

Another interesting feature is the way in which the commercial houses have responded to the appeal as the remarkable value of an educational institution as a business proposition has been pointed out to them. Careful statisticians have conservatively estimated that an educational institution for higher learning will spend on an average of $1,000 per year for every student within its walls. This includes the expenses and tuition and her proportion of the college budget for each student. New plans for the million-dollar Agnes Scott contemplate the bringing of some 300 new students to Atlanta. This means an average expenditure in the city of around $300,000 per year. Mr. Inman has repeatedly stated that one of the most striking features of this proposition is that it is a permanent investment; that is to say, that whereas the average cause to which the Atlantan is asked to subscribe is repeated year by year and requires a new subscription list each year. On the other hand, the giving of anything to Agnes Scott will be an unending investment.

Those in charge of this canvass have evolved the following plan by which to raise the money:

Amount to be raised, $350,000.

Subscribed—General Education Board, $100,000; S. M. Inman, $50,000; Andrew Carnegie, $25,000. Total, $175,000.

Balance needed $175,000.

Needed.	Amount.	Already Subscribed.
2 at $25,000	$50,000	1
5 at 5,000	25,000	2
3 at 2,500	7,500	1
3 at 1,500	4,500	1
25 at 1,000	25,000	12
30 at 500	15,000	9
100 at 300	30,000	1
100 at 150	15,000	7
200 at 100	20,000	8
100 at 75	7,500	8

Gossip at the Capitol

About twenty commission merchants doing business in Atlanta, through their attorneys, Daly, Chambers & Smith and J. H. Dodgen, yesterday filed with the railroad commission a petition asking that body to issue an order requiring the Southern Express Company to put in its delivery depots telephones of the Atlanta Telephone and Telegraph Company. They state that they receive daily consignments of perishable produce; that it is necessary for them to communicate frequently with the express offices on this account; that the Bell telephone, which is the only one used by the express company, is so congested with business that it is nearly always impossible for them to secure conversation with the express depots in that way. The commission will call upon the express company to show cause and, if there is occasion for it, assign a date for hearing.

Condition of State Banks.

State Treasurer J. Pope Brown, who is also state bank examiner, yesterday issued a call on the state banks of Georgia for a statement of their condition at the close of business November 16, the same date to which the call of the controller of the currency upon the national banks refers. This is the last call to be made by the state bank examiner this year, and the statements must be in his hands within ten days from receipt of the notice. There is little doubt that the Georgia banks generally will make a magnificent showing.

New Bank Is Chartered.

A charter was issued by the secretary of state yesterday to the Farmers' National Bank at Doerun, Colquitt county, Ga. The capital stock of the new bank is $25,000 and the incorporators are Joe Idelson, W. B. Jones, J. T. Monroe, F. L. Short and R. L. Free, all of Doerun.

DR. POWERS' LECTURES PROVE ARTISTIC TREAT

It is said that in the days of Phidias his colossal statue of Athena on the Acropolis could be seen far out at sea by sailors doubling the promontory of Sumium.

The glory of the works of Phidias is now traditional; his statistics were lost to sight far back in the dim centuries. The most famous one, the Zeus, was carried to Constantinople by Theodosius, and destroyed by fire. During the 20 years of Pericles' reign Phidias adorned Athens with more colonnades, temples and works of art than Rome could boast in seven centuries. Yet like many another heaven-gifted mortal; this great artist died in disgrace, accused of peculation and impiety.

It was the exuberant, youthful "satyr" of Praxitiles which inspired Hawthorne's "Marble Faun," and the majestic Niobe group of Scopas has furnished a theme for many poets.

Dr. H. H. Powers, of Boston, in his present series of lectures at Cable concert hall, thus interweaves the art and the history and the literature of each period he handles, so that his two large audiences yesterday, when he had finished, left the hall with no flimsy superficial facts in their minds about the "Age of Pisistratus" and the "Age of Pericles," Dr. Powers' themes, but a definite, coherent idea of each period, and the inter-relation of its art, history and literature.

Today he will treat of the "Age of Plato," and his literature promises to be no less interesting.

Stereopticon slides gave a still more vital spirit to the discourses, and they were heard yesterday by audiences which had for their nucleus the organization bringing Dr. Powers here, the Atlanta Art association. The various study clubs and the art selections of suburban schools were well represented, and Dr. Powers was given an enthusiastic appreciation.

His manner of delivery is conversational, and he uses no technical language that the most casual audience could fail to comprehend. He proves thus highly entertaining, while at the same time imparting in a very simple and agreeable way some part of his own tremendous information and deductions.

The last lecture, "The Age of Plato," will be delivered this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and again Dr. Powers' hearers will have apportunity to meet him at 5 o'clock tea, which will be served in the alcove at the rear of the auditorium.

Mrs. Clarence Knowles, assisted by a committee from the Art association will preside, and the entire audience is invited to remain.

OFFICERS FOR CHAMBER WILL BE NOMINATED

There will be a meeting of the nominating committee of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce this afternoon for the purpose of naming the men who are to be voted for to fill the vacancies during the coming year.

The ferm of President Asa G. Candler expires with the last December meeting, and his successor is to be named at the election soon to follow this session of the nominating committee.

In view of the rush to which the Chamber of Commerce committees have been subjected during the past few weeks, it may be that this committee cannot make its announcement today.

TO WIND UP AFFAIRS OF AUDITORIUM-ARMORY

For the purpose of winding up the affairs incident to the transfer of the Auditorium-Armory to the city, which is now paying for this magnificient building, and the return of the 10 per cent paid in, amounting to about $7,500, to the stockholders, President J. R. Gray, of the Auditorium-Armory company, has called a meeting of the directors for the rooms of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce on Saturday morning.

At that time formal action will be taken by these officers to have the funds paid in returned to the stockholders. The meeting promises to be both brief and interesting.

If you want a handsome present today, attend Chas. M. May's auction sale, 9 Peachtree St.

ON BLIND TIGER CHARGE PARKER IS BOUND OVER

Charlie Parker, a young stage employee of the Grand Opera house, was arraigned before Recorder Broyles yesterday afternoon on a charge of selling whisky and was bound over to the state court under a $300 bond.

The charge against Parker grew out of the trial of Abraham Ney for violating the prohibition law several days ago. When testifying in behalf of Ney, D. J. Folds, Jr., made the startling declaration that he had bought whisky of Parker. Ney is the manager of the Ney Pharmacy, at the corner of Decatur and Courtland streets, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 or serve thirty days in the stockade.

Though Parker stoutly denied the charge, Folds swore positively that Parker sold him a pint of whisky Saturday night three weeks ago, the transaction, he stated, taking place at the corner of Marietta and Broad streets.

WINTER SERVICE ON FOR SOUTHERN ROAD

The Southern Railway Company announces the inauguration of its winter tourist service from Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Louisville to Jacksonville, Fla., and through the peninsula, effective from the north on Saturday, November 20, and from the south Monday, November 22.

Usually this service is inaugurated during the early part of January, but the cold weather in the middle west has made it imperative that this service be begun at once.

The first tourist train will reach Atlanta from Chicago on Sunday morning, leaving Atlanta for Florida at 11:10 a. m. It will arrive at Jacksonville at 8:20 p. m.

Returning this train leaves Jacksonville at 7:40 a. m. and arrives in Atlanta at 5 p. m., continuing to Chicago on the present schedule.

The train is to be Pullman throughout and is to be one of the handsomest which is to pass through the city.

MASS MEETINGS HELD AT WESLEY MEMORIAL

An interesting feature of the North Georgia conference is a series of mass meetings arranged by Rev. Dr. Frank Siler, pastor of the Wesley Memorial church, at which distinguished and leading attendants are being heard.

Last night Dr. DuBose, general secretary of the Epworth League and editor of The Epworth Era, one of the leading organs of the organization, addressed a large audience, talking of the place the league occupied in church life. Dr. DuBose proved an interesting and entertaining talker, and held the attention of his audience from the inception to the finish of his address.

Dr. Hamill, widely known by his Sunday school work, will occupy the same platform tonight, telling of his work and experience in that line, while Dr. W. H. Park, of Suchow, China, will be heard Saturday night.

BOND ELECTION TO BE POSTPONED

Council to Set Date for February 15, 1910.

General Campaign Committee Adopts Recommendation of Advisory Committee --- Reasons for Postponement Are Fully Set Forth.

The general bond election committee adopted yesterday the recommendation of the advisory committee and requested the city council to postpone the bond election from December 15 to February 15 of next year. The reasons set for this change in the date of the election are all set forth in a communication from the advisory committee, which is given in full below.

Mayor Maddox presided at the meeting, and there was a very full attendance, showing that Atlanta's representative business men are taking a very deep interest in the proposed bond issue of $3,000,000. While many believed there would be no trouble about the bonds carrying, they voted for the postponement because of the reasons urged.

The discussion brought out that some members of the committee from the second ward did not wish to be bound by a resolution to support the bond issue in the future, but this was reconciled by the adoption of a resolution instructing the advisory committee to take every possible step to make the bond election ordinance so binding that the money could not be used otherwise than voted for by the people. The second ward members were for the bonds, but feared there might be some trouble in carrying them unless the second and third ward club was thoroughly satisfied. Those who spoke for the club were Frank Wilby and President Walker. Jesse B. Lee spoke for the Fifth Ward Club. He also wanted the bond ordinance made perfectly binding.

Those who took part in the general discussion were Walter McElreath, F. A. Quillian, D. W. Green, John H. Harwell, Press Huddleston and Dr. J. C. White, the last named making a great speech for the bonds.

It is believed that the recommendation of the general committee will be adopted by the general council.

Recommendation to Council.

The resolution adopted by the general committee was as follows:

"Whereas, the advisory committee of the bond campaign election has recommended to this general committee that for good and sufficient reasons the bond election should be postponed until February 15, 1910, therefore,

"Resolved, by the general bond campaign committee, That the recommendations of the advisory committee be adopted and that the members of the general bond campaign committee hereby pledge to the advisory committee that they will hold themselves in readiness to assist and cooperate in every way possible in the bond election on February 15 of next year.

"Resolved, further, That the general bond campaign committee recommends to the general council that the bond election be postponed until February 15, 1910."

The resolutions adopted by the advisory committee, and which gives the reasons for postponing the election, are as follows:

Reasons for Postponement.

"Whereas, The work of properly informing the public as to the details in regard to the proposed bond election for Oecember 15, has been very much interfered with and retarded by the important events which have transpired in Atlanta during the past few weeks and which have attracted the attention of our people; and,

"Whereas, We are approaching the holiday season, when our merchants are busiest, and the date of December 15, now fixed for the election, will practically carry the bond campaign into the Christmas hilodays; and,

"Whereas, We believe it to the interest of the city to give all the information possible to the voters in the matter of the distribution and expenditure of the bond money; and,

"Whereas, The present registration list was opened on January 1 of this year, and the law requires that two-thirds of the registered voters shall vote in favor of the bonds; and,

"Whereas, We are informed by the registrar that there are probably a thousand to fifteen hundred of the names now on the registration list who have moved away or died during the present year, and by virtue of their names being on the registration list and not being able to vote, will in fact count against the bonds; and,

"Whereas, We believe that the citizens of the territory which will become a part of the city on January 1, 1910, should be allowed to participate in this election, owing to the fact that the property in this territory will be under the proposed bond issue; and,

"Whereas, We believe that it is important to have sufficient time to fully inform the people of the urgent necessity for and concerning the great benefits to be derived from the sale of these bonds, and that this will require longer time than remaining between now and December 15. Therefore be it

"Resolved, That the advisory committee respectfully recommends that the general bond campaign committee recommend to council that the election for the $3,000,000 of bonds be held on February 15, 1910, instead of December 15, 1909; and,

"Resolved further, That the committee already named from the various wards and from the different organizations of the city be requested to continue as an organization and to actively aid in the work of carrying the bond election to a successful conclusion on February 15, 1910, in order that Atlanta may continue to grow and prosper."

'POSSUM CREATES STIR IN PITTS' CIGAR STORE

The Little Animal Was Attempting to Enter a "Nuf Ced" Cigar Box.

Quite a bit of excitement was caused in Pitts' cigar store by a "real live 'possum" breaking loose and tearing up several cigars in the showcase.

When the little animal was first noticed he was entering a "Nuff Ced" cigar box. Immediately everybody in the store began to chase and he was finally caught by the tail while attempting to climb up the wall.

Where the 'possum came from is a mystery. He is black and of the swamp variety and is now the proud possession of Carlton Floyd.

Basketball at Boys' Club.

Among the various basketball leagues at the Boys' Club is what is known as the Dry Goods League, and on Thursday night a very lively game was played between the Davison-Paxon-Stokes and Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose teams, which resulted in a victory of 17 to 15 in favor of the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose team. However, two games previous to this were won by their opponents.

NEAL BANK CHECKS MAILED SATURDAY

Christmas Money for 9,000 Depositors -- 15 Per Cent Dividend.

On Saturday night, checks aggregating $260,000 will be mailed out to the 9,000 depositors of the defunct Neal bank, from the Central Bank and Trust Corporation, representing the third dividend which has been paid the depositors since this institution closed its doors. The dividend, this time, will be for 15 per cent. The other dividends were for 20 per cent each. This brings the total amount returned to each depositor 55 per cent.

It is believed by the receiver for the bank that ultimately every cent due the depositors will be paid.

This dividend was made possible, at this time, through the sale of the Cuban property, in which the bank, at the time of its failure, was heavily interested.

Coming just at this time, the dividend will be in the nature of an advance Christmas present.

The clerical force in charge of this feature of the bank is now busily engaged in drawing the individual checks, all of which have to be signed by some officer of the bank.

Don't fail to get your present today after the sale. Chas. M. May, 9 Peachtree St.

YOUNG DICKINSON HAS PASSED AWAY

William A. Dickinson, the 15-year-old son of Mrs. E. P. Howell, Jr., died at the residence on the Marietta road yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

The body was removed to Patterson's undertaking establishment, and will be sent to Savannah, Ga., for funeral and interment.

Young Dickinson was a student at the Georgia Military academy, where he has stood unusually well, both in classes and other school activities. About three weeks ago he was stricken with typhoid fever, and sank rapidly until the end came.

The deceased was the adopted son of E. P. Howell, Jr., who was a brother to Albert Howell and Clark Howell.

UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES MEET AT ATHENS

Thos. W. Reed Elected Secretary and Treasurer.

Athens, Ga., November 18.—(Special.) The board of trustees of the University of Georgia met here this afternoon. There were present Messrs. McDaniel, McWhorter, Hodgeson, White, Gober, Hamilton, Persons, Howell, Phinizy, Bacon and Newlin.

Thomas W. Reed, for many years connected with the Athens Banner, an alumnus of the university class of 1888, was elected secretary and treasurer and registrar of the University to succeed the late Hon. A. L. Hull. Two years since a few philanthropic Georgians gave enough money to provide for the chair of Georgia history in the University for that period. The fund thus given will be exhausted next commencement. The trustees decided to take care of that chair at that time and continue this department.

COLD BREEZES BLOW AND CONTINUE SO

Weather Man Promises Duplicate of Thursday's Temperature for Today.

"Continued fair and cool" is the forecast the local weather bureau passed around yesterday afternoon, promising that today will be an exact reproduction of yesterday, only a little more so. The mercury hovered around the 31-degree mark all during the day yesterday, rising slightly toward the middle of the day, however, it is expected that 30 will mark the minimum this morning.

"I rather guess that'll be same feetball at Ponce de Leon tomorrow," said the Gopher, "for if there's two teams that really love to wallop the wadding out of each other, it's certain the two that are going into that Tech-Georgia scrap.

"There's a lot of fellows that seem to think Tech is going to have things pretty much her own way, but I'm not sure about this, by a long shot. Georgia has had a fine defense all season, and if she's improved her offense any, Tech'll have to go some to beat her much.

"But it don't matter who wins, it's going to be a great game, and then some. There isn't a quitter on either team, and that always counts for a lot. And there's hundreds of people in this old burg of ours who know this, and there's going to be a good large-sized crowd out to see the fun. See, now, if there isn't."

CONGREGATIONAL METHODISTS MEET

In General Conference At Anniston.

Anniston, Ala., November 18.—(Special.)—The general conference of the Congregational Methodist churches of the United States will convene in its thirteenth quadrennial session with the First Congregational Methodist church, Eleventh and Parkwin streets, in Anniston, at 10 o' clock Friday morning, and will be called to order by the president, Hon. A. H. Ogletree, of Georgia. The conference is composed of delegates elected from state or annual conferences extending from Pennsylvania to Texas, the main strength of the church, however, being in the south.

Addresses of welcome to the city will be delivered by Hon. S. A. Russell, on behalf of the business men; Hon. T. J. Fain, on behalf of the press; Judge S. W. Tate, on behalf of the professional men, and by Rev. W. G. Anderson, on behalf of the churches and Sunday schools. These addresses will be responded to on behalf of the conference by Rev. W. G. Airhart, of Texas. The opening sermon of the conference will be preached by Rev. W. C. Swope, of Missouri.

A revival meeting is already in progress at the church, conducted by Evangelist Swope, with a great chorus led by Rev. W. L. Burks, pastor of the church.

The organization of the conference is similar to the organization of the congress of the United States, delegates being elected by majority vote from state conferences, no distinction being made between ministerial and lay delegates. The conference elects its own officers, and has only such legislative powers as are delegated to it in the constitution of the church. Trustees of the Atlanta Bible school and the editor of The Watchman are among the officials elected by this conference, which meets once in eevry four years.

CEDARTOWN MEN HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Automobile Was Hurled Into Stream When the Bridge Collapsed.

Rome, Ga., November 18.—(Special.) Hurled from the seats of a flying automobile into the icy waters of a stream by the collapse of a bridge, five of Cedartown's most prominent men had a narrow escape from serious injury early Wednesday morning. The occupants of the machine besides its owner, W. W. Mundy, were S. E. Ault, Judge Wright, Jack Spinks and W. C. Bunn, all lawyers of that city.

The party were on their way to Cedartown, on their return trip from Rome, where they had been in attendance on the banquet given by Hon. Wright Willingham to the bar of the seventh congressional district. They left the banquet hall at 2 o'clock a. m. and started for home in Mr. Mundy's car. They were 6 miles from Cedartown when the accident occurred. A small wooden bridge over a little branch collapsed and threw them all from the car. No serious injuries were sustained by any members of the party. The car was not badly damaged, and was taken into Cedartown for repairs.

City Court of Douglas.

Douglas, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—The city court of Douglas has been in session all the week clearing up the docket prior to the retirement of Judge Roan, who will be succeeded January 1 by Judge-elect Langford. Hon. E. Wall, judge of the city court of Fitzgerald, has been presiding this week in cases in which Judge Roan is disqualified. This week only civil cases will be tried; next week will be devoted to criminal trials.

When One Buys Jewelry--

Isn't it logical to buy the best, the truest, the most genuine?

Isn't it wisdom to buy of a house you can trust? A house that gives everybody alike a fair show? A house that carries the largest assortment?

We don't want to claim a monopoly of these virtues—we ought not to. There are good folks all around us.

But we'd just like to have you look into our style of doing things. Compare our wares, our ways, our prices, and we're willing to rest the case with you as to where you'll buy your jewelry.

SOCIETY

To Mrs. Worcester.

Mrs. Edward Worcester, Jr., has issued invitations for a reception this evening from 5 until 7 o'clock at 84 East North avenue, her guest of honor to be Mrs. Theodore Worcester, of Chicago.

Assisting in entertainment will be Mrs. Oscar Pappenheimer, Mrs. George Traylor, Mrs. Joseph Richardson and Mrs. L. P. Owsley.

Miss Margaret Disosway and Miss Frances Nunnally will serve punch, and Miss Julie Richardson, Miss Marie Pappenheimer and Miss Margaret Traylor will pour tea.

Old-Fashioned Women.

Mrs. Morris Brandon entertained the Order of Old-Fashioned Women at their first fall meeting yesterday, and the occasion was one of delightful hospitality.

To Atlanta Federation.

A most cordial invitation is extended through me to all members of our City Federation of Women's Clubs to be present at all the meetings of "Georgia Congress of Mothers." These exercises will be held in the Sunday school room of the First Baptist church, beginning Saturday, November 20, at 10 a. m., and continuing through November 21 and 22. A large attendance is urged.

MRS. SAM D. JONES,
President City Federation.

Bazar and Lunch.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Methodist church will hold a bazar on Saturday, beginning in the morning at 10 o'clock, at the woman's exchange in the Young Women's Christian Association hall on the viaduct.

Besides a choice collection of handmade lingerie and fancy articles for sale, lunches will be served, and delicious home-made candy will be a feature.

Miss Natalie Hammond is chairman of the society, and the members urge a generous patronage.

Church Social.

The second of the series of social entertainments by the ladies of the Unitarian church will be held at the church tonight, November 19. A supepr will be served promptly at 7 o'clock, followed by music and a literary program.

All interested are welcomed. A fee of 25 cents is charged, which includes everything.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargan gave a beautiful dinner last night in compliment to Mrs. Palmer Phelan Clarke and Mr. Ulric Atkinson, the other guests including Mrs. Caroline Beale McQueen of Montgomery, Mr. Thomas Egleston, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Little, Captain and Mrs. Henry Bankhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Dargan's home on Ponce de Leon avenue was attractive with ferns and chrysanthemums, and the table decorations were artistic in yellow.

The centerpiece was a tall silver vase of yellow chrysanthemums, and at the corners were smaller vases of the same flowers. The silver candlesticks had silver shades, and the place cards bore the monogram of the hostess in gold letters. The ices and other details were yellow.

Mrs. Dargan wore a becoming gown of apricot-colored satin trimmed with black chiffon and jet. Mrs. Clarke was lovely in a black velvet gown trimmed with point lace.

Afternoon Reception.

A beautiful entertainment yesterday was the afternoon reception given by Mrs. John Hutchinson Raine and Mrs. Joseph Shelton Raine at the home of the former on Juniper street.

Elaborate decorations and the beautiful reception toilets of the receiving party and callers made the occasion one of picturesque interest, and the happiest spirit of hospitality was expressed.

There was glowing welcome in the yellow chrysanthemums, which were used with palms and smilax to make the hallway festive, and the same flowers filled tall jardinieres in the living room. White chrysanthemums were the decoration in the parlor, and pink was the prevailing color in the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served.

The table centerpiece was a pyramid of pink chrysanthemums and ferns, and the silver candlesticks had pink and silver shades. Pink tulle and smilax were festooned from the chandelier to the corners of the table, and caught there with tulle bows, and the candles, cakes and ices were pink.

Miss Jennie D. Harris and Miss Reinette Miller served punch on the porch, which was inclosed with canvas and decorated with autumn foliage and pink chrysanthemums.

Mrs. John Raine wore an elegant gown of lavender callot satin, handembroidered and trimmed with gold embroidered lace. She held an armful of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Joseph Raine was handsomely gowned in orchid pink crepe meteor. It was embroidered in pink and lavender sequins in orchid design, and its lace trimming had an embroidery in silver. Her flowers were American Beauties.

Mrs. John Miller, serving coffee, wore black crepe meteor and lace, handembroidered.

Assisting in entertainment were Miss Annie Nutting, Mrs. W. H. Glenn, Mrs. Rix Stafford, Mrs. R. W. Davis, Mrs. Thomas Paine, Mrs. Nash Broyles, Mrs. Henry Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Evelyn Harris, Mrs. Edward K. Van Winkle, Mrs. Fred Lewis, Mrs. Van Astor Bachelor, Mrs. W. C. Jarnigan, Mrs. Chaarles Sisson, Mrs. Robert C. Reid, Mrs. J. Frank Stockdell, Mrs. John Fitten, Mrs. George Dexter, Mrs. Scott Hudson, Mrs. James G. Baird, Mrs. Cleveland Wilcoxson, Mrs. Geddings Tupper, Mrs. James Gardner, of Washington, D. C.

To Mrs. Owens.

Mrs. LeRoy Wynne will entertain at bridge next Wednesday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. William Owens. There will be thirty-six guests.

To Miss Lavigne.

Mrs. Virgil Shepard will entertain at a morning and an afternoon bridge party Wednesday, inviting a number of guests to meet Miss Lavigne, of New Orleans.

Mrs. Lowry's Bridge.

Mrs. J. I. Lowry will entertain at bridge Tuesday afternoon at her home on North Jackson street. There will be thirty-six guests.

To Mrs. Cleghorn.

Mrs. John E. Smith will give two bridge parties next Wednesday, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, in compliment to Mrs. H. C. Cleghorn. Thirty ladies will be entertained on each occasion.

To Mrs. Carr.

Mrs. Glover Elfe will entertain at bridge this afternoon in compliment to Mrs. S. W. Foster's guest, Mrs. Dennis Carr, of Montgomery.

Afternoon Bridge.

Mrs. John L. Mell will entertain at bridge Wednesday afternoon.

Club Party.

At Mrs. A. B. Christopher's bridge party, a delightful affair of yesterday, when she entertained her club and a few others, the club prizes, white and gold china, were won by Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Mark Palmour and Mrs. W. A. Selman, and the guest prizes, a bohemian glass bonbon dish and a silver paper knife, by Mrs. LeRoy Wynne and Mrs. Pope.

Mrs. Charles Wurm assisted in entertaining, and Miss Josiebel Christopher served punch.

Basketball Dance.

The first of the basketball dances at the Atlanta Athletic Club took place last night at the city clubhouse, and there was a large number of club members and their guests to enjoy it.

An interesting contest between the club team and the Marist college team was witnessed with enthusiasm, and afterwards an orchestra provided music for a delightful dance.

It is expected that these occasions, which are quite informal, will continue this season with as great popularity as last year.

To Mrs. Healy.

Mrs. L. A. Hawkins gave a pretty luncheon yesterday at her home on Colquitt avenue in compliment to Mrs. Oscar Ragland's guest, Mrs. F. A. Healy, of Cincinnati.

The eight guests were seated at a table artistic in white and green, the centerpiece of chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Hawkins was gowned in light blue messaline and lace.

Rummage Sale.

The Tallulah Falls school will benefit by the rummage sale to be held tomorrow at 414 Piedmont avenue, Mrs. Dalton Mitchell in charge.

The committee of education, Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, urge that all women interested in the education of the white children of the state, and especially club women, contribute to the success of the sale.

To Miss McElroy.

Miss Charles Owens was the charming young hostess at a dinner and bowling party at the Driving Club last night, twenty-four guests enjoying her hospitality. Miss Cora McElroy, of New York, was her guest of honor.

An old-fashioned turkey dinner was served, and the red of the Thanksgiving cranberries was repeated in an effective scheme of decoration.

The table centerpiece was a plateau of red roses, the candlesticks had red shades and a touch of red was introduced into the candles. The place cards for the men were Brownies in red jackets and for the ladies there were sunbonnet girls in red dresses.

Miss Owens wore a pink broadcloth gown embroidered and a black hat.

S. E. C. Club.

Mrs. George Sharpe entertained the S. E. C. Club delightfully yesterday at the home of Mrs. McWhorter Milner, "Forrest Hill."

The house was attractively decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns, and the luncheon table with covers for ten was artistic in white and gold.

The centerpiece was a Bohemian glass basket of French marigolds, and the service was of white and gold china and Bohemian glass.

Mrs. Kellogg's Bridge.

Mrs. Arthur Kellogg gave a pretty card party yesterday for Mrs. Sidney Perry Cooper, of Henderson, N. C., and Mrs. Inman Sanders, of Corinth, Miss., inviting twenty-four guests to meet them.

The home had an effective decoration of white chrysanthemums and ferns, and the score cards were Thanksgiving turkeys. The prize, a bronze candlestick with a crystal globe, was won by Mrs. Bates Block. The guests of honor were presented framed miniatures.

Mrs. Kellogg wore an embroidered black crepe de chine, trimmed with jet. Mrs. Cooper wore a gold-colored cloth gown trimmed with hand-made lace and an embroidery in gold, and her black hat was trimmed with black ostrich tips.

Mrs. Sanders wore blue voile embroidered in shades of blue and red and a black picture hat.

To Mrs. Marienthal.

One hundred ladies were the guests of Mrs. Isaac Schoen yesterday afternoon when she entertained at bridge tea in compliment to her sister, Mrs. M. S. Marienthal, of Cincinnati. There were several other out-of-town guests, including Mrs. Schaal, of Germany, and Mrs. Victor Frietag, of New York, and the occasion was an elaborate and beautiful one.

The house was decorated with foliage plants and pink and white chrysanthemums, and delicious refreshments were served. Miss Jema Schoen and Miss Edith Weil poured tea.

The bridge prizes were a brass book rack, a silver vanity box, a brass flower basket, a silver picture frame, and silk stockings.

Mrs. Schoen was gowned in lavender messaline and lace, embroidered in crystal, and Mrs. Marienthal wore rose-colored silk embroidered.

Adams-Dorsey.

Judge and Mrs. Samuel Barnard Adams, of Savannah, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Minnie Wynn, to Mr. Cam Dawson Dorsey, of Atlanta, the marriage to take place on the evening of Saturday, December 4, at 9 o'clock at Wesley Monumental church. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 205 Gaston street.

To Mrs. Owens.

Mrs. Bun Wylie will entertain at afternoon tea on Tuesday, November 30, from 4 to 6 in compliment to Mrs. Wm. Owens, a recent bride.

Meetings.

The Alumnae Association of Miss Hanna's school will hold a meeting Friday afternoon at the school, 23 East Cain street.

The Graded Union of Sunday School Teachers will meet today at 3:30 in the assembly room of the Young Women's Christian Association hall. Mr. L. A. Witherspoon will talk on "How to Teach a Junior Class." Everyone who has ever been a mememr of the Union and all interested in Sunday school work are asked to come.

Electa Chapter No. , O. E. S., will hold its regular meting on Friday, November 19, at 7:30 p. m., at the Masonic Temple. Visiting members are cordially welcomed.

The executive board of the Atlanta Woman's club will meet this morning at 10 o'clock at the club rooms.

The woman's Auxiliary of St. Luke's church will hold their monthy meeting this afternoon, November 19, at 3:30 o'clock, in the church home. The ladies of the guild are cordially invited to be present, as matters of importance and interest to both societies, will be discussed.

The King's Daughters and Sons Circle, No. 2, will hold their regular meeting this afternoon at 3 p. m., at Mrs. Melton's, 135 Rawson street. All members expected to be there.

M'KINNEY-BRICKEY.

Blue Ridge, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—At noon Wednesday at the Baptist church occurred the marriage of Mr. Daniel L. Brickey and Miss Naomi McKinney, Rev. Charles L. Bass, pastor of Kirkwood Methodist church, Atlanta, performing the ceremony.

The ushers were Mr. A. E. Thornton, of Etowah, and Mr. E. W. Waldrop, of Blue Ridge. The attendants were Miss Eunice Thaw and Colonel William Butt. Miss Gertrude Wilson was maid of honor, and Mr. J. B. Brickey, of Knoxville, best man.

The bride, who is an unusually handsome young woman of the blonde type, was elegantly gowned in a suit of pearl gray satin and net hand-embroidery, with hat to match. She carried a white Bible with shower bookmark of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid and maid of honor wore pink crepe de chine and net hand-embroidery in gold, hats to match, and carried shower bouquets of pink roses.

The bride as Miss McKinney has been a great social favorite. She is of one of the oldest and most prominent families of north Georgia, being the eldest daughter of Mr. Joseph B. McKinney and a granddaughter of Colonel Mike McKinney.

Mr. Brickey is chief clerk to the master of trains of the Atlanta division of the L. & N. railroad, with headquarters at Etowah, Tenn. He is not only very highly regarded in railroad circles, but esteemed by a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Brickey left at once for an extended trip to Florida.

Corsets? Yes, and When You Think of Corset Comfort, Think La Vida.

No part of a woman's dress is more important than her corset.

What matters the fineness of her gown, the prettiness of its colors, the sweep of its soft folds, if it be not a good fit?

And how in the name of sense can it be a good fit unless its wearer has the right kind of corset and that corset properly and sensibly adjusted to her figure?

Of making many corsets there is no end. But there's none better than La Vida. There's grace for you. And slim length. And willowy suppleness. And shape-holding. And comfort!

But while La Vida has all these things, La Vida must be properly fitted to your figure.

There are enough La Vida models to suit all forms. The study and knowledge of anatomy is one of the heaviest helps in the building of these famous corsets. They're beautifully scientific.

Now, when you get La Vida in the hands of an expert corsetiere who knows exactly what model is best suited to your figure, who sees where she must mold and build, where she must accentuate a curve or eliminate a bit of bulk, who in a word, knows how to fit you properly--then there's corset comfort and correct appearance ahead for you.

The same things may be said of the W. B. Corset. The W. B. Reduso for stout figures has no superior.

We've made our Corset Section a mecca for women who care for their figures. We have the service--the right service. We're daily fitting women who tell us they've never before had just the needed touch in the adapting and putting on of their corsets.

Our fitters have not only the theory but the practical experience to render them absolutely dependable corsetieres.

There are several new models of La Vida and the W. B. Corsets recently in that we'd like to have you see. Prettier garments we've never handled. As to their quality and ability to give you a good figure we are enthusiastic.

La Vida and W. B. models $3 to $12.

JANITOR IS ACCUSED OF FIRING HOSPITAL

Twenty Patients With Broken Limbs Narrowly Escape Cremation.

San Francisco, Cal., November 18.—T. H. Saunders, a discharged janitor of St. Luke's hospital, which was partly destroyed by fire today, was arrested tonight on suspicion of being responsible for the blaze. He resisted arrest, but was overpowered. He refused to make any statement.

Twenty patients, many of them suffering from broken limbs, and utterly helpless, were carried out of the burning structure by the police.

According to the police, Saunders was discharged from his position three days ago, and since then had appeared at the hospital and created disturbances. Policemen were called to remove him from the hospital just before the fire started, but he escaped in the confusion that followed.

Saw Mill Destroyed.

Rome, Ga., November 18.—(Special.) A fire consumed the sawmill of A. L. Broom & Bro. at 11 o'clock last night at Floyd Springs, this county. The fire was discovered by J. A. Chumbley, who resides near the mill and who gave the alarm. Owing to the forest fire which destroyed over a hundred cords of wood here Monday and was fought again until a late hour Tuesday night, the citizens were sound asleep. Just how the fire originated is not known.

BARRETT BACK FROM LONG TOUR

Organized State Division of Union in California.

Eloquently enthusiastic over the revival of prosperity, Charles S. Barrett, national president of the Farmers' Union, reached home yesterday after a month's tour, including Colorado, California, New Mexico, Mexico, Texas and other southwestern points.

Mr. Barrett's primary object was the organization of a state division of the union in California, though he took occasion to make a general inspection of the western branches of the organization.

At Fresno, where the first state convention of the order was held, Mr. Barrett was entertained royally by a host of the wealthiest farmers of the state, who are affiliated with the order.

California Is Booming.

"California," said Mr. Barrett, "is enjoying a fine business in all lines. Money is plentiful, the farmers unusually intelligent and keen for organization. They are quick to catch and employ modern methods. Everywhere I went, in whatever western state, the tale was all the same—that of the prosperous farmer, the farmer newly awakened to his opportunities and his rights and determined to secure them.

"Honestly, I believe the farmer in America is alive today as never in the history of the country, and wherever I went, whether in California, or on my return to the south, there were impressive evidences of the man of the soil abandoning the old haphazard methods for those of the twentieth century business man."

Will Push School.

Mr. Barrett was asked the status of his plan to establish a great central agricultural college with branches all over America.

"I found a mass of correspondence regarding the school awaiting me," he replied. "I will at once take definite steps to bring the matter to a focus. Everywhere I went the members are tremendously enthusiastic in support of the idea."

Mr. Barrett engaged in a bear hunt in Glenwood Springs, Colo., at the same spot made memorable by former President Roosevelt.

"The report that I bagged two bears," declared Mr. Barrett, "is exaggerated. I only helped to eat them."

We are giving away handsome presents every day after each sale. Chas. M. May, 9 Peachtree St.

LUCAS IS FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER

He Had Duel With J. Hodges, Merchant of Oliver.

Sylvania, Ga., November 18.—Rufus Lucas, survivor in a fatal duel with J. W. Hodges, a merchant of Oliver, this county, in the latter's store several months ago, was today found guilty of murder with a recommendation to the mercy of the court. This verdict carries with it the sentence of life imprisonment. Lucas fought Hodges because the latter, he claimed, had circulated derogatory statements about him. In the battle, Lucas was badly wounded.

NEGRO CONVICT KILLED IN CAMP AT MT. VERNON

Webb Ran Amuck, Attacking Another Convict, and Hurled Hammer at Guard.

Mt. Vernon, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—Webb McMillan, a negro convict who attempted to run amuck among other convicts and the guards here today, was shot and killed by Guard Davis.

Webb was recently sent up for ten years for assault with intent to murder.

He was at work with another negro, Arthur Gray, engaged in making tables, and without warning struck his companion on the head with a hammer. Guard Alvin Calhoun fired over Webb's head in an attempt to make him stop, but the negro turned and hurled a hammer at him. At this juncture Guard Davis fired. The coroner's jury is now investigating the killing.

PRISON LIFE TELLING ON SHIPP AND FRIENDS

They Are Beginning to Feel Their Confinement Keenly.

Washington, November 18.—Prison life is beginning to show its marks on the six men in the district jail here for contempt of the supreme court of the United States. Captain Joseph F. Shipp, the former sheriff at Chattanooga, is beginning to feel his confinement keenly. In fact, Jeremiah Gibson, the jailer, known to all in the jail now as "Uncle Jerry," is the most composed man of the six.

Letters and telegrams continue to come in from Hamilton county, most of them addressed to Shipp, and many of them predicting his re-election to the office of sheriff. Shipp, himself, says he is taking no active part in such a movement, and is entirely in the hands of his friends.

In a bright, sunny room on the top floor of the old jail which has held many famous prisoners, the six men are going through the same mode of life and eating the same fare as 500 others within the walls. Their meals are served to them there and they do not mingle with the other prisoners.

Davidson Not to Head S. A. L.

New York, November 18.—It was officially denied today that A. J. Davidson, former president of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad has been selected as head of the Seaboard Air Line railroad company.

SOCIETY

To Mrs. Holmes.

Twenty-four ladies spent a delightful morning yesterday as the guests of Mrs. Charles A. Conklin, when she entertained at bridge luncheon. They were invited to meet Mrs. George Holmes, of Jacksonville, who is visiting Mrs. Moragne Fleming, and Mrs. Holmes was charming in gray, her gown of gun metal crepe meteor worn with a velvet toque the same color, trimmed with a Paradise feather.

Mrs. Conklin wore an elegant toilet of black lace.

Yellow chrysanthemums with the house ferns made an effective decoration in the reception rooms, where the game was played, and the luncheon, served at the small tables, was a delicious one.

Turkeys mounted on the score cards afforded a suggestion of Thanksgiving and the prizes were an Irish lace stock and jabot and a spangled tulle scarf. They were won by Mrs. Robert F. Shedden and Mrs. John D. Little.

Mrs. Kiser's Luncheon.

Mrs. John Kiser's luncheon was a charming affair of yesterday, the party numbering twelve.

The table centerpiece was a tall vase of American Beauty roses in full bloom, and at each corner were cut glass baskets of American Beauty buds. The place cards were gold lettered ribbons, tying each a rosebud, and rose-colored shades were used in the silver candlesticks. The bonbons were cherries, and the rose color was continued in other details.

Mrs. Kiser was gowned in blue cloth, embroidered and trimmed with Irish lace.

Bridge Club.

A bright occasion last night was the bridge club meeting with Miss Nellie Kiser Stewart, the club including Misses Cobbie Vaughn, Aimee Hunnicutt, Suzanne Spalding, Nellie Kiser Stewart, Messrs. David Kirkland, Ben Tye, Ray Werner and Harry Harman, Jr.

They meet every other Thursday night, and Miss Stewart entertained them last night delightfully.

The reception rooms had an attractive decoration of yellow and white chrysanthemums, and delicious refreshments were served after the game.

Miss Stewart was gowned in pink satin embroidered in silver.

Social Items.

Mrs. James McKeldin will entertain the Young Matrons' Bridge Club this morning, luncheon following the game.

James J. Hill in Control.

Denver, Col., November 18.—Stockholders of both the Colorado Southern and the Colorado Midland railroads elected directors here today. The result showed James J. Hill to be still the controlling factor in the former road, while the Goulds appear to be dominant among the Midland directors. The latter result, it is thought, will preclude a possibility of the Burlington system using the Midland as a link in a new trans-continental line.

Denver Chinamen in Terror.

Denver, Col., November 18.—Denver's Chinatown is in terror today, as the result of warning received from San Francisco that a band of thirty hatchet men is en route to Denver to exterminate members of Yee Tong, of whom there are nearly a hundred here. This action is the result of the long feud that is now raging in San Francisco between the Yee Tong and the On Yick Tong.

Constipation

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you, I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity. B. F. Fisher, Roanoke, Ill.

COURT GRANTS STAY TO THE LABOR LEADERS

Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison Need Not Hurry to Washington.

Washington, November 18.—The court of appeals of the District of Columbia, upon request of counsel for the labor leaders, today granted a stay until November 29 of the issuance of the mandate sending President Gompers, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, to jail for contempt of court of the District of Columbia in the Buck's Stove and Range case.

Chief Justice Shepard stated that if the labor leaders had, by November 29, the day the supreme court of the United States reconvenes, filed in that court a petition for certiorari, on application, a further stay of the mandate would be granted, pending the determination of the higher tribunal of the application.

As a result of this action, Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison need not hasten to Washington, as it will not be necessary for them to surrender under their bonds, nor will they have to resort to habeas corpus proceedings.

We are giving away handsome presents every day after each sale. Chas. M. May, 9 Peachtree St.

VETS PAY TRIBUTE TO JEFFERSON DAVIS

March Past Spot Where He Took the Oath of Office.

Montgomery, Ala., November 18.—More than 1,500 Alabama veterans of the Lost Cause today marched past the place where Jefferson Davis stood to receive the oath of office as the only president of the confederate states. It is marked by a brass star on the front portico of the capitol.

They shouted their enthusiasm until it was almost a continuous noise, with the reports of the thirteen guns fired from the lawn nearby. Later on they marched past the old home of Mr. Davis. The parade is incident to the state reunion.

Lodge Rooms Closed.

Knoxville, Tenn., November 18.—The lodge rooms, with buffet attachments, of Nest No. 1, Order of Owls, and Nest No. 1, Order of Owls, of this city, have been closed and contents seized under state distress warrants to collect county and state revenue for alleged selling of whisky. Complete saloon outfits were found. Seizures were made by order of R. L. Cates, state's district attorney.

COL. ASTOR'S YACHT IS REPORTED SAFE

Believed That Nourmahal Is Anchored Where Christopher Columbus Landed.

New York, November 18.—Some assurance that Colonel John Jacob Astor's yacht Nourmahal, which has been missing in West Indian waters for ten days, safely outrode the recent hurricane, was brought here today by Captain J. Durie, of the steamship Annetta, which arrived with fruit from Jamaican ports. Captain Durie reported that on November 14 he sighted a boat which he believed to be the Nourmahal, at anchor at Hawk's Nest, San Salvador, the island at which Columbus landed in 1492.

Colonel Astor's friends here doubt that the yacht seen by Captain Durie was the Nourmahal, as San Salvador is nearly 200 miles north of the region where Colonel Astor planned to cruise.

The storm had lost its hurricane intensity on Sunday when the fruiter passed San Salvador, but heavy weather still prevailed.

'Uncle Henry' Chamblee Dead.

Anniston, Ala., November 18.—"Uncle Henry" Chamblee, propably the oldest negro in the state, died here today at the age of 114 years.

A REMARKABLE CATARRH CURE.

Eclipse Catarrh Cure Has Brought Instant Relief to Many Chronic Sufferers.

A book of wonderful testimonials has recently been issued, which clearly proves that the Eclipse Catarrh Cure is proving to be the most effective remedy yet discovered for that offensive disease from which so many suffer.

Eclipse Catarrh Cure is a vegetable preparation that is especially pleasing in its curative effects upon the delicate membranes lining the air passages, and seems to give permanent relief in the most stubborn cases of catarrh, no matter how long you have suffered with it.

R. A. Wear, Ozona, Fla., writes: "Enclosed find $1.00 for another package of Total Eclipse Catarrh Cure. Have used the package you sent me three weeks ago four times daily, and found it of greater benefit than any other treatment I have used, and I have taken many.

"A catarrhal discharge from the right ear, which had continued uninterrupted for eight months in spite of medical treatment, stopped after a few days' use of Total Eclipse Catarrh Cure, and has not returned.

"The hearing is also much improved. I feel so much benefited that I shall continue the treatment as long as may be necessary."

In order that every one suffering with Catarrh may have an opportunity of testing to their entire satisfaction the real merits of Eclipse Catarrh Cure, we offer a week's treatment for 25 cents in stamps.

The regular package or $1.00 size will be sent to any address upon receipt of price. Send in your order today. ECLIPSE MEDICINE AND MANUFACTURING CO., Atlanta, Ga.

GREAT WORK DONE BY CLUB WOMEN

Cheering Reports by District Vice Presidents.

Story of Library Development in Georgia as Directed by Federated Club Committee. Much Done for Student Aid. Many Scholarships Secured.

By Isma Dooly.

Elberton, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—The second day's session of the State Federation of Women's Clubs presented full programs, hinging chiefly and comprehensively on education, health, the physical examination of school children, child hygiene, care in protection of contagious diseases and the play-ground movement in America.

So well organized are the members of this active body of Georgia women, the program is put through with little interruption, except for the applause frequently greeting reports indicating the far-reaching work of the various departments of the federation work and its inspirational qualities.

Reports From the Districts.

The morning session was opened with reports by the district vice presidents, those who brought together in closer touch the federated clubs of their districts.

The vice presidents reporting were Miss Rosa Woodberry, Mrs. W. L. Hines, Mrs. Walter Grace, Miss Nichols Petterson, Mrs. Oscar Peeples, Mrs. Bolling Jones, Miss Anna Benning, Miss Louise Nees.

The banner vice president proved to be Mrs. Petterson, who organized and brought into the club twenty-five clubs in three years.

Mrs. McCabe's Report.

Mrs. McCabe, chairman of the state library committee, in her report told a most interesting story of library development in Georgia, as directed through the federated club committee.

The work is accomplished through the loan libraries for the use of clubs; gifts to schools in the way of reading matter; text-books for rural and mountain schools; the last school fully equipped in text-books, and appropriate books for outside reading, being the Industrial school as Tallulah Falls. Industrial clubs and teachers in the rural schools were requested to apply to Mrs. McCabe, 527 Peachtree street, Atlanta, for the books they need.

The report of the marvelous work being accomplished by Georgia club women along educational lines, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Emory Park, was read by Mrs. John K. Ottley, in the absence of Mrs. Park, and brought forth enthusiastic applause. This report will be fully presented on the woman's page of The Constitution, and appears in part in one of the most interesting chapters in the annual report recently published by the Conference of Education in the South.

Mrs. Nellie Peters Black spoke on the kindergarten work in Georgia.

Student Aid and Scholarship.

Mrs. H. B. Wey, chairman of the student aid committee, made a stirring appeal for the student aid fund, the interest of which is loaned to young women for tuition in schools they desire to attend. The report proved the efficacy of the work, and was followed by the report of Mrs. Willet on scholarships. Illustrating the scholarships and the loan funds, Mrs. Willet stated:

"Mr. W. S. Witham gave to the LaGrange college $10,000, about ten years ago. That fund has educated 113 girls, and has increased to $21,000. He has also given $5,000 to the Reinhart college, a mountain industrial school at Waleska. He has offered to donate to the federation three scholarships at Reinhart, and from the loan to add $25 a year for each of the pupils, provided they furnish like amounts. We have one other industrial scholarship, at Piedmont college, Demorest. Scholarships in these industrial schools are just what many of our applicants most need, as a large percentage of them are not sufficiently advanced to enter the regular colleges, or able to pay the expenses there."

Some of the Scholarships.

Among the scholarships obtained by Mrs. Willet are:

Agnes Scott college, Decatur; president, F. H. Gaines.

Cox college, College Park; president, J. W. Gaines.

Brenau college, Gainesville; president, A. W. VanHoose.

Lucy Cobb institute, Athens; principals, Misses Gerdine and Brumby.

LaGrange Female college, LaGrange; president, Rufus W. Smith.

Miss Woodberry's Preparatory School for Girls, Atlanta; principal, Miss Rosa Woodberry.

Young's Female college, Thomasville; president, James B. Fogartie.

The Atlanta Normal Kindergarten school, Atlanta; principal, Miss Willette Allen.

Andrew Female college, Cuthbert; president, J. W. Malone.

Atlanta Bible school, Homer L. Hunt, secretary, one literary scholarship, one Bible scholarship.

Florence university, Florence, Ala.; president, M. M. Hatton.

Shorter college, Rome, Ga.; president, T. J. Simmons.

Wesleyan college, Macon; president, Dr. W. N. Ainsworth.

Bessie Tift college, Forsyth; president, C. H. S. Jackson.

Piedmont college, Demorest, Ga.

Atlanta Woman's Club scholarships: Washington seminary, Atlanta, president, L. D. Scott; Brenau college, Gainesville, one yearly literary scholarship, given by Phi Mu Gamma Society, Gamma chapter.

The Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session reports of individual clubs and the chairmen of standing committees were continued. Mrs. J. O. Winn, of Atlanta, reported on art, and Mrs. W. B. Price-Smith, of Atlanta, reported sixteen business scholarships coming under her committee. Mrs. George Hinman reported on music. No report read at the convention gave more impression of good work than that of Mrs. Walter B. Hill, of Athens, on "School Improvement."

Directors of the five model industrial rural schools, in which has centered the best effort of the club women for eight years—the schools operated under their auspices—made reports of the work as follows: Danielsville, Poplar Springs school, Mrs. Eugene B. Heard; Watters district, Mrs. J. Lindsay Johnson; Cass Station, Mrs. M. L. Johnson; Marion, Smith, Mrs. W. P. Pattillo; Tallulah Falls, Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb.

At 1 o'clock the Research Club of Elberton entertained the members of the convention at an elegant luncheon.

The evening program was brilliant, and included an address by Mrs. Edward T. Brown, her theme being, "Woman and Her Machine," and an address by Miss Mildred Rutherford, her theme, "In Union There Is Strength." The subject of "Civic improvement" was discussed by Mrs. John Dozier, of Columbus, Ga.

"Some Products of Woman's Machine" was the subject of a strong address by Mrs. J. Lindsay Johnson, of Rome, Ga.

Physical Examination of Children.

The determination of the club women of Georgia to work for a state system for the physical examination of school children was the voice of the afternoon session of the Georgia Club Women in Elberton today.

Mrs. Warren Boyd, discussing the physical examination of school children, gave her experience in visiting the systems employed in New York and other cities.

A committee of five was appointed from the federation over the state on child hygiene, and the federation also indorsed the work of the visiting nurses in reporting the births of children and giving advice to mothers as to their care.

From the standpoint of the teacher, Miss Laura M. Smith, principal of the elementary school of the State Normal at Athens, talked ably of child hygiene.

Mrs. J. K. Ottley described the method being pursued in Atlanta on the physical examination of school children, and Mrs. Nellie Peters Black urged the formation throughout the state of associations for the fight against tuberculosis, and told the mode of operation in Atlanta for both races.

As an integral part of the great health movement, Mrs. Eugene Heard talked of the playground movement in America.

For the Educational Fund.

A thousand dollars was added to the fund for education—$800 to go to the Industrial school at Tallulah Falls.

A bright incident of the evening session was the report made by Miss Annette Tiller, president of the Phi Gamma Sororiety, who expressed her desire to cooperate with the federation in their work by donating from her sororiety chapter a scholarship at Brenau college.

Tomorrow morning the nominating committee will report, and the annual election of officers will take place. The report has not been made by the committee, but it is generally understood that the officers will be: President, Mrs. Hugh Willet; vice president, Mrs. H. C. White, of Athens; second vice president, Mrs. J. M. Wester, of Elberton.

Headache 10 Years

You Can Be Cured

If you are willing to learn by the experience of others, you can be cured of your womanly troubles, just as Mrs. Luther Guthrie of Beaufort, N. C. was. Her husband writes:

"My wife suffered with the headache for ten (10) years and nothing did her any good.

"I have spent three hundred dollars for doctors' bills but one bottle of Cardui has done her more good than everything else she took.

"If she were to be back where she was six months ago, and I could not get a bottle of Cardui except by paying $500 for it, I would pay it.

"My wife has now taken two bottles of Cardui and it has already done her two thousand dollars worth of good. Cardui is the only medicine I can trust. I don't think I can praise it half as much as it is worth."

If you want confirmation, write Mr. Guthrie yourself. He will tell you that these are facts.

Lady! If you are weak, or sick, do not delay. Try Cardui today. Some people read ads many times, before deciding to buy. Don't do that with Cardui. Drop in at the drug store today and get a bottle.

Cardui is a gentle tonic that will gently help you back to health and strength.

Purely vegetable, harmless, always reliable. Try it.

HARPER'S BAZAR

Christmas Number

Now Ready For You

The Christmas number of Harper's Bazar will be of special personal interest to every American woman for these reasons:

First -- Because, beginning with this number, the Bazar goes into its new, greatly enlarged, greatly improved form.

Second -- Because Harper's Bazar is edited and published on the theory that a great, successful magazine for American women must be edited up to them, not down to them.

Third -- Because the Bazar is indispensable to every American woman with ambition to make the most of life for herself and for her family. It "sets the fashion." It is accepted as the final American authority on questions of good form and entertainment. It "stands for" rational economy, self development, Woman in the home, and Woman outside of the home.

As a sample of what the Bazar will offer in 1910, here are a few of the special features which will appear in the Christmas Bazar:

COLORED METHODISTS

Meet in Conference at Elberton.

Elberton, Ga., November 18.—(Special.)—The forty-sixth annual session of the Georgia Conference of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America opened here this morning in St. Mary's C. M. E. church, of which Rev. T. C. Black is pastor. Bishop L. H. Holsey, the senior bishop of this connection presided.

The organization was as follows: Rev. A. F. Bailey, secretary; Revs. Henderson and J. H. Wiggins, assistants; Revs. C. L. Bonner, T. C. Black and E. L. Barnes, committee on public worship. After the organization a number of visitors were introduced, among whom were the following, who made short addresses: Rev. J. H. Reagan, of the South Georgia Conference; Rev. G. E. Nolley, of the Middle Georgia Conference; Dr. H. Deb. Doyle, of Texas; Rev. J. C. Colclough and the wife of the secretary of the Epworth League department of the church.

DRANK POISON AND DIED IN HER HUSBAND'S ARMS

Husband Had Refused to Withdraw His Suit for Divorce.

Wabash, Ind., November 18.—Joseph Bidwell and his wife, against whom he had filed suit for divorce, met today at the home of a relative and, failing to reach an agreement to withdraw the suit, Mrs. Bidwell drank a bottle of carbolic asid, threw herself in her husband's arms, and died in a few moments.

She had drawn the bottle from her dress with one hand, while she had bade farewell to her husband with the other.

Washington, November 18.—The comptroller of currency today issued a call for the condition of national bank at the close of business November 19, 1909.

The Fatherless Boy

THE BOY WHO IS LEFT fatherless generally has to work for his living and sometimes must support the other members of the family. Instead of receiving a liberal education, he is thrown out into the world to deliver packages, or run errands, perhaps at the very age his character is being molded for life.

An endowment policy with the Empire Life provides an education for your son and protects all members of the family from want. The Empire Life at the end of a specified time will pay your son the amount of your policy. In case of your death he will receive the full amount at once.

The Empire Life offers safe, sound; insurance protection. Its contracts are liberal and without a flaw. Back of the Company are men of integrity and sound business ideas. The Empire Life is a safe, and mutual insurance company which lives up to its contracts and retains its money in Georgia.

Cold Weather Stopps Strike.

Spokane, Wash., November 18.—Cold weather quickly put an end to the "strike" of the Industrial Workers of the World, imprisoned for violation of the city ordinance against street oratory. All the men under guard began carrying and sawing wood today. No further attempts at street speaking are made.

Woe Caused by Flood.

Cape Haytien, November 18.—According to advices from Monte Cristo, Santo Domingo, the Yaqui river has overflowed its banks and inundated practically the entire town. The water in some places rose 15 feet. The inhabitants were forced to take refuge on the roofs of their houses. Terrible misery prevails, and immediate assistance is necessary.

ELEVENS REST ON EVE OF GAME

Georgia and Tech Will Not Practice Today.

Advance Sale of Seats Points to the Largest Crowd Ever. Jackets Rule as Favorites, But Georgia Will Be in Fight All the Way.

Today will be a day of rest in the camps of both Georgia and Tech. The last hard scrimmage work was held yesterday. The practice continued until it became too dark to follow the ball and it was not until nature forced them to it that the relentless coaches would let their tired charges rest up from the gruelling practice.

This is a great occasion in football circles in Atlanta, this Georgia-Tech game. It is to the football fans of this city what the Yale-Harvard game is to those in the east. Interest centers on this event and its outcome, and it is the most talked-of sporting event on the calendar at the present time.

The contest is going to be a fierce one despite the fact that Tech appears to have all the edge on Georgia. The Red and Black team has been holding secret practice for the past few days and are said to have some plays up their sleeves that will surprise the Jackets and even their own followers, while their team play is said to have improved wonderfully.

Every man on both teams is in perfect physical condition. Both elevens when they trot out on the field, will do so with their elevens intact and in fine working order. It is going to be a game to the last ditch, a fight all the way, a battle of warriors who will fight as if their life depended upon it.

But a view of the crowd is going to be worth the price of admission. Every supporter of Georgia, both alumni and friends, and of Tech also will be on hand, added to these will be the regular following of football fans in the city, the students and bands of both schools and many others who have not before attended a football game this year.

A game between these two elevens is always frought with excitement. Plenty of rooting is dispensed on both sides. The stands will be flooded with color, the red and black of Georgia intermingling with the gold and white of Tech. This color scheme will make the massive stands, which are sure to be filled, a solid mass of color.

The advance sale of tickets points to the biggest crowd of several seasons. Already numerous calls have been made for the tickets. The prices for the game are as follows: Bleachers, 50 cents; grand stand and side lines, $1.00; smoker, $1.25; boxes, $1.50.

The officials selected for the game, assure the patrons that that end of it will be well taken care of. Two better men could not have been selected for the job. They are George Butler, referee and Professor Riggs, umpire.

These two gentlemen have been in charge of games here in the past and have always given satisfaction to both sides. They are fair, active and prompt and make the game hurry along without any rows prevailing on either sides. The two elevens are to be commended on the fact that they have secured such competent men for the game

But what of the time of halves? No mention has been made of this. Truly it is ideal football weather and the crowd should have a full game, two 35-minute halves. There is but one more game after this and the public should have what they are demanding, and something that they have not had before, a full game.

The Jackets should win, as said before. They will have the speed and the weight on Georgia. On experience, it is about an even break, both teams having four old men back in the line-up, but the superior weight of the Jackets will tell.

As a guess—remember now, this is only a guess—to make a definite prediction on the outcome is too risky a proposition, but the Jackets should win by between 20 and 30 points. That's just a guess, though, and with the hard work that Georgia has been putting in, they may upset that calculation entirely. Still it looks like a good guess at that.

The two teams will probably line-up about as follows:

Georgia.	Position.	Tech.
Parrish	L. E.	Artley or Goree
Franklin	L. T.	McDowell
Cummings or W. Lucas.	L. G.	Spalding
L. Lucas	C.	Burt
Peacock	R. G.	Coleman
Davis	R. T.	Patterson
Hatcher	R. E.	Jenkins
Northcutt	Q. B.	Wilson
Cox or Maddox	L. H. B.	Robertson
Robeson or Napier.	R. H. B.	Davis
Bostwick (Capt.)	F. B.	Hill

COMMODORES WORKING WITH MIGHT AND MAIN

Game With Washington on Saturday Will Tax Their Full Strength.

Nashville, Tenn., November 18.—(Special.)—With the Sewanee game but a week off, the Commodores are up against a tough proposition for two reasons. First, they will have to play the strong Washington university team of St. Louis at St. Louis on Saturday, and then they have suffered the loss of Metzger, their star full back.

But Vanderbilt has that "never say die" spirit prevalent in its ranks, and as Coach McGugin never built up one of his machines around one man, he will probably be able to, in a measure, make up for Metzger's loss.

But the Washington game is causing some concern in the Commodores' ranks. Last year, Vanderbilt defeated them, 28 to 0. This year, the St. Louis eleven is much stronger and in view of the pains that must be taken by the Commodores not to get crippled in this game, Washington will make them hustle every inch of the way, and some say that Vanderbilt is in for a beating.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUNS TAKEN UP BY MARIST

Cross country running, generally pointed out as the most neglected of all American sports and one of the best, will be formally introduced at Marist college by Physical Director Joe Bean, of the institution, at an early date.

Mr. Bean has great faith in running as a means of strengthening the body and muscles. In substantiation of his claims he points out the fact that Jeffries, Johnson, Battling Nelson, the durable Dane, and all noteworthy pugilists and other notables of the sporting fraternity seek out the running game as a method of training.

Mr. Bean, carefully analyzing its merits, shows that running exercises the entire body and thus best develops the muscles. The arms are exercised by the continual swinging, while the body receives its benefits from the many contortions it works into.

A large squad is working out daily at Marist. Later Mr. Bean hopes to have a still greater number of candidates trying for places on the relay teams or as sprinters.

Mr. Bean hopes to arrange a number of contests with other prep schools of the city.

In the meantime the boys will continue to practice in an effort to land a place on some team.

ALABAMA-TULANE GAME WILL BE A PIPPIN

New Orleans, November 18.—(Special.)—The Alabama-Tulane game, scheduled for the gridiron here Saturday, promises to be one of the best contests that has been seen on a local gridiron in many a season.

Alabama is the proud possessor of a clean record this year, but so is Tulane. Alabama, though, has not been scored upon by any team and she hopes to keep her record unsullied against Tulane.

Two more evenly matched teams could not be found anywhere, and as far as the dope is concerned, it looks like the game will result in a tie score, though with the new style of play, Alabama may be able to slip something across.

BILLY SMITH LEAVES FOR HIS BUFFALO HOME

Manager Billy Smith, of the Buffalo team, in the Eastern League, but who has been in Atlanta for the past several weeks, left for Buffalo yesterday to take up his residence in that city from now on.

While regretting that he will have to sever his connection with Atlanta, Billy's many friends here wish him the greatest success in his new field and will pull for Buffalo to win the pennant next year.

STONE MOUNTAIN TEAM MEETS TECH FRESHMEN

Preliminary to Georgia-Tech Contest Will Be a Corker Sure.

As a preliminary to the Georgia-Tech battle Saturday, the Tech freshmen will have the time of their young lives keeping the Stone Mountain bunch away from their goal line.

This is a strange coincidence. Two teams coached by Frank Dobson, who was a former Tech coach, will give battle to Tech teams on the same day at Ponce de Leon. Dobson was at Stone Mountain before he went to Georgia.

On the dope, the freshmen should win the game handily. With their full line-up in the field, the freshmen are a hard team for any one to beat. They have defeated every prep school team in the state with the exception of Stone Mountain and Gordon, and the latter they have not played.

Stone Mountain will probably uncork some fast new football when they hit here, having been coached by Dobson, and the freshies will have to keep their eyes open all the time.

GIVE GOLD MEDAL TO GEORGE CLARK

For His Bravery in Avoiding Collision in Six-Hour Auto Race.

San Antonio, Texas, November 18.—A gold medal will be given by the San Antonio Automobile Club to George Clark for his bravery in running his car over a 12-foot embankment to avoid a collision with Tobin deHymel in yesterday's six-hour race.

The fund for the medal is already being raised. Clark's act will also be brought to the attention of the Carnegie hero fund commission for recognition. deHymel was leading Clark by a few yards in yesterday's race when the fly wheel tore off his machine and he came almost to a dead stop. It was either a collision fatal to deHymel or over the embankment for Clark. He chose the embankment, flying clear over it and landing in the field beyond. Clark was not hurt, but his car was wrecked.

Don't fail to get your present today after the sale. Chas. M. May, 9 Peachtree St.

BOYS' HIGH SCHOOL PLAYS TECH HIGH

The football championship between the High School elevens of Atlanta will be settled on the gridiron today, when the Boys' High School and the Tech High School fight it out.

No apparent advantage can be claimed by either eleven and the final score will probably see but little difference between the two elevens. A guess on the outcome is too close to take a chance on.

BIG ELEVENS REST BEFORE CONFLICT

Cambridge, Mass., November 18.—The rival football teams of Harvard and Yale rested quietly tonight some miles from the scene of next Saturday's encounter.

Within the walls of the stadium are seats for 38,000 persons, many of whom are already crowding into Boston.

The custom of sending the two teams into comparative seclusion forty-eight hours before the game, so that the players may not have their nerves affected by the rush and turmoil of the gathering throngs, was pursued today. The Harvard eleven is at the Norfolk Hunt Club at Medfield, while the Yale team sojourns a couple of days at the Woodland Park hotel at Auburndale.

Both teams will run through formations tomorrow. The Harvard team, led by Captain Fish, was given an enthusiastic send-off from college this afternoon.

There were but few limpers. Even Captain Fish, who received a hard blow in the contest last Saturday, probably will be in the line-up of Saturday.

Yale's right end position tonight is in doubt. Savage will probably start in that place if Vaughn does not recover from the injuries received in the princeton game.

Ya still held the favorite position in the betting today, although the odds which earlier in the month stood at 5 to 3, have been scaled to 5 to 4.

"HURRY UP" YOST'S MEN READY FOR MINNESOTA

Minneapolis, Minn., November 18.—Coach Yost and the Michigan football team arrived here this afternoon from Ann Arbor for their game with Minnesota Saturday. The Wolverines were met at the depot by Michigan alumni and members of the Minnesota board of athletic control, who escorted them to the Plaza hotel. Later, the team went to the Hippodrome building, midway between Minneapolis and St. Paul, where the men were given a light work-out.

Coach Yost said he had not yet decided on the line-up for the game.

Captain McGovern, the Minnesota quarter back, probably will play Saturday. McGovern broke his collarbone during the Chicago game, but the bandage was removed yesterday. Minnesota is favorite, with the odds 10 to 7.

MARIST'S STRONG FIVE PUSHES A. A. C. TEAM

The Marist college basketball five sprung a surprise and considerable of a scare on the Atlanta Athletic Club team last night when they made the club men go to a 26 to 23 score to beat them.

Marist showed great form. They showed a team that was in perfect physical condition, and this had a lot to do with the result. They showed good team play, too, but in this respect they were outclassed by the club men. Their superior condition, however, served to make the score as close as it was.

It was a good game, hard fought and cleanly played. The score at the end of the first half was Atlanta Athletic Club, 18; Marist, 16. A dance was held after the game.

NO DECISION IN MAIN BOUT

Though Howard Had Advantage on Sentell All the Way.

No decision was awarded in the main bout of the evening at the Southern Athletic Club last night in the ten-round battle between Joe Howard, of Brooklyn, and Jack Sentell, of Omaha, after one of the prettiest exhibitions seen in a local ring.

But to the spectators and the newspaper men, Howard had all the better of it. He seemed to play with his man all throughout. He cut loose at times, and when he did, he tore Sentell to ribbons. Had he followed up his advantages, he would have made short work of it.

Sentell shows the effetcs of the hard beating he received, while Howard has apparently not a scratch on him. Sentel, however, fought a game bout, and it cannot be said that he quit. He stuck to his post, although he saw that he was a beaten man from the jump.

The preliminary of the evening, the scheduled ten-round go between Mike Saul (nockemoffski) and Greek Eddie Kelly, did not last but two rounds, but while it did last it was the cleanest, fiercest scrap ever seen in a local ring. The boys went at it hammer and tongs, both landing telling wallops.

Kely had just brought blood to Knockemoffski's jaw by a wicked left when the latter retaliated with as clean a left-hand swing for a knockout to the jaw that has ever been landed.

The next bouts at the club will be on Thursday next. The principals for the main bout have not yet been decided upon, but will be announced today.

THEATERS

At the Grand.

Tonight and Saturday, at the Grand, they will try to find a husband for captivating Florence Gear, who portrays the leading character in the merry musical comedy, "Fluffy Ruffles." Theatergoers will remember the peck of trouble this accomplished comedienne got into last season because of her many husbands in "Marrying Mary."

She seems destined to teach the world new tricks in the matrimonial game. In "Fluffy Ruffles" she is again provided with half a dozen suitors, and as before this embarrassment is aggravated by all kinds of unprecedented calamities. "Fluffy Ruffles" is no sooner out of one scrape than another overtakes her. New complications arise with every move she makes.

Adelaide Thurston.

The management of the Grand announces the engagement of Miss Adelaide Thurston in "Contrary Mary" for Monday and Tuesday next. The play is by Edith Ellis, and is said to be a companion play to "The Little Minister," in which Miss Thurston appeared in the role of Lady Babbie. Miss Thurston, who is making her annual tour through the south, has for years been one of the best-known comediennes on the American stage, and has "arrived" legitimately after years of painstaking study and experience in the portrayal of a wide range of stage creations, aided always by native genius.

At the Lyric.

"In Africa," by Aaron Hoffman, the new comedy, with the popular comedians, Yorke and Adams, will be the next offering at the Lyric. "In Africa" is one hodge-podge of clean-cut and wholesome mirth. It is a show that will create an impression anywhere because of the fact that it is built on original and unique lines, and contains sixteen catchy musical numbers especially written and compiled for the production.

At the Orpheum.

It's cold outside, but it's comfortable at the Orpheum. Moreover, it's a good place to be any time, and particularly this week, where Silbon's trained cats, the Three Rubes, the Fitzgibbon-McCoy Trio of fun-makers, Helen Gretrex, whistling beauty and beautiful whistler, Nelson and Otto, the comedienne and the pianiste, Monroe and Mack, the black-face wonders, and several other acts of merit are holding forth. Next week, Otis Harlan—everybody remembers him—will be "among those present," and the week after that comes Lady Betty, the monkey actress.

To Destroy Dangerous Derelict

Washington, November 18.—To destroy a dangerous derelict, the revenue cutter Yamacraw, with headquarters at Savannah, Ga., was ordered today to proceed immediately to Jupiter Inlet, Florida. The derelict was reported to be out one mile off Jupiter Inlet, on the east coast of Florida, and is a danger to obstruction to navigation.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

EDWIN P. ANSLEY.

HERE ARE TWO BEAUTIFUL WEST END HOMES WHICH ARE CERTAIN TO PROVE MOST ATTRACTIVE FOR THE PURCHASER WHO IS LOOKING FOR EITHER A HANDSOME RESIDENCE OR A PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.

WE have for sale two fine residences at 196 and 200 Lee street, between Oak and Gordon streets, in one of the prettiest and most exclusive sections of West End.

These homes are each two-story and 8 rooms, and are located on fine lots running back 230 feet to an alley in the rear.

While they include all of the modern city conveniences, they also enjoy many natural advantages which must be seen to be appreciated.

They are also surrounded with all of the conveniences of street cars, schools, churches and all those other privileges that mean so much to every member of the family in the ideal home.

The price of these homes is $6,500 each, and the terms are also most attractive. You can purchase either place by assuming a five year loan of $3,000 at 6 per cent, pay $1,000 cash and the balance in monthly payments of $50 each.

Incidentally, if you have any real estate bargains ranging in price from $1,500 to $3,000, we will be glad to have you place them with us for quick sale. We have a large number of waiting customers who are anxious to invest in just this kind of property.

BIG OPPORTUNITIES in the New Business Center.

PEACHTREE STREET, out to Ponce de Leon avenue, is the business center of the big north side development. Right in the center, near Baker street, we have the four biggest money-making investments in Atlanta. Here they are:

No. 1—Has 60 feet front on Peachtree and a fine depth; 3 stores, with 2-story apartments above; will make the finest rent property in Atlanta. It will sell for $1,000 per foot in two years. Part cash.

No. 2—Has 63 feet front on Peachtree, with a fine depth. Finest rent-bearing property to be had, improved with stores and apartments. Part cash. This property will double in two years.

No. 3—Has 52 feet front on Peachtree. Fine depth. Two stores, with apartments above; 2 to 4 stories high. Part cash. It will bring $40,000 in 2 years.

No. 4—Is the cream of all Atlanta investment property. It is a big square of 150 feet front on Peachtree street, by nearly 200 deep. It will take $1,000 per front foot to buy it one year from today, and $1,250 per foot to buy it 2 years from today. Part cash. There is $50,000 profit in this place in 12 months to the purchaser who gets it at the price we've got. When sold this time, such a good investment piece as this will be off the market for a generation.

Fine Chance for Big Money.

The panic is over. The tide is rising fast. You'll have to be quick. Three acreage pieces for big money in subdivision not selling. Here they are:

No. 1—300 feet square with four streets around it, close in on the west side, for only $3,750. This will pay 200 to 300 per cent.

No. 2—9-acre piece, near Fourteenth and State streets, for only $7,800. This will cut into $20,000 worth of lots.

No. 3—10-acre piece on Emmett street that will cut into $30,000 worth of lots for only $12,000. If you're not too late, get one of these pieces.

FINE FARM. GREAT BARGAIN.

1,031 ACRES of fine land at only $10 per acre; six miles from the railroad station, public road through farm, and one-quarter mile to a well-traveled public road. About one-half in good red soil and one-half of light chocolate, so good that every negro on the place is averaging 15 bales to the plow. The land lies fine and is well watered; 200 acres of good wooded pasture on river; 600 acres open; 300 acres cultivated; a fine lot of pine, some good white oak and cypress, and wood enough to run for a long time. Good home place of four large, comfortable rooms, ceiled; new wagon shed 25x35; three-story barn 40x50; several outbuildings; ten tenant houses; farm is well fenced for stock-raising. Fine gin on place; 115 bales ginned this year and seven or eight to be ginned. Owner cleared $3,000 on cotton alone this year. You cannot touch land adjoining for less than $18 or $25 per acre. This is too good to let slip; get busy while salesman is on the place. Must sell this week.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL THE MARKETS

AN EARLY ADVANCE; FOLLOWED BY A BREAK

Cotton Market Closed Steady at Net Decline of Twelve to Seventeen Points.

New York, November 18.—The cotton market was very nervous and unsteady, an early advance being followed by a sharp break with the close steady in tone, but at a net decline of 12@17 points.

The opening was steady, net 2 points lower to 2 points higher, very little attention being paid to disappointing cables, while following the call prices sold up to a net advance of 6@9 points on covering. New Orleans bull support and fresh buying for long account. The demand was encouraged by an apparently quite general feeling of satisfaction as to the action of the New York revis on committee, after the close last night, and also by the showing of the weather map suggesting that any hope of further top crop development must be abandoned as a result of low temperatures. But a great deal of long cotton was seen to be coming out on the advance to 14.81 for January and 15.26 for My. This sell ng was accompanied by rumors that leading bulls were liquidating, and later rumors were circulating that the report of the National Ginners' Association w ll show 8,250,000 bales ginned to November 14, or considerably more than rumored a day or two ago. The market became very weak in consequence, with liquidation more general, and in the late trading January contracts sold at 14.57 and May at 15, or 17 to 18 points net lower. The close was within a point or two of the lowest on the active months. All sorts of rumors were circulating during the day as to the character of some of the heaviest selling, with local and New Orleans bulls attributing it to Memphis interests, while local bears claimed that the big bulls were themselves unloading. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 1-16c higher, and most of the private advices received from the south dur ng the day reported a good demand and firm inter or markets.

Receipts at the ports today 41,118 bales, against 46,107 last week and 63,846 last year. For the week 300,000 bales, against 367,730 last week and 403,930 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 13,527 bales, against 16,535 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 5 points lower; middling uplands 14.90; middling gulf 15.15; sales 5,100 bales.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, November 18.—Cotton, spots were easy; low ordinary 10 13-16, nominal; ordinary 11 5-8c, nominal; good ordinary 12 1-16c; strict good ordinary 13 1-2c; low middling 13 15-16c; strict low middling 14 1-4c; middling 14 1-2c; strict middling 14 5-8c; good middling 14 3-4c; strict good middling 14 15-16c; middling fair 15 1-16c; middling fair to fair 15 7-16c; fair 15 13-16c, nominal; receipts 13,527; stock 209,509; sales on the spot 245 bales; to arrive none.

Futures opened steady at an advance of 1@5 points. Cables were unfavorable, but weather news was bad enough to offset them. In the early hours the market advanced gradually to a level of 13 points over yesterday's closing on reports of light to heavy and killing frosts over night in nearly all sections of the cotton belt. Heavy straddle selling met this advance, operators who make a specialty of this sort of trading selling on this side and buying in Liverpool. Bears saw that this selling gave them the advantage and they put out fresh short lines. The pressure from the selling in the afternoon put prices 24 to 30 points down from the top and 12 to 15 points below yesterday. The closing was steady at a net decline of 12 to 14 points.

Dry Goods.

New York, November 18.—The dry goods markets continue somewhat quiet in the primary division, although not unseasonably so. Jobbers are booking many advance orders and are especially active in the print departments. Raw silk is easy. Dress goods are quiet. Retail trade is reported as expanding steadily.

Liverpool Cotton.

Liverpool, November 18.—Closing: Cotton, spot dull;; prices unchanged; American middling 8.18; good middling 7.94; middling 7.82; low middling 7.72; good ordinary 7.46; ordinary 7.21. The sales of the day were 5,000 bales, of which 500 were for speculation and export, and included 4,500 American. Receipts 37,000 bales, including 36,600 American. Futures opened easier and closed quiet.

Argo, Jester & Co.

New York, November 18.—With occasional spells of weakness the market took the selling very well today, and there was a good deal of pressure on at times. There were rumors that the National Ginners would issue a report showing eight and a quarter million ginned to the end of this period, and that some lines of long cotton were being liquidated on the strength of this. These reports were firmly denied, but the idea persisted that longs were higher, trying to liquidate or were working for a lower basis on which to buy. Some short cotton was undoubtedly put out, but it is of the sort that will cover quickly at any sign of danger. The market will have periods of weakness, but with spots so strong and the movement falling off so decidedly we consider the situation as favorable for a quick recovery from any temporary decline, and would buy on all soft spots.

ENORMOUS PROFITS OF THE WELLS-FARGO

Announcement of the "Melon Cutting" Main Incident on the Stock Exchange.

New York, November 18.—The strong tone of stocks today was not accompanied by animation in the speculation. Some of the day's incidents were calculated to give a tonic influence to values, but the international money position is of sufficient effect yet to constrain the speculation within temperate bounds. The most striking incident of the day's news was the announcement of the "melon cutting" by the Wells-Fargo Express Company. The details of the distribution give a peculiar force to Wall street's expressive vernacular term of such an operation. The maximum dividend distribution of this stock up to the present time has been 10 per cent yearly, the advance to that rate representing a concession to demands from a clamorous minority of the stockholders calling for a share in the accumulating surplus of the company's dividends, which were determinedly opposed by the controlling influenve of the late E. H. Harriman. The high record price for the stock before the present year was 325. Today's announcement induced sales at 560. The distribution amounts to three times the par value of the outsanding stock in cash, calling for $24,000,000, while the capital is increased to three-fold at the same time, and the increase offered to present stockholders at par. The reinvestment of capital to be distributed which is invited by this plan might involve some ingenious reasoning as to the direct profit accruing, but the effect is sufficiently brilliant to appeal to investment holders of all similarly situated corporations. The collateral topic came up for discussion as to how far this action might be designed to anticipate possible inquisitorial activities by government authorities and legislators as to the conduct of an industry that yields such profits, especially in view of the contentions by the national authorities for the inclusion of the express companies as common carriers.

In addition to the express company stocks, various other high-grade investment stocks rose buoyantly, especially those for which the possession of "concealed assets" is claimed. The anthracite carriers came within this range, and the speculation in Reading was stimulated by the wide movements in the less active members of that group, the coppers were revived to some extent and there were reports of some recent large sales of the metal, which were put forward, however, without official authority attached. The issuance of the call for reports of condition of national banks at the close of business November 16 has been expected to relieve the banks from some constraint in granting accommodations which they have been under while awaiting this call. The building up of the Bank of England reserve to 54.06 to liability gives a strong impression of the effectiveness of the recuperation of that institution. Foreign financial markets seemed somewhat more impressive today, however, with the political complexion threatened by the rejection of the British budget. The necessity of large government borrowings which will follow will oblige the bank to maintain a very large proportion of reserves, and is expected to be a depressing influence on business in London, and in investments there. The Bank of France is relied on to safeguard the position, and is now a lender to the Bank of England, it is said, of $10,000,000 in gold. There was another engagement of gold made in New York for shipment to South America, raising the total outgo for the present banking week on that account to $4,400,000. The easier tone of the time money market was maintained, and call loan rates did not get above 5 per cent.

Bonds wre firm. Total sales, par value $3,232,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

WHEAT MADE GAINS BY SHORTS COVERING

Final Figures Three-Quarters to One and One-Eighth Above Previous Close.

Chicago, November 18.—Belated covering by shorts caused a sharp rally in the wheat market here today, and final figures showed net gains of ¾c to 1⅛c. Corn and oats closed steady, and provisions irregular.

Despite the absence of any important news of bullish proclivities, the wheat market was firm almost the entire day. Trading during much of the time, however, was inclined to drag, owing to the meagerness of offerings, but in the final hour considerable activity developed, numerous smaller shorts becoming urgent bidders, which resulted in an advance of more than 1c from the low points for the leading options. An advance of ⅝d at Liverpool, said to have been due partly to reports of labor disturbances at Buenos Ayres, and a much smaller movement in the northwest, were the chief factors contributing to the advance here. A falling off in the total primary movement also had a bullish effect. The range for the day on the May delivery, trading in which option was the most active, was between $1.04½@1.04⅝, and $1.05⅜. The market closed at the top, with the exception of May, final figures on which were ⅛c below the best mark.

An increased disposition on the part of country dealers to sell corn, and the continued slackness of demand for cash grain by eastern shippers had a depressing effect on the corn market, which was heavy a large part of the day. The late bulge in wheat, however, started covering by shorts, which resulted in a firmer tone at the close. Final figures were up ⅛c compared with yesterday's close.

Trading in the oats pit was exceedingly quiet, and prices moved within ¼c range. The strength of wheat was the chief factor in the situation. The market closed steady with prices a shade to ⅛c higher.

Expectations of a considerable increase in the hog movement throughout the west next week had a depressing effect on provisions, there being free selling by packers. The market displayed decided strength at the start owing to light receipts of hogs, but soon weakened. Lard was an exception, and ruled firm all day owing to covering by shorts.

Coffee.

New York, November 18.—The market for coffee futures opened firm at an advance of 5@10 points on private cables estimating the coming Santos crop at from 8,000,000 to 8,500,000 bags, and higher European markets. Trading here was more active than recently, with an increase of business through commission houses, while the market also received support from local bulls and European buying orders. The French market closed unchanged to ¼ higher, and Hamburg was ¼ to ½ pfennings higher. There was considerable switching from near to late months in the local market, but near months liquidating sales were well absorbed and the close was firm at a net advance of 10@20 points. Sales were reported of 88,250 bags, including November at 6.45; December at 6.40@6.45; May at 6.65@6.75; July at 6.75@6.85; September at 6.75@6.85.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, November 18.—On the opening there was an active demand from outside buyers, who carried the market up to about the high point of yesterday. This demand was apparently supplied by the bulls, as brokers usually identified with their interests were heavy sellers. When the weight of this selling was felt, prices fell off, under realizing, by other longs, but on the decines these brokers again appeared as buyers, and continued to absorb the offering all day. The cause of the latter outside selling was the rumor that the National Ginners' report would be 8,100,000 bales, which was more than expected by 200,000 bales. Tonight the trade are disappointed at this estimate, and at the failure of the market to respond to light receipts. They, however, believe that the bulls will continue to support the market in any break, and that the outsiders will buy, as before, on any decline. Europe will think the ginners' report is bearish, as indicating a crop of 11,500,000 bales.

NOTICE OF BOND ELECTION TO BE HELD ON DECEMBER 15, 1909.

STATE OF GEORGIA—County of Fulton, City of Atlanta.

Notice is hereby given to the qualified voters of the city of Atlanta that the mayor and general council of said city have called an election to be held at the several voting precincts in the city of Atlanta, within the legal hours for holding elections, on Wednesday, the 15th day of December, 1909, to determine whether the qualified voters of city of Atlanta will assent, by the requisite two-thirds majority, to the issue of the following bonds:

First—$1,350,000.00 of bonds of the city of Atlanta of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, bearing interest at the rate of 4½ per centum, the principal of said bonds to be paid in 30 equal instalments, annually, beginning January 1, 1911, in gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard of weight and fineness, and the interest on said bonds to be evidenced by coupons falling due semi-annually and to be paid in gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard of weight and fineness.

If said issue of bonds is assented to, by the requisite vote, an annual tax shall thereafter be levied, beginning with the year 1910 and running through the next succeeding 29 years and collected by the authority of the mayor and general council of the city of Atlanta, on the taxable property within said city, sufficient in amount to pay the interest semi-annually on said issue of bonds, and for the payment of interest on said bonds as may not have been paid off for each year thereafter, and for the payment of $45,000.00 per annum of the principal of said bonds, and the fund so raised annually on account of the principal of said bonds shall be applied only to the payment of said bonds as they mature. The proceeds of said bonds shall be applied exclusively to the extension of the present sewer system and the provision of means for the disposal and purification of sewage, within and without the limits of the city.

Voters at said election favoring the issue of bonds for the extension of sewers and the provision of means for the disposal and purification of sewage, shall have written or printed on their tickets the words:

"For the issue of one million three hundred and fifty thousand ($1,350,000.00) dollars of bonds for the extension of the sewer system and the provision of means for the disposal and purification of sewage."

Voters opposing the issue of such bonds, shall have written or printed on their tickets the words:

"Against the issue of one million three hundred and fifty thousand ($1,350,000.00) dollars of bonds for the extension of the sewer system and the provision of means for the disposal and purification of sewage."

Second—$900,000.00 of bonds of the city of Atlanta of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, bearing interest at the rate of 4½ per centum, the principal of said bonds to be paid in 30 equal instalments, annually, beginning January 1, 1911, in gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard of weight and fineness, and the interest on said bonds to be evidenced by coupons falling due semi-annually and to be paid in gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard of weight and fineness.

If said issue of bonds is assented to, by the requisite vote, an annual tax shall thereafter be levied, beginning with the year 1910 and running through the next succeeding 29 years and collected by the authority of the mayor and general council of the city of Atlanta, on the taxable property within said city, sufficient in amount to pay the interest semi-annually on said issue of bonds, and for the payment of interest on said bonds as may not have been paid off for each year thereafter, and for the payment of $30,000.00 per annum of the principal of said bonds—and the fund so raised annually on account of the principal of said bonds shall be applied only to the payment of said bonds as they mature. The proceeds of said bonds shall be applied exclusively to the extension and improvement of the present system of waterworks, and for additional equipment and reservoirs at the waterworks stations.

Voters at said election favoring the proposed issue of bonds for the extension and improvement of the system of waterworks and additional equipment and reservoirs at the waterworks stations, shall have written or printed on their tickets the words:

"For the issue of nine hundred thousand ($900,000.00) dollars of bonds for the extension and improvement of the system of waterworks."

Voters opposing the issue of said bonds shall have written or printed on their tickets the following words:

"Against the issue of nine hundred thousand ($900,000.00) dollars of bonds for the extension and improvement of the system of waterworks."

Third—$600,000.00 of bonds of the city of Atlanta of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, bearing interest at the rate of 4½ per centum, the principal of said bonds to be paid in 30 equal instalments, annually, beginning January 1, 1911, in gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard of weight and fineness, and the interest on said bonds to be evidenced by coupons falling due semi-annually and to be paid in gold coin of the United States of America, of the present standard of weight and fineness. If said issue of bonds is assented to, by the requisite two-thirds vote, an annual tax shall thereafter be levied, beginning with the year 1910 and running through the next succeeding 29 years and collected by authority of the mayor and general council of the city of Atlanta, on the taxable property within said city sufficient in amount to pay the interest semi-annually on said issue of bonds, and for the payment of interest on said bonds as may not have been paid off for each year thereafter, and for the payment of $20,000.00 per annum of the principal of said bonds, and the fund so raised annually shall be applied only to the payment of the interest on said bonds as they mature. The proceeds of said bonds shall be applied exclusively to the erection of additional crematories and the purchase of lots therefor.

Voters at said election favoring the issue of bonds for the erection of additional crematories and the purchase of lots therefor, shall have written or printed on their tickets the following words:

"For the issue of six hundred thousand ($600,000.00) dollars of bonds for crematories."

Voters opposing the issue of such bonds, shall have written or printed on their tickets the following words:

"Against the issue of six hundred thousand ($600,000.00) dollars of bonds for crematories."

Fourth—$100,000.00 of bonds of the city of Atlanta, of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, bearing interest at the rate of 4½ per centum per annum, the principal of said bonds to run 30 years from the date thereof and to be paid in gold coin of the United States of America, of the present standard of weight and fineness, and the interest on said bonds to be evidenced by coupons falling due semi-annually, and to be paid in gold coin of the United States of America, of the present standard of weight and fineness. If said issue of bonds is assented to, by the requisite two-thirds vote, an annual tax shall thereafter be levied, beginning with the year 1910 and running through the next succeeding 29 years and collected by authority of the mayor and general council of the city of Atlanta, on the taxable property within said city sufficient in amount to pay $4,500.00 interest per annum, and $3,334.00 per anum of the principal of said bonds, and the funds so raised annually shall be applied only to the payment of interest on the issue of said bonds, and the fund so raised annually on account of the principal of said bonds shall be kept in a sinking fund for that purpose and applied at the maturity of said bonds to the payment thereof. The proceeds of said bonds shall be applied exclusively for extensions and additions to the buildings at Grady Hospital.

Voters at said election favoring the issue of bonds for extensions and additions to the buildings at Grady Hospital, shall have written or printed on their tickets the words:

"For the issue of one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars of bonds for additions to Grady Hospital."

Voters at said election opposing the issue of such bonds shall have written or printed on their tickets the following words:

"Against the issue of one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars of bonds for additions to Grady Hospital."

Fifth—$50,000.00 of bonds of the city of Atlanta, of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, bearing interest at the rate of 4½ per centum per annum, the principal of said bonds to run 30 years from the date thereof and to be paid in gold coin of the United States of America, of the present standard of weight and fineness, and the interest on said bonds to be evidenced by coupons falling due semi-annually, and to be paid in gold coin of the United States of America, of the present standard of weight and fineness. If said issue of bonds is assented to, by the requisite two-thirds vote, an annual tax shall thereafter be levied, beginning with the year 1910 and running through the next succeeding 29 years and collected by authority of the mayor and general council of the city of Atlanta, on the taxable property within said city sufficient in amount to pay $2,250.00 interest per annum, and $1,667.00 per annum of the principal of said bonds, and the funds so raised annually shall be applied only to the payment of interest on the issue of said bonds, and the fund so raised annually on account of the principal of said bonds shall be kept in a sinking fund for that purpose and applied at the maturity of said bonds to the payment thereof. The proceeds of said bonds shall be applied exclusively for the erection of additional crematory plants and the purchase of lots therefor.

Voters at said election favoring the issue of bonds for the erection of additional crematories and the purchase of lots therefor, shall have written or printed on their tickets the following words:

"For the issue of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars of bonds for crematories."

Voters opposing the issue of such bonds, shall have written or printed on their tickets the following words:

"Against the issue of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars of bonds for crematories."

Notice is also given that the tax collector of Fulton county, state of Georgia, the registrar of voters for elections ordered by the mayor and general council of the city of Atlanta, has books of registration open for the purpose of registering the qualified voters of the city, under ordinances and laws governing same, and such registrar will keep said books of registration open daily, Sundays excepted, until within ten days of the date of said election, at his office in the annex of the courthouse, on East Hunter street, between South Pryor street and Central avenue, in the city of Atlanta, said county, and only those voters whose names appear on said registration books, as qualified to vote in the city elections for the present year and on said bond issues, shall be permitted to vote in said election.

The election will be conducted under the rules and regulations governing the election of mayor, aldermen and councilmen of said city.

Notice is given in pursuance of an ordinance calling for said election approved on the 8th day of October, 1909.

Given under the official hand and seal of said city on this 15th day of November, 1909.

ROBT. F. MADDOX,
Mayor of the City of Atlanta.

J. P. FOSTER,
Clerk of Council of the City of Atlanta.

NOTICE TO BUILDING CONTRACTORS.

SEALED BIDS will be received at the office of A. C. Moore, Chairman, Columbia, S. C., for the construction of graded school building for the city of Columbia, South Carolina, to be erected in Columbia, S. C., until 12 M., November 29th, next.

Each bid for the construction of the building must be accompanied by a certified check for $5,000, made payable to A. C. Moore, Chairman, as a guarantee that if awarded the contract, the successful bidder will promptly enter into the contract and furnish his bond as required by the specifications. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Drawings and specifications may be seen at the office of Edwards & Walter, Architects, 631 Candler building, Atlanta, Georgia, after November 1st.

Contractors wishing to bid may obtain drawings and specifications from the Architects by depositing with them a certified check for $25.00 as a guarantee that they will present a bona fide bid on the work, and as guarantee of the safe and prompt return of the drawings and specifications to the office of Edwards & Walter, without cost to the Architects. Sub-contractors wishing to procure drawings and specifications are required to pay the Architects $10.00 for the use of said drawings.

BOARD OF EDUCATION, COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA.
A. C. MOORE, Chairman.

How Money Grows

Buy acreage along the South Decatur car line. Look how every other line is built up, except this one. There is no similar opportunity around Atlanta.

In about sixty days Ponce de Leon avenue will be finished through Druid Hills, connecting with the graded driveway to East Lake.

This extension of Ponce de Leon avenue crosses the South Decatur line at Oakview, about half a mile from Decatur. There is a good spot to buy some land.
